Henry Jewell of Clarks, is moving this week to his new residence in Gladstone which he has just completed. Mr. Jewell has one of the largest and finest looking houses in Gladstone.

The whole system is drained and undetermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. C. G. Huntley Druggist.

If dull, spiritless and stupid; if your blood is thick and sluggish; if your appetite is capricious and uncertain. You need a Sarsaparilla. For best results take DeWitt's. It recommends itself. C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

The M. E. conference will convene at Roseburg next week. Dr. Stryker has asked his bishop to leave him without pastoral charge, as his health is impaired and his physicians advise a rest. Next Sunday will probably be his last Sunday in Oregon City.

Don't trifle away time when you have cholera morbus or diarrhea. Fight them in the beginning with De Witt's Colic & Cholera Cure. Don't have to wait for results, they are instantaneous and it leaves the bowels in a healthy condition. C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

Mrs. E. E. Martin, who is receiving a new invoice of millinery and other goods, on Monday last, moved her entire stock from the old M. E. church building to the quarters previously occupied by their establishment, next door to the postoffice. She will have a grand millinery opening next week.

A free silver club has been organized in Oregon City, and its leaders now claim a membership of 200. Following are the officers: Hiram Straight, president; Charles A. Fitch, vice-president; A. W. Cheney, secretary; C. D. Latourrette, treasurer, and C. A. Fitch, J. J. Cooke and H. P. Bestow, executive committee.

Thrashing machine men will find at the Enterprise office a perfect record and receipt book. Blank space for recording each days work, amount and price and arranged in duplicate form so that it can be used as a receipt as well as memoranda of the work. Most complete thing ever gotten out. Machine men who used this book last season have ordered for this year. Sent by mail for 75 cents.

If you have ever seen a little child in the agony of summer complaint, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instantaneous relief always afforded by De Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhea it is a reliable remedy. We could not afford to recommend this as a cure unless it were a cure. C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

Fresh oysters in any style at the Novelty Candy Factory.

All the latest novelties, notions, hosiery and underwear for ladies, gents', and children at the Rocket store.

All kinds of fresh and salt water fish on ice at Humphrey Trembath's, next door to Albright's meat market.

Mrs. C. H. Dye was elected president, and Mrs. H. S. Strange secretary of McLaughlin Chautauque circle, at the meeting held last Monday night.

If the hair is falling out and turning gray, the glands of the skin need stimulating and color-food, and the best remedy and stimulant is Hall's Hair Renewer.

Secretary Johnson, of the Y. M. C. A. announces that the gymnasium classes will begin October 1st. Educational classes will be formed, also a ladies' class and a boys' class.

Many a day's work is lost by sick head ache, caused by indigestion and stomach trouble. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most effectual pills for overcoming such difficulties. C. G. Huntley Druggist.

The Novelty Candy Factory's big fountain is running almost day and night and the proprietors are serving their customers with the finest ice cream soda, Artie soda, Wilhoit mineral water, root beer and carbonated orange cider.

Theories of cure may be discussed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want quick relief; and One Minute Cough Cure will give it to them. A safe cure for children. It is "the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results." C. G. Huntley, Druggist.

Don't fail to read the card of Mrs. J. H. Strickler in this issue. Mrs. Strickler comes with the highest recommendations from Professor Heritage, director of the College of Music at Salem, under whose instructions she received last fall a first-class certificate for teaching.

The Oregon City Y. M. C. A. team won a signal victory on the Portland field last Saturday. They beat the well trained Portland Y. M. C. A. team in a score of 26 to 11. The personnel of the Oregon City team, who won the victory were: William Neisger, Howard Brownell, Ed Reckner, James Church, Leighton Kelly, Ralph Cross, George Greger and A. F. Parker.

On last Thursday evening the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church, gave Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Cowan a reception in the church parlors in honor of their return from Seaside. One of the features of the evening's entertainment was an old fashioned spelling match, only that the words were spelled backward. Mrs. M. L. White did the pronouncing. Refreshments were served.

The well known grocery firm of Marr & Robertson on upper Seventh street, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Marr and family expect to locate in Portland, while Mr. Robertson will continue the business at the old stand. Mr. Robertson is noted for square dealing, and as he is universally popular with the public, he will no doubt receive many new customers.

Mrs. S. A. Kell, of Pomona, Cal., had the bad luck to sprain her ankle. "I tried several liniments," she says, "but was not cured until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. That remedy cured me and I take pleasure in recommending it and testifying to its efficiency." This medicine is also of great value for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the chest, pleurisy and all deep-seated and muscular pains. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

The city council held an adjourned meeting Tuesday night, and concluded to have Seventh street from Main to the railroad right of way improved with crushed rock, and the committee on streets and public property were directed to advertise for bids for the improvement of the same. It would only cost $300 more to pave this piece of street with vitrified brick than to make the proposed improvement, and those up on street improvements, claim that plank makes a better street than crushed rock. However, the abutting property owners want crushed rock, and as they foot the bill the public ought to be satisfied.

