C. A. MILLER, SUPT.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1896.

THE ARTISANS.—This worthy fraternal and beneficiary organization was two years old on the 1st of November, 1896, and has in the United States 2,800 members and $30,000 in its reserve fund. It has completed the second year of its history with the unprecedented record of having but one assessment in two years.
In order to increase the membership of the order and allow others to enjoy the benefits accruing to its members a special adoption fee of $3.25 has been granted until the 30th of this month and the members are making extra efforts to acquaint the public with the leading tenets of the organization. M. Bollack is master artisan and E. Robinson, secretary of Oregon City Assembly No. 7.

REORGANIZED.—The Oregon City senate, which flourished in this city something like a year ago, was reorganized last Saturday evening for the winter and the following officers elected: President, Col. Robt. A. Miller; vice president, J.
W. Clark; secretary, John W. Loder; treasurer, H. A. Webster. The sessions of the council will be devoted almost exclusively to the discussion of topics of popular interest. Weekly meetings, to which the public will be welcome, will be held on Friday evenings in Justice C.
Schubel's office, and the question to be debated this (Friday) evening is: "Resolved, that the United States should adopt the English form of government."

THE HEMLOCKERS.—The meeting was in charge of the president, Fred Meindle.
The program consisted of a select reading by Mable Woods; song by the Hesperian quartette composed of Misses Hollenbeck and Blum and Messrs.
Chas. McCausland and Elmer McArthur; duet, Misses Winslow and Blum. The question for debate was "Resolved, that the statesman has done more for his nation than the warrior" Carl Joehne, Harry Allen and Elmer McArthur defended the affirmative and Fred Meindle, Chas. Babcock and Alice McArthur, the negative; recitations, Jeannette Reed and Maud Winslow; paper, Metta Finley.

SOLE PROPRIETOR.—Richard Petzold has bought out his partner, Chas. H.
Gale, and will in the future conduct both the Seventh street and Main street markets himself. Mr. Petzold has established a reputation for keeping the best meats in the city at very reasonable prices and anyone trading at either of his markets is always sure to receive courteous treatment. He desires to thank his friends for their generous patronage in the past and solicits a continuance for the future.

ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP.—Two of the light fingered gentry who have been operating so successfully in Portland recently, assaulted Jack Phelan, a Southern Pacific bridge contractor, at the south end of the depot grounds in this city, shortly after dark Friday evening and endeavored to force him to accompany them up the track. Jack managed to defend himself and get away, though one of his assailants drew a knife and made several ineffectual attempts to cut him.

Their motive was supposed to have been robbery.

RATES FIXED.—At a recent meeting of the Oregon City school board the rate of tuition for non-residents was fixed at $6.00 a term for the high school, $4.00 in the intermediate grades and $2.00 in the primary grades. It was also ordered that any parent or guardian, not a resident of the city, by filing a statement of their inability to pay the tuition of a child or ward staying in the city and attending school here, should be relieved from paying tuition until the board could act further in the matter.

DROWNED.—Monday evening about 7 o'clock Henry Nyart, an employee of the Pacific Bridge Company, fell into the canal at the middle lock and was drowned before those who heard his call for help could reach him. He had gone to dip up a pail of water when the accident occurred. The water was drawn off and the body recovered shortly after.
Deceased was a native of Finland, 33 years of age and unmarried.

OFFICERS CHOSEN.—Oregon Lodge, No.
3, I. O. O. F., elected the following officers on Thursday evening for the ensuing six months: Noble grand, E. A.
Leighton, vice grand, C. E. Midlam; treasurer, S. S. Walker; recording secretary, Thos. F. Ryan; permanent secretary, J. A. Stewart.

A FURNISHED HOUSE.—Will be rented very reasonably to a family that will guarantee to take good care of the building and belongings. The house is new, plastered, of seven rooms and convenient of location. Apply at this office.

truly thankful to the patrons of the school for showing so much interest in the school during this bad weather.
LAWSON L. MOORE, Teacher.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a health, vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Charman & Co's drug store.

Black and colored kid gloves, cheap at the Racket store.

Life at Washington.

The inauguration of a president, the selection of his cabinet, and the seating of a new congress—national events of the coming year—suggest the question, what are the powers and duties of these high officials? During 1897 it will be answered through the Youth's Companion, in a remarkable series of articles by Secretary Herbert, Postmaster-General Wilson, Attorney-General Harmon, Senator Lodge and Speaker Reed.

