The mountain has all been located, and it is the intention of the owners to begin active development work when the winter snows break away next spring. The croppings on the outside are not high grade ore, assaying only a few dollars to the ton, but there is no end to the quantity of goldbearing quarts in sight and the facilities are such that it can be worked very cheaply, and there is every probability that the the pay rock will become richer, when excavations are made on the lode. A good sized creek runs along the base of the newly-discovered gold mountain, that will furnish a plentiful supply of power to propel the machinery required to grind up the goldproducing rock. The surroundings and facilities in connection with the mine are such, that the mine can be worked at a minimum of expense. I, LeMahieu, the ex-democratic editor, may yet become one of the gold kings of Oregon. At least, it is one of the possibilities of the future, should the mine pan out all

HONORABLY ACQUITTED, -A recent issue of the Condon Globe contains an account of the hearing of Jacob Rinearson and Rae Norris in the circuit court of Gilliam county, for the alleged larceny of a mare, the property of Max Rainsby. The Globe says the boys entered a plea of not guilty, and were represented by C. D. Latourette and W. H. Wilson, The case was given to the jury Thursday evening, and the jury after being out five minutes, returned a verdict of "not guilty." The Globe makes the fol- coming over the suspension bridge, lowing comments on the case: "The marched up Main street and contrial of Jacob Rinearson and Rae Norris is an expensive one to this county, owing to there being so many witnesses from a distance. THE WHEAT MARKET -It is, at least, encouraging to Clackamas county farmers, who have not sold their wheat, to know that the price is going up. This rise in wheat means that farmers will receive better prices for their crops than they anticipated, and many of them will be able to pay off their debts. Better prices will, in a great measure, compensate for the shortage in some sections, and will be the means of putting considerable money into circulation. The price has advanced four cents per bushel since last week, and the market still exhibits an upward tendency. On Wednesday Walla Walla wheat was quoted at 59 cents per bushel in the Portland plus of about 140,009,000, bushels that those present were Misses May Mark, up on the wheat market, expresses the Hoffman, Bessie Watkins, Grace Wilable for the farmers and wheatgrowers Greenman, Otto Freytag, Eric Rasmusfinancial condition of the country, son, Paul Freytag. Saturday and Sunday he had the corpse on an inclined table in the front room of his office, facing the entrance, the double doors of which were thrown wide open and as the foot of the table was within six feet of the sidewalk people passing by could not help but see the gastly sight whether they intended to or not for nearly every person will instinctively glance into an open door as they pass along the street. All day Sunday the morgoe was kept open and the corpse exposed as though a free show was being run. A sheet was thrown over the corpse, but that only added to the grewsome spectacle, and much of the time the face was left uncovered by careless persons who after viewing it failed to replace the cover. To sensative women and children the sight of a murdered man is horrifying and would give a shock that might some encouraging strikes. In addition necessary show of corpses that may

> THE OREGON STATE FAIR .- The Oregon state fair began at Salem Wednesunusual interest, and the attendance sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist. will no doubt be unusually large. There will be a splendid fruit exhibit from Eastern Oregon, the crop having been very good in that section this reason. The poultry exhibit will be the most complete of any ever displayed in the your wood gets soaked until it wont northwest, a special building having been erected for that purpose. The features of the fair are too numerous to mention, and the $5000 to be awarded in prizes creates an interesting rivalry. Next Saturday is pioneer day, and there are a number of other special days on railroad has made a round trip rate of $2 from Oregon City, and the tickets are good for the return trip until October 16th The north-bound Roseburg local train will be held at the fair grounds until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, arriving in Oregon City about 6:30. The admission to the fair will be 25 cents, which includes both day and evening

SOLDIERS IN TOWN.-The soldiers from the Vancouver barracks, who are out on a practice march, passed through Oregon City about 11 o'clock Tuesday forenoon. There were 400 of them under the command of Col. Anderson and staff, and includes six companies of infantry, one cavalry company and the Fourteenth infantry band. Tuesday was their second day out from Vancouver, and they were apparently enjoying their trip up the valley. They came up on the West side of the river, and after tinued their march up the valley.
