A GREAT VICTORY.

Republican Do a Noble Work For Their Party.

McKINLEY THE NEXT PRESIDENT.

The County Prepares For a Return of the Prosperous Times That It Once Enjoyed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—The returns from the entire country, although incomplete in some states, are of a nature to insure the election of McKinley. A sufficient number of states have declared for the republican party to make certain 264 votes in the electoral college for its leader. The states whose votes are sure for him are as follows:

California	9	New York	36
Connecticut	6	North Dakota	3
Delaware	3	Ohio	23
Illinois	24	Oregon	4
Indiana	15	Pennsylvania	32
Iowa	13	Rhode Island	4
Maine	6	South Dakota	4
Maryland	8	Vermont	4
Massachusetts	15	West Virginia	6
Michigan	14	Wisconsin	12
Minnesota	9
New Hampshire	4	Total	294
New Jersey	10

The returns show interesting features, and in some respects have been a surprise to the leaders of both political parties.

The New England states have, as was expected, given heavy pluralities for McKinley, without exception. The republican ticket was successful in Massachusetts beyond what was claimed for it by the most enthusiastic prophet of republican success.

New York and Pennsylvania vied with each other for the plurality, and the figures at hand do not indicate which one of them has surpassed the other. Each state has given the republican a plurality of between 275,000 and 285,000.

To these states, Illinois is a good third in its plurality for the winning candidate. If the percentage of gain over the election of 1892 that has so far been shown continues to the end, it will give a plurality of not far from 175,000.

In the gubernatorial race, Altgeld has been badly beaten, but is not buried so deep, and is probably about 60,000 ahead of the democratic national ticket. There has evidently been a large vote cast throughout the state for McKinley and Altgeld.

Indiana, if any of the rules for estimating the vote of a state which previous to the present election held good are still to be relied upon, gives no justification for the democratic claims of having carried the state. If the ratio of the republican gain continues to the end of the count, McKinley will have approximately 30,000 plurality in the state.

In Iowa, as far as can be seen from the returns at present, the republican plurality has been very large, not far either way from 75,000.

Ohio, which all along has been claimed by Chairman Jones as a state in which Bryan would push McKinley very close, has given the republican candidate an overwhelming plurality.

In Michigan, the election has resulted in a very heavily reduced vote for the republican ticket. The free silver papers of Detroit concede the state for McKinley by 25,000. The last previous vote in the state was in 1895, when Moore, the republican candidate for justice of the supreme court, had a plurality of 71,487 over McGrath, his democratic rival.

West Virginia is confidently claimed by the republicans, and the chairman of the democratic state committee this evening conceded the state to McKinley.

Tennessee presents some of the interesting features of the campaign. Patterson, the gold standard democratic candidate for congress in the city of Memphis, is running neck and neck with his opponent, and the official count will be necessary to decide between them. The state at large is claimed by both parties, and, because of the length of the ticket, the returns are coming in so slowly that neither side seems entirely justified in claiming the electoral vote with any confidence.

Both parties claim the state, but the few scattering returns that are in so far are of so indefinite a nature as to make any claims, no matter by whom made, of a very uncertain character.

Wisconsin is sure for the republican column by an enormous plurality. Minnesota, which was regarded as doubtful by both parties, has surprised everybody by the size of the republican plurality, and McKinley will have approximately 30,000 to 40,000 more votes in the state than Bryan. Governor Clough, whose election was considered doubtful, is certainly elected.

The latest information from the two Dakotas show that north Dakota is very sure for McKinley, and the probability is that South Dakota will be found in the same column, although the result is close. The republicans claim Wyoming and Washington, but the probabilities seem against them in both states.

Oregon has gone for McKinley, and Colorado has, as was expected, given Bryan a heavy plurality, and Adams without doubt has been elected governor. The interest in the election was centered in the state ticket, of which there were several, presenting a great variety of interests.

Idaho, Montana, Utah and Nevada have all gone for Bryan by heavy majorities.

California has, on the strength of the returns at hand, undoubtedly gone for McKinley.

Delaware, where the republican party was rent in twain because of the Addicks-Higgins fight has kept in the republican column. The vote for the republican electors in this state has been unusually large, showing the factional dispute did not extend in any great measure to the national ticket.

The vote of Maryland has shown an interesting reversal from that of the last presidential election. Cleveland carried the state by a plurality of 21,130, and this year McKinley has had a plurality of slightly over 21,000 in the city of Baltimore alone.

The Next Senate.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—From returns thus far received the next senate will probably stand as follows:
Republicans, 42; democrats, 32; independents and populists, 11; doubtful, 5.

OREGON IN LINE.

Gives A Good Majority for McKinley And Hobart.

Practically complete returns from all the counties of Oregon, except five, give McKinley a plurality of 3156.

No returns have been received from Crook, Curry, Lake, Grant and Harney counties. Crook county will undoubtedly show a majority of 100 for McKinley, while Harney, Grant and Curry combined will probably give Bryan a majority of 300, which will leave McKinley's plurality in the state about 3000.