The Illustrated Announcement for 1897 (mailed free on application to the Youth's Companion, Boston) shows that the above is only one of many brilliant "features" by which the Companion will signalize its seventy-first year.

Three novelists who at present fill the public eye—Jan Maclaren, Rudyard Kipling and Stephen Crane—will contribute some of their strongest work. Practical affairs and popular interests will be treated by Andrew Carnegie, Hon. Theodore Roosevelt, Dr. Lyman Abbott, Madame Lillian Nordica, Hon. Carl Schurz, Chas.
Dudley Warner, Mrs. Burton Harrison, and a hundred other famous men and women.

Four fascinating serials, more than two hundred short stories, and ten times as many sketches and anecdotes will be printed during 1897; and all the departments will be maintained at the high standard which has made the Compan-ion's name a synonym for impartial accuracy.

The cost of the Companion is but $1.75 a year, and we know of no investment that will give so great returns for so small an amount of money. New subscribers will receive the paper free from the time the subscription is received until January 1, 1897, and for a full year to January, 1898. New subscribers also receive the Companion four-page calendar, lithographed in twelve colors, which is the most expensive color production its publishers have ever offered. Address

Six Cents a Week.

The election of Mr. McKinley was the occasion of the most rapid and widespread business revival ever known in this country. There is a certainty that good times will prevail and that people will earn money and have money to spend. The Independent, of New York, was foremost in upholding the principles for which Mr. McKinley stands, and re-joices in the better outlook for every man woman and child in the country.

For forty-nine years the Independent has held the first position among the great religious, literary and family weeklies of this country, and it proposes to fill that position in the future. It has adopted several new, interesting and important features, two of which are: "The Survey of the World," which gives in a concise form all the important events that have happened in the world during the week, and "Work Indoors and Out," which tells men, women, boys and girls how to earn money in a variety of ways.
In general the paper is particularly fitted for professional men, business men, merchants, farmers and families. It costs but six cents a week—$3.00 a year—or at that rate for any part of a year. A specimen copy will be sent to any person free by addressing the Independent, New York City.

Popular Science News.

Popular Science News, formerly Boston Journal of Chemistry, since its removal to New York has been enlarged and very much improved by the absorption of some sixteen other similar papers.
It is a real Popular Scientific Journal, free from technicalities, profusely illustrated and full of short, practical and interesting articles. Its departments of nature, science, archaeology, invention, electricity, health, hygiene and medicine are conducted by able specialists, and are of great practical interest to all. Write

For Young Men and Young Women

There is nothing that will arouse the fire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussy their neat appearance is spoiled.
The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work.
There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's arber shop.

New York Gallery.

R. K. Claverling, the well known artist, has moved the New York gallery to the building on the corner of Water and Fifth streets, where the reputation of this popular establishment will be sustained. Low rent enables Mr. Claverling to do the very best work at the lowest possible prices. Cabinet pictures at $1 per dozen.

Eureka Hotel.

Has the reputation of setting the best table in Oregon City. The cooking is done under personal supervision of Mrs.
Gibbons, and the victuals are equal to the best had in a private family. Rooms and beds clean and comfortable. Give the Eureka a trial. Meals and beds 25 cents each. Special rates to regular boarders.

We have everything necessary for your Christmas fruit cake or mince meat viz: citron, lemon and orange peel, currants, raisins, cider, nuts and spices.

BAD BREATH!

Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. Do not neglect to secure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

PILES!

How many suffer torture day after day, making life a burden and robbing existence of all pleasure, owing to the secret suffering from Piles. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION

SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact, nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a constive habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE!

This distressing affliction occurs most frequently.
The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and the condition what is popularly known as Sick Headache, for the relief of which TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR MEDICINE.

McClure's Magazine
For 1897
SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.)

Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begins in November.)

Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished. (Begins in May.)

Chas. A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studies under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Picture of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction.

Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaboriau.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS

Jan Maclaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McCLURE'S MAGAZINE.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories.

Rudyard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McCLURE'S all of the short stories he will write during the coming year.

Octave Thanet is preparing for the MAGAZINE a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself.

Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr
Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weymann Clark Russell will all have stories in McCLURE'S for the coming year.

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McCLURE'S MAGAZINE for 1897, the subscription price of which is only

One Dollar a Year

The new volume begins with November. Subscriptions should start with this number.
