Maggie May Wickam, infant daughter of W. M. and Abbie Wickam, aged 9 months and 23 days, died in Oregon City, Tuesday, September 9th, at 2:45 a.m. The funeral took place at the family residence on the next day at 10 a.m., conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery.

Rev. I. D. Driver, senator-elect from Lane county, and well known preacher and platform orator, will address the citizens of Oregon City on Tuesday evening, September 15th. Dr. Driver held Bob Ingersoll level in a debate, and has the reputation of being able to whip the devil any day that he crosses his path. On Tuesday he will refute all arguments and statements made by Dr. Barkley on Thursday night.

There will be a republican meeting at Eagle Creek on Saturday afternoon, September 19th, at 2 p. m., when a grand jubilation will be held. Hon. T. T. Geer, the "Waldo Hills Farmer," candidate for presidential elector, will address the meeting. The Multipor Quartette, of Portland, will furnish the music for the occasion. The voters of Clackamas county are cordially invited to be present. Ladies especially invited.

West Side Locals.
Chas. A. Moehke was visiting relatives in Highland and Mink last Sunday.

Mrs. James Ward is at present spending a few days with friends at Highland and Mink.

Several are leaving this part for the hop fields. We wish them a happy and profitable trip.

Mr. Parker has finished off the outside of his house with ornamental shingles instead of rustic, which gives his dwelling a very neat appearance.

The sound of the steam wood saw is heard early and late over here at present. Judging from the big piles of wood people are expecting a cold winter.

We will never have good times again until each individual tries, and at least partially succeeds in setting his affairs in order, no matter how the election goes.

Jane Jones, accompanied by her brother Clark, drove to Highland last Friday morning and spent Saturday and Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Robert Rutherford, returning Monday.

A number of our singers gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simonds last Friday evening for a practice. After singing for some time all were invited to partake of some delicious watermelon.

Prof. C. W. Darrette intends to move from Gladstone to this side this week so as to be nearer his school, which opens next Monday. We are pleased to have him among us again. He will occupy a dwelling adjoining McMillan's store.

Erastus Smith made a trip to somewhere in New Era precinct last Saturday evening, returning in the "wee sma' hours o' the night. It is supposed that he went to talk on free silver. No doubt he had a "fair" audience which must have been very attentive to the silver orator on the ratio of 1 to 1.

Master Walter Taylor celebrated his 7th birthday on the 3d inst by inviting 12 of his playmates to spend the afternoon with him. The time was spent in playing games and listening to stories read by his mother, Mrs. Taylor. Ice cream was served at 4 o'clock and at 5 o'clock the party dispersed, having had a very enjoyable time.

Instead of the regular prayer meeting Wednesday evening, Rev. Gilman Parker preached a very impressive sermon in the chapel to quite a gathering, his text being "Set thine house in order, for thou shalt die, and not live!" Among many other things he said: "We are not prepared to live until we are prepared to die. We make a mistake when we set our temporal or moral or spiritual affairs in order, that we may live; we ought to do so that we may be prepared to die."

PERSONAL NOTES.

Misses Echo Samson and Ivy Roake left Tuesday to spend a few days on the Samson farm near Marquam.

R. H. Currin, a member of the well-known family for which Currinsville was named, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

W. M. Wade, a son of W. H. H. Wade of Currinsville, and a worthy chip off the old block, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Miss Josie Chase has arrived from Colfax, Washington, and will make her home with her aunt, Mrs. R. D. Wilson.

James Roake has returned from an extended visit to California, and is better pleased than an ever with Oregon City.

Joseph Dimick was up from Portland Sunday, and visited his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Purdom.

Mrs. T. W. Clark and family returned from Bandon Tuesday, where they have been spending the summer with Mr. Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Prior left Saturday, to take their annual outing at Long Beach. They will remain for a couple of weeks.

Prof. S. W. Holmes and family will occupy the dwelling on Madison and Eleventh streets, recently vacated by Mrs. A. J. Monroe.

Charles H. Logus, of Portland, and H. S. Moody left Tuesday for Linn county, where they will spend a couple of weeks hunting.

Miss Celia Goldsmith returned from San Francisco Monday night, where she has been purchasing millinery goods, and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rees, formerly of this city, left Oswego last week for Centralia, Wash., where they will make their future home.

P. F. Morey and family, who have been spending the summer months at their country place near Oswego, returned to the city last Friday.

Attorney G. B. Dimick spent Sunday at Hubbard with his brother, who is seriously ill with a spinal complaint. His condition is a little improved.

