EDUCATIONAL NOTES

All communications intended for this column should be addressed to Mrs. H. S. Gibson, Oregon City, Oregon.

The regular monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' association was held at Molalla Saturday September 26, 1896. Called to order at 11 a. m. by Superintendent Starkweather.

The minutes of the previous meeting as prepared by the secretary, Miss Fannie G. Porter were read and approved.

The association and audience sang "America."
Mrs. Bertha Gibson read a paper on "The Kindergarten" and Mr. Gary spoke on this subject.

Mr. O. D. Eby recited the "Ride of Paul Revere."
On motion of H. S. Gibson the meeting was adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

Called to order by President Starkweather. The program was opened by singing "Wonderful Words of Life."
Primary geography was discussed by Miss Jennie Mayfield. Miss Edna Rofs also spoke upon this subject.

"Needed Legislation" was introduced by Geo. L. Story. He believes that the laws in regard to issuing life diplomas should be issued without direct examination. Miss Rowen, Miss Ross, Mr. Rutherford, Superintendent Starkweather, Mrs. Katten, Mr. Gibson, Mr. Gary, Mrs. Ken, Hon. Geo. Ogle, Robt. Ginther, W. W. Austin and Mr. Buck also spoke on this question. The discussion was very animated, and quite interesting. The participants therein growing quite enthusiastic.

Miss Annie Heinbothen read a paper on "Music in the Schools."
Robert Ginther, W. N. Austin, O. Rutherford, Edna Ross, and Eugene Ogle spoke on the subject.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Needy, the last Saturday in October.

Mr. Dimick, McDonald and Mr. Story were asked to prepare a suitable program for that occasion.

The attendance at this meeting was good, and the audience evinced a lively interest in the work of the association.

Ex-Superintendent Gibson introduced a resolution thanking the people of Molalla for their cordial and kindly treatment accorded the teachers, which was unanimously adopted.

Prof. Eugene Ogle delighted the audience with several musical selections rendered in his usual style.

After singing "Blest be the Tie That Binds" the association adjourned to meet at Needy the last Saturday in October, 1896.

Following is the program prepared for the Needy meeting:

Music—Song..... Needy School
"How to Make History Interesting"..... T. J. Gary INTERMISSION.

Music—Song..... Local Talent
"What Changes, If Any, Should Be Made in Our School Laws?"..... H. S. Gibson
"Reading in the Lower Grades"..... Mrs. Helen Ross Kerr
"Some of the Conditions of Character Growth"..... H. S. Strange
"The Teacher in Politics"..... T. E. Mitchell
"Practical Work in Teaching Common Fractions"..... Miss J. E. Rowen
"The Use and Abuse of the Text Book"..... J. A. Jennings and Shirley Buck
Criticisms—By a critic to be appointed by Superintendent Starkweather.....

October Ladies' Home Journal.
Among its many strong, attractive features, the October Ladies' Home Journal presents the opening chapters of Ian Maclaren's new story, and one of the best that he has written, "The Minister of St. Bede's;" Ignace Paderewski's long-promised composition for the piano, a minuet—"Mouset Moderne;" and Albert Lynch's "American Girl"—a distinctive characterization of young American womanhood, by the famous French artist—which is shown on the cover. Of exceptional interest also is Hamlin Garland's article on the cliff-dwellers of the southwest, who under the apt caption of "The Most Mysterious People in America" he describes, and tell of their home-life, customs, religious rites, etc. In "The Most Luxurious City in the World" John Gilmer Speed presents a surprising array of statistics showing the vast sums spent on luxuries and necessities, amusements, churches and charities in a single American city. Edward W. Bok makes a clever rejoinder to the authors who claim that our literature lacks vigor and force because everything written must be smooth and pleasant to please young girls. Mr. Bok also decries "talking shops" at home," and points out the value of laughter. Ex-President Harrison's "This Country of Ours" paper deals with the Secretaries of the Navy and of the Interior, and pays high tribute to the officers and seamen of our Navy. Dr. Parkhurst forcibly discusses "The Young Man at Play," emphasizing the value of healthful diversion. Lillian Bell tells "How Men Fail as Lovers," in her characteristically bright vein, and the conclusion of "The Experiment in the Cloister" is reached. A drawing by W. L. Taylor exquisitely illustrates Virginia Woodward Cloud's poem, "The Mother's Song," and M. Wolf's "Little Comedies" constitute a page of humorous interest.

Mrs. Garrett Webster writes on organizing and conducting "Women's Choruses," and John Sparrowhawk presents a practical, illustrated paper telling how to make "Divans and Cozy Corners." "A Boy's Bookshelf," by Thomas Wentworth Higginson, names and comments upon the best one hundred books, by American authors, for boys. There are articles also upon plant culture, dresses and of varied household interest besides the usual departments. The October Journal uniquely answers every requirement of a family magazine. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia; one dollar per year, ten cents per copy.

Dangers to American Freedom.
General T. J. Thord will address the citizens of Oregon City in Shiveley's opera house on Friday, Oct. 24 at 7:30 on the "Dangers that Menace our Republic." The political hierarchy exposed. A papal army is in our midst, fully armed and equipped. Wake up, ye native borns and Americans by adoption. Our enemy plots while ye sleep. All are invited. Bring your wives and children. The latter must be the saviors of our country. Don't fail to attend.

A Laboring Man's Home.
For a person, who desires to stop paying rent and to raise their own vegetables and fruit, I have a splendid piece of land, one acre on Abernathy road mostly improved, house, chicken-yard, good well and some fruit. One mile and half from Oregon City. School house and church 1/4 of a mile from place, three brick yards and saw mill near by. Price $250, paid down, balance on time. Trade or work in part pay. Inquire at place or address G. W. WALDRON, Oregon City.

