Eugene and John Dement, two well known Astoria capitalists, were in the city Tuesday and Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Winston.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Morris, of Portland has given Christmas Sunday to St. Paul's parish in this city. Christmas music in the Episcopal church is always good but this year it will be especially fine.

Henry Nachland of Grass Valley Snerman county Oregon, was a caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Nachland came here about two weeks ago and has been detained every since on account of the storm.

The Rev. Joseph DeForest the new rector of St. Paul's Parish, occupied the pulpit at the Episcopal church, last Sabbath to the great delight of the congregation. The reverend gentlemen was detained in Portland over Sunday and improved the opportunity by preaching in this city.

Died.

WINSTON.—At her home near Damascus, Sunday, December 6, 1896, Mrs. Mary E. Winston, aged about 70 years.

Deceased was the eldest child of the pioneer Baptist minister, Rev. Hezekiah Johnson, who came with his family across the plains and settled in Oregon City in 1845. She was known to all the old settlers of the county and was universally esteemed and respected. There survive her Hon. W. Carey, H. H. and Miss Anna Johnson, of this city, and Prof. Franklin Johnson, lecturer and author, of Chicago University.

The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at Clackamas station, conducted by Rev. M. L. Rugg. After the services the remains were taken to the Clackamas cemetery and with loving hands laid gently to rest while sweet flowers, fit emblems of the purity and gentleness of her whose grave they decorate, were placed upon the little mound beneath which her body peacefully awaits the time when "this mortal shall have put on immortality and death shall be swallowed up in victory."

Mrs. Winston was buried by the side of her husband, the late Hon. James Winston, who died some two years ago. Mr. Winston was one of the clerks of Clackamas county, besides serving acceptably in other positions of trust and honor. Mrs. Winston's father and mother and the other members of the Johnson family who have passed away, are buried in this cemetery.

There were present at the funeral her sons, Richard Winston, of Seattle, and Percy Winston, of Damascus, who lived with his mother; and her daughters, Mrs. Anna Chalk, of Seattle and Mrs. Virginia DeMert, of Spokane. Another son, Julian, who lives in Washington could not be reached so as to be here at the funeral. Also her nephews, Eugene and John Dement, of Astoria, were present, besides a great many old pioneers and friends of the family.

Mrs. Winston, on her mother's side, was a lineal descendent of Aneke Jans and an heir to the millions of dollars worth of property of the Trinity church corporation of New York.

The old Winston home in Richmond, Virginia, was purchased by the confederate government and was used by Jeff Davis as his residence during the war.

Patent Office Profits.

"So far there have been nearly 200 patents issued for horseshoes," observed a blacksmith. "Every one of them was supposed to have merit. A large number of them were supposed to be of value for the reason that they could be put on horses by hands or claps and thus save time and the expense of horseshoers. Six thousand dollars, therefore, has been paid into the patent office by inventors of horseshoes.

"Not one of these inventions was ever used, and today, as during the past, horses are shod. The only shoe that can be put on a horse must be nailed on by a blacksmith. There is no royal road to wealth, and there is no way to shoe a horse except to nail on the shoe. This $6,000 is but a small part of the money paid out in connection with patented horseshoes."—Washington Star.

Sardou's Hobby.

Sardou's hobby is building himself houses. In this way he delights in spending his wealth. On Mount Boron, on the outskirts of Nice, stands a huge erection of stone, dwarfing the surrounding villas, which is merely the foundation of a palatial residence which the eminent dramatist commenced, and after an expenditure of some $200,000 was prevented from completing on the ground that the structure would interfere with the outlook of the fort perched on the hill behind.

Two Tempting Offers.

One of the down town clothiers has this advertisement, which he has displayed in several newspapers: "We agree to give all our customers fits."

A patent medicine dealer, who caught sight of the ad. yesterday for the first time, said that he intended to immediately insert another notice beneath it, as follows: "I will cure those fits cheap as dirt." —Syracuse Post.

How It Got There.

A young man took his watch to a jeweler and asked the reason of it stopping. "Well," said the jeweler, "there is a bedbug in it." "Why, how could a bedbug get in a watch?" "Easily enough," said the jeweler, "it went in between the ticks."—Hennessey Press-Democrat.