Charles Luelling now officiates as deputy county recorder in place of his sister, Miss Olive, who is attending the state normal school at Monmouth.

Miss Ora Thompson was up from Portland Sunday and spent the day with her sister, Mrs. W. W. Stovall. She left Tuesday to visit her parents at Corvallis.

Claude Hoffman and Arthur Quinn left Saturday for San Francisco, where they expect to enlist on the battleship Philadelphia, and become full-fledged marines.

Miss Mollie Hankins has been installed as financial secretary of Abernethy Rebekah Degree Lodge, No. 80, in place of Miss Shaw, who has removed to Dallas.

L. C. Sparks, of Vancouver, accompanied by Misses Florence, Effie and Lennie Snodgrass, spent Sunday with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bacon.

George Warner and family returned Tuesday from Ilwaco, and will remain in Oregon City during the winter. Business has closed down in the Ilwaco cannery for the season.

Miss Lola Schaub and brother, Warren, of Jacksonville, Illinois, stopped over a day in Oregon City while making a tour of the coast, spending Thursday with Mrs. W. H. Burghardt.

Attorney A. L. Frazier came up from Portland last Friday on his bicycle to look after some legal matters. He came up on the West Side, and reports the road in excellent condition.

The family of C. A. Woody, editor of the Pacific Baptist in Portland, have returned to their home at Gladstone from Ocean Park where they have spent the greater portion of the summer.

Hon. G. E. Hayes, accompanied by Mrs. Hayes and little daughter, left for their Oregon City home on the 8 o'clock Monday, after a pleasant visit with Salem relatives.—Salem Statesman.

Ex-County Treasurer M. L. Moore has returned from an outing at Newport, to which place he was accompanied by his family. They report a pleasant stay by the side of the roaring ocean.

Norman Marrs, who has for the past two years been holding a responsible position in the store of the Aberdeen Packing company at Ilwaco, has been home for the past week visiting his relatives and friends.

E. E. Charman left for Newport Monday to join his family. On the way he will visit his estate in Polk county, Elmore farm. Accompanied by Mrs. Charman and Miss June, he returned the latter part of this week.

M. F. Lantz, a Needy school teacher, was in the city Monday. He will attend the Albany college during the coming school year. As he has proven himself a successful pedagogue, he will no doubt acquit himself creditably at that institution.

The Marsfield Sun has the following concerning our former well known townsman: T. W. Clark, of Bandon, was in town last week on his way to San Francisco to make arrangements to dispose of the output of coal from the River-ton mine.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Gilson, of Seattle, have been in the city for several days, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller and other relatives. Mr. Gilson was a visitor here last spring with the members of the Seattle city council, of which body he is an important factor.

The camping party consisting of Grandpa Bolds, Mrs. H. E. Cross, her son Percy and daughter Dolly and Miss Elsie Houck, together with Mrs. Cross's little ones returned Monday from a pleasant three week's outing on the head of Fall creek on the upper Clackamas.

Miss Bessie Evans, of Oregon City, visited Mrs. H. D. Jones last week. Miss Evans will soon move to the Grove to continue her studies in the Pacific university. She will continue the elocution class which was so favorably received last year.—Washington County Hatchet.

J. M. Somers, a leading Albany attorney, was in Oregon City Wednesday. He has the proud distinction of being the only republican, elected on the legislative ticket in Linn county last June, receiving 120 majority in face of the heavy populist vote rolled up for the other candidates.

Miss Mina Kelly, one of the clerks in the register's department of the Oregon City land office has a two week's vacation, and left Friday night for San Francisco, where she will visit Mrs. N. W. Lawrence. Her sister, Miss May, who has been spending the summer in California, will return home with her.

Hon. George O. Rinearson, accompanied by his family, returned from a two months stay at Newport last Friday. They had a most enjoyable outing at this popular seaside resort. Mr. Rinearson is an ardent supporter of McKinley and Hobart, and firmly believes that they will carry Oregon in November.

Miss Ana Baird, who has been one of the efficient teachers in the Eastham school for the past two years, and who was re-elected to the same position, has resigned to take the place as teacher of the first grade in the Sellwood school. The board of directors of the Oregon City district will meet this evening to elect a teacher to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. H. E. Chipman, of this city, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Moore, of Salem. Mr. Chipman was formerly master mechanic of the Oregon Central & Eastern Railroad at Yaquina, but is now connected with the Pacific Bridge Company, who have the contract of building the addition to the West Side General Electric Company.

