FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1906.

TAKEN TO THE ASYLUM—Two human beings were brought into town last Friday Deputy Sheriff Grout and W. H. Young, the liveryeen, that provoked the pity of all that observed them. Such squalid poverty and misery may sometimes come under observation in a large city, but one would hardly believe that two imbecile women among the green fields and shady trees of Clackamas county, where God sends the bright sunshine on the just and the unjust, were virtually starving to death. Yet such was the fact. They were the wife and daughter of Tom Jones, and have resided about six miles from town in the vicinity of Beaver creek, for the past 20 years. Jones is ignorant and worthless, and provided his family with very little food and no raiment. The women were never bright, and starvation and lack of sufficient clothing had caused them to lose what little intellectual faculties they originally possessed. When Deputy Sheriff entered the miserable shanty where they lived, the younger woman came out of a room in a nude condition, but went back and hastily donned her scant rags. The young woman went along willingly, but it took some force to get the old woman to accept the invitation to go to theater. Both women were pronounced insane, and the court provided them with a new clothing, which improved their appearance considerably. In the evening, Sheriff Grace and Deputy County Treasurer D. F. May took the unfortunates to the asylum where good treatment and nourishment may restore the younger woman to reason. She is said to have already been a mother, although unmarried. Jones, who was away from home at the time the women were taken away, came to town the next morning, and threatened to prosecute for the larceny of his women, but cooled down after the Judge gave him some stern lecturing, and began to cry.

PROSPEROUS SEASON FOR HATCHERIES.—The latest news received from Fish Commissioner Reed, who is in charge of the cannerymen's hatchery on the upper waters of the Clackamas, is to the effect that the season bids fair to be a very prosperous one, and that a large number of salmon eggs will be secured and hatched. When Mr. Reed arrived at the hatchery on the 20th of June, there were no salmon there, but they soon began to arrive. These fish had passed the government hatchery on the Clackamas before the rack had been put there, in April and May, so it will be seen that it takes them several weeks to work their way up to the hatchery. By the time Mr. Reed had his rack in and was ready for them, the fish began to come along, and there has been no lack of them since. There was some fear that the Indians from the Warm Springs reservation might try to make trouble about their fishing being interfered with by the hatchery. Mr. Reed writes that he gets along nicely with the Indians, a number of whom are camped at the hatchery, and who are glad to get the salmon which have been stripped of their eggs and milt to dry for winter use. A few days since he spoke about putting a dam across a small stream, or cut-off, by which some fish were going up the river, which he thought would cost about $20. The Indians learning what was wanted, at once went to work and put one of their racks across the stream, which effectually stopped the fish from getting up. White men, as a rule, do not care to eat fish after they have been spawning, but the Indians are not so particular, and they look upon it as a soft snap, to have the white men catch the fish for them.—Oregonian.

A STUDIOUS PRISONER.—Steve Holbrook, a prisoner in the county jail is a very studious young man, and quite an artist withal. He has decorated the various apartments of the jail with artistically designed mottoes and quotations. He has also devoted 19 days to the study of the New Testament. He has arranged tables of each book in the testament, ruled in compartment order with the number of times each letter of the alphabet also the words, "And," "God," "Jesus" and "Christ" occurs, giving the number of verse and chapter. On the back of a June sample election ballot, he has arranged a table of final results, neatly ruled and giving the total number of times the above-named words and letters occur in the New Testament in one column, while other ruled columns give the number of times these words and letters occur in each individual book of the testament. Following is the result of his ingenious and painstaking work, and shows the number of times each of the letters of the alphabet and the words mentioned occur in the New Testament: "And," 10,202; "God," 1,326; "Jesus," 933; "Christ," 623; a, 3,402; b, 1,103; c, 894; d, 278; e, 381; f, 1,101; g, 1,792; h, 670; i, 2,594; j, 1,612; k, 72; l, 815; m, 419; n, 537; o, 300; p, 647; q, 3; r, 184; s, 885; t, 1,349; u, 75; w, 809; x, 1; y, 155; z, 30. Mr. Holbrook is a very wide-awake German, and did all this work in 19 days, taking plenty of time for eating and recreation. An individual of his talent will certainly not lay in jail long. He contemplates going over the Old Testament in the same style.

