"While down in the southwestern part of the state some time ago," says Mr. W. Chalmers, editor of the Chico (Cal.) Enterprise, "I had an attack of dysentery. Having heard of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I bought a bottle. A couple of doses of it completely cured me. Now I am a champion of that remedy for all stomach and bowel complaints." For sale by G. A. Harding, druggists. Among the notable features of the Argonaut for Oct. 19, 1896, are: "Biddy's Boots: A Story of Camp-Fires, Retribution, and Sixteen to One" by G. B. Dunham; "The Prompter's Story: A Glimpse Behind the Scenes in Theatrical Life," translated from the French; "A Famous French Writer," a review of two autobiographical books by Alphonse Daudet; and a letter on newspaper gossip in New York. There are a great many of the unfortunate ones in this word, greater in number than those who are blessed with good digestion. To some people the greatest misfortune is not to be able to eat everything set before them. "I suffered for years with Dyspepsia, and everything I ate disagreed with me. I was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator and was cured. I now eat everything"—M. Bright, Madison Parish, La. Dr. H. Wilkins, of Chicago, general secretary of the Young People's Union of America, addressed a large audience at the Baptist church Tuesday evening. There was special music, and a good representation from the other churches. Dr. J. W. Cowan delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the churches of the city, and A. S. Dresser for the Young People's Baptist Union. Dr. Wilkins' talk on foreign missions was very interesting. "On the Bowery" the greatest scenic achievement of the century, in which Steve Brodie appears, played only in the East during the last two seasons. The only Western engagement was four weeks that it played in Chicago. It played two weeks in nearly every big Eastern city and four in Boston and nine in New York. It is the only show on record that played during an entire season to "standing room only" at every performance and in many instances thousands were turned away. "On the Bowery" will be at Shively's Oct. 17. In buying groceries quality is the point that is always considered by the careful housewife. To meet this requisite has always been the aim of the old firm of Marr & Robertson, the Seventh street grocers, and under the new management of Mr. Andrew Robertson, this feature will be made more prominent than ever before. The fruits and vegetables will always be the freshest to be had, and the canned goods will only be from canneries whose reputation is first-class. Cured meats will have no superior. All other goods carried will be strictly first-class. A trial order is asked that a comparison may be made of my prices, weights and quality of goods. Prompt delivery to all parts of the city. Don't bolt your food, it irritates your stomach. Choose digestible food and chew it. Indigestion is a dangerous sickness. Proper care prevents it. Shaker Digestive Cordial cures it. That is the long and short of indigestion. Now, the question is: Have you got indigestion? Yes, if you have pain or discomfort after eating, headaches, dizziness, nausea, offensive breath, heartburn, languor, weakness, fever, jaundice, flatulence, loss of appetite, irritability, constipation, etc. Yes, you have indigestion. To cure it, take Shaker Digestive Cordial. The medicinal herbs and plants which Shaker Digestive Cordial is composed of, help to strengthen your stomach. When your stomach is strong, care will keep it so. Shaker Digestive Cordial is for sale by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

W. S. Duniway, private secretary of Governor Lord, was in Oregon City Sunday on his way to Portland. He expresses an unqualified opinion that Marion county will roll up a majority for McKinley on election day. James Hovey, who has been running the planer in Broughton's sawmill for some time past, left Monday for Saisons, California, where he will be employed in erecting a sawmill. His family will remain here for the present. Mr. George Merrill of Deer Island, Or., was in the city last Friday visiting his daughter, Mrs. T. A. McBride. He had just returned from the mines of Eastern Washington and brought some fine specimens from there and other points. Dr. W. M. Welch and family of Silverton, have moved to this place and are occupying the Howell cottage near the Barclay school house formerly occupied by J. M. Lawrence. Dr. Welch is the father of Dr. J. W. Welch of this city and will be associated with him in his dental office. J. W. Loder, formerly a law student in this city, was in town Tuesday. He recently passed a successful examination before supreme court, and is now a member of the bar with all the privileges of a full-fledged attorney. He has located at Medford, Jackson county, where he has resided for several months. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Moore, of Logan county, Iowa, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Tabor, left Thursday morning for Eugene, where they will make a short stay before making a tour of California on their way home. Mr. Moore brings cheering news from Iowa, and says that state will give a big majority for McKinley. Charles U. Wilson is now attending law lectures at Portland in the law department of the state university. The junior year students are only required to attend lectures three nights out of the week. The second-year students, however, have to get in and dig. They are required to attend every night, and face a rigorous examination at the close of the school year. Walter and Guy Metcalf, Walter Parker, Walter Woodward and Oscar Cox went to Oregon City last Saturday on their wheels, while O. K. Edwards, Prof. Frank Deach, Calva Martin, Thomas Hester, George Tolson and Prof. C. E. Lewis went by boat. They all attended the Y. M. C. A. convention, and they speak in high terms of the work done there.—Newberg Graphic. Geo. Marr, late of Marr & Robertson, has decided not to remove to Portland, but will remain in Oregon City and again engage in the mercantile business, having rented of J. A. Buck the building on the northeast corner of Seventh and Center streets, heretofore used as a meat market, and is having it rearranged and fitted up for his use. He will open his stock of goods in about four weeks. H. H. Johnson, of the Johnson-Randa surveying party, who had an extensive surveying contract on the north fork of the Clearwater in Idaho, in the foothills of the Coast mountains, and was so rough and broken that all supplies for their party had to be carried in on horseback or man back, returned home last Saturday. They have completed their contract, and E. A. Randa and the remainder of the party will arrive home about the last of the week. Electric Hotel Arrivals. P. R. Meinig, Sandy. W. J. Cox, agent M. M. Deckert, and wife, Tacoma. A. E. King, Portland. Walter J. Wilson, Portland. Everybody stops at the Electric Hotel, on account of the first-class accommodations and good treatment. There is a considerable quantity of Clackamas county grapes in the market, and they are equal in flavor to the California article, with which this market has been so plentifully supplied. The Concord grapes raised near Oswego, are of especial fine quality, and look very attractive displayed in Oregon City stores. Other varieties, too, raised in this county, are equal to the one just named.

