Announcement for the Salt River Transportation Co.—Republican Women Give a Banquet.

CLARKES, Nov. 10.—The storm of Saturday night was the most severe of the season. Mr. J. H. Mattley, the merchant at Clarkes, will move his family and stock of merchandise to Independence, Oregon, where he intends to make his future home. He will go this week.

Born to the wife of Will Moore, on the 6th, a fine daughter. The father still lives and seems to be happy.

Mrs. Dean and son, Alfred Shepler, and Mrs. Mattley and daughter, Grace, went to Portland last Tuesday on business and to visit friends. They returned Thursday.

The following is the ticket for all popularists: "Free ticket up Salt river. This is good for one continuous trip between Bryanburg and Coxeville, via Salt river. Good since November 3rd. W. J. Bryan, president; Bland, secretary; Altgeld, Penoyer and Tillman, managers."

The potato digging is over and most of the potato ground sown to fall wheat.

Mr. Newberry has just completed a fine store building and root cellar.

Mr. Joseph Sevek has also a fine residence nearly completed, which will greatly improve the looks of his place.

—Constable Vetto is building a wood shed that will hold enough wood to last him till after the next election if he fills it.

Henry Waldron also has a very fine residence nearly completed.

Ex-Supt. Thompson has just commenced a four month's term of school at Brown's school house. The right man in the right place.

Andrew Grieshaber has just added a new coat of paint to his fine residence.

Mrs. Chas. Hinton of The Dalles, has moved back to stay this time.

Harry Eastman, engineer on the S. P. R. R., is home for a short rest, and aided one more to the McKinley column in New Era. Mrs. Eastman has gone to California for a short visit with relatives.

Miss Gussie Randall of this place is attending school at the Portland University. We wish her the best of success.

Mr. Robert Montgomery is finishing off his residence in fine shape inside and out and putting a fine set of furniture and things begin to look suspicious.

Rev. Atkinson of Canby preached an able sermon at the Central Point M. E. church last Sunday morning.

cis. Sometimes clerks take a great deal of authority upon their hands.

J. Scheiwe and Taff Reichle two enterprising young men have built a new chop mill at Wm. Schatz's place, which will be handy for this part of Stafford.

Mr. Weisenborn has posters up to advertise his place for sale. There are 30 acres on the main road, good house, barn, etc. It is excellent ground and a desirable place, but he suffers from a broken ankle and finds the labor too much for him.

The mail carrier met with a little accident and had his face badly scratched, and pepper got onto it, but he is able to go his rounds.

New Era News.

New Era, Nov. 9.—Hurrah for McKinley. Election is over and the biggest half of the voters of this precinct are more than satisfied with the election returns.

There has been a great deal of sickness in New Era during the last week. Nearly one-half of the voters in the precinct are down, and among the number are the Drs. Casto and Ferguson, consequently Dr. Payne has been kept quite busy during the last week in these parts.

The potato digging is over and most of the potato ground sown to fall wheat.

Mr. Newberry has just completed a fine store building and root cellar.

Mr. Joseph Sevek has also a fine residence nearly completed, which will greatly improve the looks of his place.

SUNNYSIDE NEWS.

Yield of Potatoes Good—A Tribute to An Oregon City Minister.

Mr. Nelson formerly a conductor on a Portland electric street car, has, with his little family moved into our midst. He occupies the Burch house. We welcome them among us and hope, while we know they will find country life quite different to city life, that they will be contented and happy in their country home. He has rented and will farm the Burch place this coming year.

Rev. T. Wiles, we are glad to report is able to be out again, went to Portland Wednesday to attend to some business.

Hon. C. Whitehead, special pension examining agent was a guest at Rev. Wm. Barrett's last week, taking affidavit in the interest of Dr. G. W. Barrett's pension claim of St. Louis, Mo.

The W. F. M. society of the F. M. church met at the parsonage last Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. President, Mrs. L. Christian; secretary, Mrs. M. Cottey; treasurer, Mrs. Heckinger. There were nine members present and had a pleasant time. Our president read an interesting religious article "What miseries are do for our sisters."

