The Pensioner's Dollar.

"You say you want a little about the old soldiers. Well, my friends, the crisis which is approaching now, the question before the country now, appeals to the old soldier as much as it did in 1861. I am not afraid that any man who risked his life in his nation's behalf is going to be influenced by the arguments that are addressed to the soldiers now by the financiers," etc.—Mr. Bryan at Milwaukee, Sept. 5.

Not one word in answer to the question whether the purchasing power of the monthly pension payments to 970,000 pensioners would be reduced by the free coinage of 16 to 1 silver dollars. Not a word as to the effect upon pension payments hereafter of the "extinction" of the "300 cent dollar" because it is worth too much and buys too much.

We do not assume that veteran soldiers are thinking of nothing but pensions, but they should compel Mr. Bryan to say frankly what would be the effect of free coinage upon the pensioner's dollar.

Make him answer the question one way or the other.—Exchange.

An Object Lesson in Silver.

There is an American silver dollar. There are two Mexican dollars. There is more silver in each of them than in the American dollar. I bought both of them for that. What is the reason? The sole reason is that our dollar is a limited coinage, backed by gold. There is another coin. That is a French 5 franc piece. I paid 95 cents for that. It carries a little less silver than the American silver dollar. France and the United States are both gold standard countries. They keep in circulation a thousand millions of silver, and Mexico and China and Japan have not got one dollar of gold in circulation. The gold standard country can keep silver in circulation. The silver standard country can keep no gold. That is the example of every nation today. Gold all leaves the free coinage country. Gold and silver both circulate in the gold standard countries.—From a Speech by Senator Lodge.

Why Does Not Mr. Bryan Answer?
Mr. Bryan tells the farmers that free coinage of silver will give them cheap dollars with which to pay their debts.

Mr. Bryan tells city workmen that free coinage of silver will raise the metal to $1.29 per ounce, bringing the silver dollar to par with the gold dollar, thus giving city workmen another dollar as good as the present one with which to buy the farmers' products.

That is to say, to the farmer the Bryan silver dollar is to be a cheap dollar to pay debts with. To city labor the Bryan dollar is to be a dollar of high purchasing power to buy with.

Free coinage of silver cannot produce these two dollars. It can produce only one of the two. Why do not would be supporters of Mr. Bryan ask him which dollar he really means? Both the farmer, who wants to pay debts, and the workman, who must buy farm produce, are interested in having this question answered.—Chicago Times-Herald.

In a Notebook.
Let us all be thankful that the financial question has at last been finally settled.

It is so easy that anybody might have done it.
All that is needed is that the government of the United States shall agree to pay $1.29 to any one who will bring it 60 cents' worth of silver.

If this is done, our financial troubles will immediately disappear. Prices will advance. Wages will go up. Everybody will have plenty of money. We shall have at once the only perfect financial monetary system known in history.

The age of miracles is not past.—New York World

One Unsettled Point.
An old man who bore evidence of more work than culture approached a representative of a free silver paper the other day in the state library.

"Can I ask you a question?"
"Certainly."
"Well, if we have free silver coinage, we'll all have more money, won't we?"
"Why, yes, certainly. That's easy to answer."
"Well, what I want to know," said the old fellow earnestly, "is whether they will bring it to me or whether I'll have to go after it."—Nebraska State Journal.

If Thirty Pounds of Wheat Made a Bushel, would you have any more wheat, or could you buy any more food, clothes or implements with the proceeds of your crop than you do now?

If 50 cents were a dollar, would your crops bring you any more of the things that you need than you get now?

New York Tribune.

Leader of the Republican Party.

Are You Willing to Listen to a Suggestion?

The NEW YORK TRIBUNE's broad columns and large print make it the easiest paper in the country to read, either on the cars or at home.

Henry Romeike, proprietor of the largest Newspaper Clipping Agency in the world, testifies in a published card, that his clippings for over 4,000 clients shows that THE TRIBUNE contains, "day by day and week by week, for more original matter than any daily newspaper in New York City." He proves the fact by figures. THE WEEKLY ranks the same.

Business men find the market report of THE TRIBUNE absolutely without an equal. THE TRIBUNE is the only newspaper in New York City whose reporters actually visit all the different markets in person.

THE TRIBUNE now prints the best and freshest humorous pictures of the day from the comic press of two continents, and supplies plenty of other entertainment.

By its special telegrams and correspondence, its able editorials and high literary character, THE TRIBUNE maintains a splendid position in the regard of Republicans and lovers of music, art, and good books.

THE TRIBUNE's society news is known everywhere for excellence. Its fashions have always been of special value, and changes of style are, as a rule, foretold in THE TRIBUNE sooner than in other newspapers.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE is recognized, officially, as the leading newspaper of the Republican party.

As for Farming and Labor, THE TRIBUNE has for 50 years demanded, and yet demands that very possible dollar's worth of food and commodities, consumed by the American people, shall be produced by the American people. For this cause THE TRIBUNE labors in its various additions 365 days in every year.

A man is judged by the newspaper he takes. He who reads THE TRIBUNE is wide awake, progressive, respectable and capable, worthy of the confidence of business and social friends. If you are a young man you will live in a rut all your life (except by catering to that which is base) if you feed your mind upon newspapers, full of scandal, vulgarity and innuendo. Think for a moment of the people who read newspaper of that class. On the other hand, THE TRIBUNE has probably the largest clientele of the very people who can help to improve a young man's position, of any newspaper in the United States. Associate yourself with them.

Mr. Hort continues to write for THE TRIBUNE.

Sample copies free. DAILY, $10 A YEAR SUNDAY separately, $2. SEMI-WEEKLY, $2. WEEKLY, $1. TRIBUNE ALMANAC for 1896, 50 cents.