PERSONAL NOTES.

How Old are You? It makes no difference whether you answer or not. It is always true that "a woman is as old as she looks." Nothing sets the seal of age upon a woman's beauty so deeply, as gray hair. The hair loses its color generally from lack of nutrition. If you nourish the hair, the original color will come back. That is the way that the normal color of the hair is restored by Ayer's Hair Vigor. This testimonial will be found in full in Ayer's "Curebook" with a hundred others. Free. Address J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The Womens' Missionary convention of the Portland Presbytery was held in the Oregon City Presbyterian church Wednesday. One hundred and twenty-five delegates were in attendance at the convention, the largest number in the history of the organization. It was expected that there would only be about 60 delegates in attendance. The sessions were very interesting and profitable. In the evening after the convention adjourned, Rev. D. J. McMillan, secretary of the board of home missions, of New York City, and Rev. Thomas Marshall, D. D., of Chicago, secretary of the board of foreign missions, addressed a large audience at the Presbyterian church. Dr. Marshall only recently returned from a trip around the world in the interest of foreign missions. Both are instructive and entertaining talkers. They left on the same evening for California, to attend the Presbyterian synod. A splendid musical and athletic entertainment will be given in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, Saturday night. Among the attractions will be a guitar duet, by Bert Boylan and Claude Adams; a piano duet by Miss Gertrude and John W. Gwilt, of Portland; a solo with guitar accompaniment, by M. R. Boyles; a vocal solo by Miss Gertrude Gwilt; parallel bar work, by Joshua Viggers and Fred Burns, of Portland; a vocal solo, by John W. Gwilt. It will be a high class entertainment, and the admission will only be 10 cents. You cannot afford to miss it. A party of Oregon City young folks visited the exposition in Portland last Saturday evening, and had a most enjoyable trip. After the exposition some of the ladies hailed both the Mount Tabor and Mount Scott cars by mistake, before the Oregon City car came along. The members of the party were Misses Alice Roberts, Nora Calif, Alwen Edwards, Clara Mills Mollie Barkley, Meta Goufrey, Lulu Meyer, and Messrs. Charles Muir, Ernest Foster, Bert Spoonser, Frank McCausland, Alfred McCausland and Fred Meyer. A quiet wedding occurred at the residence of Charles Meade, in Canemah on Sunday, October 11th. The contracting parties were Isaac Moser, of Oregon City, and Miss Helena Rasmussen, of Parkplace. Mr. and Mrs. Moser have many friends, who extend congratulations. They will reside at Canemah. Many lives of usefulness have been cut short by neglect to break up an ordinary cold. Pneumonia, bronchitis and even consumption can be averted by the prompt use of One Minute Cough Cure. C. G. Huntley, druggist. Judge Northrup, of Portland, will address the Veterans and their families at the McKinley and Hobart League headquarters next Tuesday evening. All Veterans and their families are requested to be present. Miss Celestia M. Meier, of Canby, was married to Arthur M. Russell, of Oregon City, on October 14th, at the residence of Rev. M. L. Rugg. Mr. and Mrs. Russell will reside at Mount Pleasant.