Mrs. S. A. McCown returned from the national convention of the Women's Relief Corps, last Thursday. Mrs. McCown as department commander for Oregon, Mrs. S. Adair, of Eugene, and Mrs. Susan Gwilt, of Portland, represented the state at the St. Paul convention. Mrs. McCown reports a most delightful trip, and the great convention was a most harmonious one, and 365 voting delegates held seats in the gathering, besides numerous visitors. Mrs. Agnes Hitt, of Indiana is the new president. The Grand Army encampment was held at the same time and place, and there was an immense attendance. The parade was one of the great features of the national gathering of old soldiers, their wives and sons. Mrs. McCown says that she watched the procession pass a window where she was sitting, for three hours, and they were marching eight and ten abreast. Some of the representations in the parade were grand and effective. An elevated float containing 2,200 school children, attired in colors and arranged to represent the American flag, was grand in conception and reality. The old Andersonville prison was presented to the Women's Relief Corps by the Veterans from Georgia, provided they take proper care of the grounds. H. S. Allen, of Portland, was the only representative at the encampment from Oregon.

TALKED FREE SILVER.—Rev. H. L. Barkley, who was elected on the republican ticket as a representative from Marion county, made a free silver-Bryan speech to a very good audience at Shively's opera house last Thursday night. A number of the popocrats express themselves as disappointed in the reverend gentlemen's talk on finance, but nevertheless they applauded themselves hoarse and made much noise, as is the custom of the populists and popocrats. Mr. Barkley is a smooth platform orator, and would probably have done much more effective work in exhorting sinners to repentance, than in talking free silver. He is said to have made the remark that if there was plenty of silver, it would not do the people any good unless they had some way of getting it. He, however, believed in throwing it around and let it circulate. He claimed that the money issue was paramount to every other interest, etc. The republican voters of Marion county, who elected Mr. Barkley, are now after him with a sharp stick. They are circulating a petition, which is being signed only by those who voted for him, requesting that he resign his place as a member of the Oregon legislature, so that a successor can be elected on the first Monday in November.

A PLEASANT FAREWELL PARTY.—A number of the young friends of Harley Stevens, jr., gave him a successful and pleasant farewell party at the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens, on the corner of Washington and Seventh streets, on Thursday evening, previous to his departure for Eugene to attend the state university. Music, dancing, cards and social conversation made the occasion a most pleasant one for the guests. Among the musical numbers were solos by Miss Kate Ward and selections on the piano by Miss Mertie Stevens, with violin accompaniment by Harley Stevens. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Stevens and Miss Stevens, and those who were fortunate enough to be members of the party, declare that it was a great success. Among those present were Misses Pauline Campbell, Vera Caulfield, Elma Albright, Greta Strickler, Ina Harding, Nettie Walden, Ethel Caulfield, Margie Caulfield, Clara Warner, Betta Fouts, Alice Leathwaite, Helen Eastham, May Wishart, Kate Ward, Ina Chase, Marie Pratt, Pearl Meldrum, Emma McGetchie and Mertie Stevens; Messrs. Charles Wilson, Charles Pope, Lee Harding, Ira Wishart, Clare Campbell, James Church, John Leathwaite, Ed Allen and Will Leathwaite.

MRS. BRADY APPOINTED GUARDIAN.—John Cobrey has been ill for the past two years with a complication of complaints, and recently his left side became paralyzed, and his mind became affected. A few days ago he was sent to St. Vincent's hospital, where his condition is slowly improving under skillful treatment. Last Saturday Ed Brady, through his attorney, Joseph Rice, filed a petition with the county judge, asking that his mother, Mrs. Ann Brady, who is a sister of Mr. Cobrey, be appointed guardian of the person and estate of the latter. The matter came up for a hearing in the county court Saturday evening. Joseph Rice appeared for the petitioner, and F. T. Griffith represented Mrs. Cobrey, who remonstrated against the appointment of her sister-in-law as guardian. After hearing the argument of the attorneys, the Judge granted the prayer of the petitioner.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.—Oregon City is to have another important convention at an early date. The annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the Northwest, including Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia, will convene in this city on October 2nd, and continue in session three days. There will be from 50 to 60 delegates in attendance, and an unusually interesting session is anticipated. The three Christian Endeavor societies and the Epworth League have agreed to entertain the visiting delegates during their sojourn here, and will do everything to make their stay pleasant. The number of delegates would probably have been much larger, but on account of the great distance to be traversed, a sub-convention will be held at Tacoma, covering the same work.

FOR MINERS.—The necessary blanks for filing on a mining claim can be had at the ENTERPRISE office, as well as blanks for all other needs. Portland prices duplicated.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
 Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with LaGrippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Charman & Co's Drug Store, Charman Bros. block.