Miss Hattie Cochran, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Robinson at Sacramento, Cal., accompanied by her nephew, Fred Charman, Jr., are expected home Saturday. They have been in California for the past two months, and will be accompanied by Mrs. James Robinson and two children, who will make a short visit here.

Prof. F. L. Washburn, professor of entomology at the state university, was in Oregon City this week. He has been making some interesting experiments with the mud deposits of several of the bays along the coast, and finds plenty of the natural food of the oyster. A car load of Eastern oysters will be brought out under the direction of the fish commissioner for propagation in Oregon waters.

David Caulfield, M. F. McCown, Felix Strickland and Charles Noblitt, composed a party that left Oregon City Monday afternoon for a hunting and prospecting trip to Mount Jefferson. They took along a pack canoe, which will be pressed into service as soon as they reach the terminus of the wagon road. They expect to be absent about ten days.

William Andresen and Jack Baker returned Tuesday afternoon from a delightful pleasure and hunting trip up the Willamette. Last Saturday morning they boarded the Altona, taking with them a small rowboat and a camping outfit, and were landed at a point above Wheatland. They had a great time camping and shooting birds, and after leisurely floating down the stream and hunting along the banks, until they were half way down the river to the starting point, they again went on board the Altona and came home.

A party, consisting of Charles Drew, Rae Norris, Charles Crisswell, Lou Horne and Rutherford Whitlock returned from a hunting and fishing trip of ten days' duration to Mount Hood last Saturday. They only went up the mountain as far as Crater rock, but were successful in bagging a number of birds and secured a good catch of mountain trout, but did not get any huckleberries worth mentioning.

W. G. Beattie, Waldo Adams and Harley Stevens leave (today) Friday for Eugene, where they will take up a course of studies in the state university. With J. H. Carrico, who has already been a student at that institution, Oregon City will have four representatives at the state university. J. C. Williams had intended to go to Eugene, but he has changed his mind, and will probably attend the Portland Academy.

Dr. J. W. Cowan and family returned Friday from a month's outing at Clatsop beach. They had a most delightful camping place sheltered from the winds by a natural embankment of sand, and shaded by scrubby pines, while a splendid view of the ocean was afforded from the tent door. The only drawback to their complete enjoyment of camp life, was that three of their children were taken with chicken pox during the latter part of their stay.

A Milwaukee pleasure party, chaperoned by Mrs. Frank Wills, and consisting of Misses Rose and Anna Scott, Miss Phoebe Cole, and Messrs. B. Campbell, Frank Glover, Henry and Willie Scott, F. Cole and Prof. T. J. Gary returned from the Tillamook coast last Saturday. They were gone two weeks, and report a most enjoyable outing. The fishing was splendid, and the beach and bathing all that could be desired.

Rev. Gilman Parker occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church at Eugene last Sunday. Mr. Parker is personally acquainted with General Palmer, the democratic sound money candidate for president, who is a prominent member of the First Baptist church of Springfield, Illinois. Although Rev. Parker is an ardent protectionist, and will likely vote for McKinley for president, he has the highest personal regard for Senator Palmer as a man and brother.

Prof. W. S. Holmes, superintendent of the Oregon City schools, returned from his Eastern trip Monday. His family are still at Union, but will arrive as soon as Mr. Holmes secures a house. Professor Holmes and family have been away nearly three months, but a portion of the time was spent in Eastern Oregon. During his absence he visited Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana, and derived much pleasure from the trip. The professor gives it as his opinion that McKinley will be elected, although the race will be a close one, and is confident that both Illinois and Indiana will roll up a majority for the republican standard-bearer.

Republican Rally at Pleasant Hill.

A very enthusiastic meeting of the McKinley club was held at their headquarters last Tuesday evening, the speaker being Charles Toose, a young lawyer of Wilsonville. The speaker reviewed the money question in a very clear and concise manner, the theory being so plain that no one could fail to understand it. It was a masterly address and carried connection to all his hearers and at the close of the meeting three prominent populists signed the roll of the McKinley club and will hereafter march under the gold banner. The meeting was enlivened by stirring campaign songs by Mrs. Toose and Mrs. Jolly. At the close of the meeting Mr. Toose proposed that they give three cheers for Bryan, but there were no Bryan men there as no one cheered. Then they gave three cheers for McKinley. It is needless to say that the McKinley men were there as the cheers were deafening. Great interest is manifested at these meetings.