Mrs. E. E. Davis, of San Miguel, Cal. says: "I am trying in a measure to repay the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the great good their remedy has done me. For years I was a constant sufferer from weak lungs and bronchial asthma. My rest at night was disturbed by a hacking cough, so that I felt miserable the greater part of the time. Many remedies recommended by friends were tried, none of which proved suitable to my case. I did not experience any beneficial results until I began taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After two bottles of the large size have been used I am pleased to state, my health is better than it has been for years. The soreness has left my lungs and chest and I can breathe easily. It has done me so much good that I want all who are suffering from lung troubles, as I was, to give it a trial." For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

Dr. Driver Talks Sound Sense and Patriotism.

Shively's opera house was more than crowded Tuesday evening to hear Rev. I. D. Driver talk. Splendid music was furnished by a chorus, with Miss Beatrice Barlow at the piano. President Dresser, of the McKinley & Hobart League, prefaced Dr. Driver's speech, with a few stirring political echoes, that created applause. Rev. Driver began by saying that there was but one other that he loved more than the president—Jesus Christ. He thought protection of more importance to the prosperity of the country than the money question, and he convincingly proved it to be to the utter disgust of the populists present. His explanation of the protection question was clear and comprehensive, as he had studied the question thoroughly in all its variations. He was entertaining too, and kept the audience continually interested, and wound the logic of Dr. Barkeley up in short order. As he talked on the audience became convinced that he was thoroughly imbued with sound republicanism from the crown of his head to the sole of his feet. He gave a striking example of protection. He gave his boy $2 to chop wood, when he could have secured another man to do the work for $1, but he kept the money in the family. The boy went to the store and bought a pair of shoes, and saved his father from buying a pair.

The speaker was frequently interrupted with applause, and the audience never seemed to grow weary of listening to the interesting speaker. But the populists have not yet tired of yelling Dr. Driver. They can find nothing too mean to say about him.

School Matters.

County School Superintendent Starkweather states that only a few of the schools in Clackamas county have yet begun, as a majority of them have wisely waited until hop picking is over, in order that there may be a better attendance of pupils. By the 28th of this month the schools of Clackamas county will be nearly all in active work. During the last week in September, Superintendent Starkweather will begin his annual visitation of the county schools. He will first visit the outlying districts, leaving these convenient at a later date.

Miss Jennie Rowen, principal of the Harmony school, was in town last Saturday, and reports her school flourishing.

Prof. H. S. Strange, after a long cessation from duties in the school room, assumed the principalship of the Willamette Falls school last Monday. The school will be held in Baidorf's hall, until the new school building is completed.

A. C. Strange will teach the Pleasant Home school this fall.

The West Side school began the fall term last Monday with Professor C. W. Durette as principal, and Misses Norma Fox and Addie Clark as assistants. This is Professor Durette's second year as principal of the West Oregon City school, and he has increased its efficiency to a remarkable degree, and now has a standing equal to any graded school in the state. The course of study has been revised, a ninth year added to the course. The same has been printed in a neat pamphlet of 32 pages, containing much useful matter pertaining to the school. Each family is provided with a copy so that they may know what is expected of the school. This is a plan worthy to be followed by other graded schools. The grades of this school correspond to similar grades in Portland, and will be expected to do substantially the same work. The board of directors of the West Oregon City school are Josiah Martin, F. E. Donaldson and Thomas Gibbs, with I. D. Taylor clerk, and they are all deeply interested in the success of the school, and have improved the school and grounds, until they are the best in Clackamas county. With such an efficient corps of instructors, the influence of the West Oregon City school will be felt.

The Oregon City, Parkplace and Canemah schools will begin September 28th, and the Oswego and Mount Pleasant schools will begin October 5th. These and other schools will be mentioned later.

A Dialogue.

Scene in an Oregon City law office some months before election. A farmer discusses county affairs, and Brownell explains matters to the farmer, who complains of the extravagance of county officers.

Brownell, confidentially—Yes, if I didn't watch things pretty close, Hayes, Maddock and those fellows would steal the county blind. I have stood by the farmers of Clackamas county, and kept a sharp lookout to see that they are not robbed. I am their friend, and they stand by me. Those people that talk against me are jealous of my success, and accuse me of being dishonest. Yes, anything I can do for you—come in when you are in town. Goodbye.

Grand Fall Opening.

To the ladies of Oregon City and vicinity: You are respectfully invited to attend the Grand Fall Opening of French and Eastern pattern hats and millinery, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, September 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

W. A. Huntley and F. W. Greenman returned Sunday from a 10-days camping trip. They were located about four miles above the upper hatchery on the Clackamas and about 30 miles on a straight line from here. The country is very rough and sparsely settled and they report fishing excellent and wild game plentiful, consequently they lived on the fat of the land. At one place near their camp there was a spring boiling out of a big rock about eight feet in diameter, on the edge of the Clackamas, which threw a stream of water and steam up several feet in the air and the vapor was so warm as to make standing near uncomfortable. This imitation Geyser is something new in the line of discoveries in this county and the boys found the water to be such an exhilarating tonic that they found little trouble in walking 30 miles in a day on the home trip. They state that the work of securing salmon eggs at the hatchery is about over for the season, and that about 3,000,000 eggs have been secured thus far.

Insurance that insures—

F. E. DONALDSON.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Clackamas County Christian Endeavor Union, was held at the Congregational church last Tuesday evening, President Rev. A. J. Montgomery presiding. About the only business transacted was the postponement of the county Y. P. S. C. E. convention from October 23-25 to November 13-15. This change was made partly because there were other gatherings, and it was believed that more interest would be manifested in the convention after the election excitement was over.