Frank Sumner has been quite sick. Dr. Hickman says his ailment is strongly bordering on jaundice, but the doctor has, we hope, arrested the disease as he is better.

Mr. Cottey, who had a stroke of paralysis several months ago, was quite frail again last week with symptoms of another stroke, but we are glad to say he is much better, and was able to get out to vote for McKinley and was out to church Sunday and seems stronger again.

Rev. C. A. Willey of Oregon City, was out and gave us a straight gospel sermon Sunday. We are always glad to have his smiling face greet our congregations. While his words are straight and touch some tender Christians there is so much love mingled with it, we have to take it. God bless him and send out more like him.

Flora Cottey has been quite sick with a touch of "grippe".

Pearl Barret has been sick with fever and sore throat. Clinton Barret is also on the sick list.

There are a great many potatoes in the ground yet in our vicinity. People are trying to rush them in between showers. Mr. Hubbard and two of his boys dug 87 sacks last Friday on Mr. Gage's place. Ira Heckinger and C. C. Crook are digging for Mr. S. H. Christian's, and still have a good many more to dig. Mr. Heckinger says he will have at least 100 sacks of his own to dig after he gets through with Mr. Christian's.

Mrs. Sumner's sister of Hood river, has made her sister a short visit. She has gone to Portland to visit with friends.

Miss New, our teacher, takes a warm dinner now with Mrs. I. Heckinger, as she wants to get out from the school room in the open air.

Quite a number of the school children are sick or have been. I think most of them are better, and according to the Oregonian sign will be all right now, the rains have set in.

Damascus Notes.

DAMASCUS, Nov. 9.—Election day has come and gone and the results are much different than was expected by many leading populists here. The populists thought they would have a large majority but when the ballots were counted it was found that the populists carried the precinct by only nine votes, quite a change since last June. Several persons said that more interest was manifested here on election day than at any precinct near and all day a large crowd of voters would be at the polls discussing national questions. After all, the populists say they are well pleased with the result.

C. H. Isom, deputy county surveyor returned yesterday from a week's surveying in different parts of the county.

Mr. D. Farrer recently moved into his new house and thinks that with the election of McKinley and Hobart that he will enjoy life better.

Stewart Coe has been kept from attending school during the past week by a cut on his left foot, caused by a hoe in the hands of his brother.

E. A. Coe went to Portland last Wednesday to bring his father A. C. Coe, out for a week's visit, but could not find him and he walked out next day. Mr. Coe's father lives down on the Columbia, where he owns property.

It seems by the snow in the mountains that it would be rather cold and a rough journey to cross the mountains at this time of year, yet a man undertook the trip the other day.

Samuel Hinton of Laurel, Washington county, visited relatives and friends here several days last week.

Rev. A. L. Hawley, who was recently transferred to the Methodist Episcopal church circuit, filled his first appointment here last Sunday.

Who can beat this? Mrs. David Vinzant picked ripe strawberries out of her garden yesterday.

Farmers, until recently, were complaining that the ground was too dry to plow and now it is just the reverse. Who can please them?

E. A. Coe and C. E. Barney went to the county seat on business, one week ago last Saturday.

Marysville Notes.

MARYSVILLE, Nov. 10.—At a special school meeting on November 7, it was decided to commence school on Monday, November 16th. Mr. Wm. Muldenhauser was elected director to fill the unexpired term of Chas. Kriegon, who had removed from the district.

Mrs. T. L. Sager is still visiting at Washougal, Wash.

Mr. Thomas Flynn is in very poor health. Between old age and rheumatism the old gentleman has a hard time of it.

George and Hosea Rogers are talking of going East on a visit. Bring back a cook George.

Mr. J. H. Mathey, our enterprising storekeeper at Clarkes moves to Independence, Polk county, this week.

On Wednesday evening quite a large crowd assembled at the residence of F. M. Manning and took them entirely by sur-
