The regular monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association was held at Concord, November 23, 1896.

The association sang "America" The minutes of the previous meeting as prepared by the secretary, Miss Fannie G. Porter, were read and approved.

"How to teach Maxwell's grammar" was the subject assigned J. W. Gray. He was followed by H. S. Strange, Fannie G. Porter, and S. W. Holmes.

Called to order at 1:30 by President Starkweather.

Two young ladies of Concord sang "Rock a Bye Baby" with much expression.

On motion of Mr. Thomson, Hon. W. A. Starkweather was admitted to membership in the association. Mr. Thomson stating that he had subjected the candidate to a rigid examination, and pronounced him eligible thereto.

Mr. A. R. Dimick was also admitted to the association. Ex-superintendent Thomson was called upon for a speech, as the "father of the association" and responded in a happy vein.

Resolved that the good derived from the association is not enough to repay the time and expense of attending."

Superintendent Starkweather remarked that the fact of absence on the part of those assigned the affirmative should be evidence enough to decide the case in favor of the negative, nevertheless he appointed H. S. Gibson and T. J. Gary to take the part of the absent.

Dig down to the cause of your sickness, if you want to get well and stay well. Most likely its indigestion. The irritating poisons of fermenting, putrid food, left in the stomach by indigestion, cause headache, neuralgia, nervousness, dizziness, stomach ache, nausea, irritability, and all the other well-known symptoms of indigestion.

They also cause many pains and disorders which are often laid to other causes and hence are not easily cured. But as soon as the poisons are removed, all these symptoms and disorders disappear, because there is nothing left to cause them.

Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

No one would drink poor tea if he or she knew the difference in tea.

The pleasure of social intercourse with congenial spirits, is worth a great deal, to a teacher who really works in the school room.

"Grading the country schools" was next talked up. H. S. Strange, S. W. Holmes and Jennie E. Rowen, spoke on this subject. Superintendent Starkweather favored grading the schools, if a uniform course of study could be adopted by the state.

Master Guy White and Miss Anna Theissen each recited choice selections in a creditable manner.

Miss Ada Moehcke, Miss Gertrude L. Rice, Mr. Cramer and Charles Meserve were admitted to membership in the association. Mr. Meserve yielded to the clamor for a speech and gave a brief outline of the early history of the Clackamas County Teacher's Association.

Mr. Theissen spoke words of encouragement to the association.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Harmony the last Saturday in January. The December meeting will be omitted to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the State Teachers' Association.

A resolution of thanks to the good people of Concord for their kindness and hospitality was unanimously adopted.

Following is a list of the names of teachers present at this meeting:

- Messrs.— H. S. Gibson, S. W. Holmes, H. S. Strange, J. W. Gray, T. J. Gary, A. R. Dimick, L. L. Moore, W. A. Starkweather, Chauncey Barney, H. G. Starkweather, Alex. Thomson

Burglars Arrested.

The saloon building of Charles Selz, at Liberal, was robbed sometime since and a quantity of liquor and cigars taken, an account of which appeared in the ESTREPER at the time. Tuesday Constable McCown arrested William Schulz on suspicion and later in the day Schulz's wife and Thos. Denell were arrested for the robbery and lodged in jail. Mrs. Schulz was released on her own recognizance and the other two will be given a hearing before Justice Schubel at 1 p. m. today. These arrests grew out of a row between Schulz and Denell at the former's home near Macksburg, last Sunday. The officers think they are on the right track since several demijohns of the stolen liquor were found on Schulz's premises.

Resolutions.

OREGON CITY, Oregon, Nov. 20, 1896. To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Multnomah Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M.

Your memorial committee entrusted with the preparation of resolutions of respect to the memory of Bro. Andrew J. Washburn, respectfully submit the following:

Resolved, That in pursuance of the unalterable law of nature, has gathered to its fold, our well beloved Brother Andrew J. Washburn, thereby severing another link in the fraternal chain that binds us together. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of our esteemed and worthy brother, this lodge has lost an honored member, the family of the deceased a kind and affectionate husband and father and the community an upright, honorable and respected citizen.

Resolved, That we offer our heartfelt sympathy to his family in the grief they must feel in this separation, while we kindly call their attention to the joyous reunion on the other shore.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the journal of this lodge, that a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother and that a copy be furnished to the Oregon City papers for publication.

THOS. F. RYAN, SIDNEY SMYTH, D. M. KINNAIRD, Committee.

Recommended. The members of the Oregon City Ministerial Association desire publicly to express our appreciation of Rev. E. A. Holdridge and Frank Dickson, as evangelists, after laboring with them for three weeks. We believe them to be true, honest, devoted Christian men and can recommend them to any pastor or church needing evangelists.

Webster's International Dictionary The One Great Standard Authority. It is easy to find the word wanted. It is easy to ascertain the pronunciation. It is easy to trace the growth of a word. It is easy to learn what a word means. The Chicago Times-Herald says: "Webster's International Dictionary is the best form of authority on everything pertaining to our language in the way of etymology, orthography, pronunciation, and definition. From it there is no appeal." It is a perfect specimen of human effort and scholarship made in 1890. G. & C. MERRIAM CO., Publishers, Springfield, Mass., U.S.A.