The Portland.
Re-opened near the corner of Main and Seventh street. Clean, bright, well-furnished dining room and private rooms elegantly fitted up. Have one of the most skillful cooks on the Coast. If your meat order does not please you, just let me know. Best dinner in the city including a glass of wine for 25 cents, 11:30 to 4 p. m. Oysters served in every style. Open day and night. Give The Portland a trial.
L. RUCCONICI, Proprietor.

For Young Men and Young Women
There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussy their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's barber shop.

Best and Cheapest Insurance.
Save money on your insurance by calling on E. E. Martin, who represents the only Mutual doing business in Oregon City. You cannot afford to keep on throwing your money into policies and pay from 3 to 5 years premiums in advance and then have the company fail. The Oregon Fire Relief association will stand the closest investigation.
E. E. MARTIN, Agt.
Commercial Bank Block.

Worthy of Notice.
The S. B. Medicine company is the only one out of nine proprietary medicine firms incorporated on this coast since 1887 that has not made an assignment. These hard times with new newspaper advertising contracts for two years, it speaks loudly of their merit. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

Notice to Taxpayers.
To the taxpayers of Clackamas county, notice is hereby given that on Monday, October 5th, 1896, the Board of Equalization of Clackamas county will meet at the office of the County Assessor, and continue in session for one week.
J. C. BRADLEY, Assessor.

Wood Sawing.
Get the steam wood saw to cut your wood—is the cheapest and quickest. Don't wait until the rains set in and your wood gets soaked until it wont burn. Will go to any part of the city or suburbs. Address or call on
T. B. HANKINS.

Undertaker and Embalmer.
R. L. Holman undertaker and embalmer. Graduate of Embalming college. Full stock of caskets and coffins at prices to suit. Undertaking parlor in Winehard block opposite courthouse. If

Avoid Consumption.
By stopping that cough. We know of no better remedy for coughs and colds than the S. B. Cough Cure. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

BARLOW NEWS.

Railroad Company Holding off Improvements Until after Election.
GRAND RALLY AT NEEDY AND CANBY.— Ex-Attorney General Chamberlain is billed to speak at Needy in the afternoon of Friday next and at Canby in the evening. He will be accompanied by Dr. Welsh and other prominent men of Portland to this place where they will be met by Hon. W. W. Irvine, chairman of the democratic committee of this precinct, and William Barlow, and conveyed to Needy in time to speak on the issues of the day. These two rallies promise to be of marked interest, and a large, enthusiastic crowd is promised at both places, to hear the silver standpoint thoroughly discussed. Other speakers will follow Mr. Chamberlain.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS—The S. P. Co. carpenters have been busy the past week putting in a new foundation for the water tank, and making other minor improvements around the depot. We were in hopes when the carpenters arrived, that it was to erect a new depot which has been long promised and badly needed; but like many other corporations, we presume they wish to delay further improvements until after election. Hurrah! for "William"—our next president.

MARQUAM FAIR OPENS.—The Marquam District fair opens Thursday and promises to be a success, so says the manager, as already most of the display room in the pavilion has been allotted, and too, the managers are sparing no expense, and having advantage of the campaign to have prominent speakers to address the multitude on the issues of the day, from an important standpoint, allowing both gold and silver orators to participate.

PERSONALS.
Mr. George Fry of Aurora was seen in Barlow Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Griffith came up from Oregon City Monday.
Henry Will and James Marks drove up in the Needy country Saturday.
Ed G. Miller, our station agent, spent Sunday in Aurora with his father.
Miss Viva Tull returned home from the hop fields near Gervais Sunday.
Mrs. M. W. Sheppard is again in the postoffice, having returned from hopping Friday.
Henry Pusey and John Moehnke of Oregon City, rode into Barlow on their wheels Friday, returning home Saturday evening.
Mrs. O. W. Quint came home from Portland Sunday, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Will Irwin. Little Hattie Irwin, who has spent her vacation here, returned home to resume her school work.
Those who attended the funeral of Mrs. Ellen Hedges from here were: Mr. and Mrs. William Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Barlow, Mr. Henry Hedges, Mrs. M. W. Sheppard, Miss Viva Tull. Miss Bessie Sheppard and Will B. Tull.

An Interesting Magazine.
The handsome young man in epaulets on the cover of the October Midland Monthly (Des Moines, Iowa) is none other than Grant at the age of 22. The first installment of Col. John W. Emerson's "Grant's Life in the West," removes all questions as to the ability of the author to interest and as to his personal knowledge of the character and career of the greatest soldier in history. This is a work one should read from the start.
Miss Alice Monk recently returned from New Zealand, writes entertainingly of the Maoris, the ex-cannibals of that island.
The "Christian Communism," practiced at the famous Amarna Colony in Iowa, is described by Barthnias Wick, author of "The Icarian Community."
"In the Footsteps of Bryan" and a Maunee Valley sketch, also a Group of Women Writers in Michigan, complete the illustrated articles.
Frank Calkins' description of a wolf hunt is a splendid piece of realistic writing. "The Graveyard at Dorn," by a new writer, is a pleasing story of the Mississippi valley in old times. "A Widower's Wooing," by the author of "Piety Corners," is a love story with a humorous turn. The October number is strong all around.

Correspondence Bureau.
Ladies desiring to enlarge their circle of acquaintances among the gentlemen, are very cordially invited to address the manager of this club. Gentlemen desiring to form the acquaintance of ladies residing in Clackamas county and vicinity are also respectfully invited to join. Gentlemen's membership fee, $2.00. Yours for mutual benefit,
FRANK WOOD,
Oregon City, Or.

ROYAL Baking Powder.
Highest of all in leavening strength.—U. S. Government Report.