Clackamas has run her plurality for McKinley up to 290. Clatsop will give more than 700. Marion star is at about 400. Morrow is good for 61, and Washington for 500. Columbia gives 193, Benton has over 200 to her credit. Multnomah rolls up $380. Tillamook sends in over 100 majority for protection of lumber, while Wasco gives over 300 for protection on wool. Washington gives 500 majority to McKinley, while Yamhill, the hotbed of free silver, gives over 450 majority for sound money. Gilliam, Klamath, Lincoln, Morrow and Sherman give small majorities for McKinley, so far as the returns are in.

Baker, Coos, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Lane, Linn, Malheur, Polk, Umatilla, Union and Wallowa are all for Bryan.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Lengthy Docket Judiciously Handled by Judge McBride.

The regular November term of circuit court for Clackamas county convened last Monday, with Thomas A. McBride, circuit judge; T. J. Cleston, prosecuting attorney; Elmer Dixon, clerk, and G. W. Grace, sheriff. The following jurymen responded to roll call:

H. Gregory, Joseph Graham, P. T. Davis, W. W. Irwin, C. Koehler, C. B. Noblett, Ira Bell, Seth Young, R. W. Porter, W. H. Boring, John Epperson, John Everhart, I. D. Taylor, Albert Walling, S. J. Oglesby, J. B. Nos, J. H. Eaton, E. Hilton, G. H. Wishart, O. P. Sharp, Berry Buckner, J. A. Stewart, J. R. Cole, B. F. Linn, C. G. Stone, Geo. Knight, S. E. Hillman, J. H. Revenue, T. S. Stipp, J. Mallett, Geo. Maple, W. E. Bonney, Robert Beale. Excused for the term: W. W. Irwin, O. P. Sharo and J. H. Revenue.

The following are the names of the grand jury: George Knight, foreman; Joseph Graham, E. Hilton, Albert Walling, Robert Beale, B. F. Linn, J. R. Cole. T. W. Fouts was appointed court bailiff, Thomas Miller, jury bailiff and Max Schulpis bailiff of grand jury.

Judge McBride, in his charge to the grand jury, instructed them at length about petty charges that were often brought to their notice through malice and admonished them, when they found such a case, to spurn the accuser from the court room. Cases where justices of the peace have concurrent jurisdiction should be referred thither for trial, as it can be done at much less expense. The usual charge concerning prize fighting, gambling, etc., was made and the court settled down to business.

The following cases have been called and some of them disposed of:
Oregon City vs S E Paquet, settled and dismissed without costs.
Oregon City vs L T Barin; same.
Geo F Wood vs J B Moore, et al, Hedges & Griffith, atty for pltf; dismissed without prejudice to further or subsequent suit or proceedings of any nature and papers withdrawn.

Mary A Schlatter vs M W Randall, D C & C D Latourette atty for plaintiff; settled and dismissed.
Welhemier M Stinges vs Ira B Stinges, divorce; decree of divorce granted and custody of minor children given to plaintiff.
S Knight vs Daniel Wayland, et al; the plaintiff was represented by his attorney, Geo W Hazen, and the defendant failing to appear, on motion of the plaintiff's attorney, judgement was taken by default for the sum of $1910.76, interest, costs and attorneys fees and the sale of mortgaged property.

S B Hunter vs N Tomler; judgment heretofore entered set aside, defendants demurrer over-ruled and defendant allowed until next Saturday to answer.
C W Herman and C S Herman vs Thomas Garrett, et al, B F & Geo W Swope, attys for plaintiff; default and judgment for the sum of $62.78 and costs, interest and attorneys fees.
I L White vs E M Hartman, et al; confirmation; sale confirmed.

Fleckstein Mayer Co vs W S Kellogg same.
Oak Grove Land and Improvement Co vs Isaac Anderson; error in description of land ordered changed so as to correspond with description made in complaint.

News From Alaska.

The ENTERPRISE is in receipt of late copies of the Alaska News and the Alaska Searchlight, through the kindness of Mr. Dan O'Neil, who is connected with the United States custom house at Mary's Island, Alaska. Both the News and the Searchlight report the past season very prosperous for Alaska. The mining industry has been greatly pushed, many new mines being opened, while additional stamps have been added to the reduction plants of all the big quartz mines. Considerable gold has come from the Yukon district and that great unknown region promises to become one of the great mining districts of that country. The fisheries have yielded good results and the pack of salmon and catch of other kinds of fish has been fully up to the average. The time is not so far distant when Alaska will rival many of the older states as a wealth producing community and have a population sufficient to entitle it to the rights and honors of a state.

Grand Ball.

There will be a Thanksgiving dance at the grange hall, Logan, Oregon, on Wednesday, November 25. Music by the Osceola brass band. The best of oyster suppers. Stable room for horses. Quadrille music by Prof. Randall and Mink. Managers, C. L. V. Clark and E. L. Arthur. Dance tickets including supper $1.00, spectators ticket, including supper 25 cents. Come one come all and have a good time.
