McClure's Magazine for March will contain the first installment of a fine tale of adventure by Robert Louis Stevenson, left unpublished at his death. It is a love story, having for its hero a French soldier held a prisoner of war in Edinburgh castle; and for its heroine an aristocratic Scotch maiden whom he meets there.

The editor of the Review of Reviews comments in the March number on the Spanish program of reforms in Cuba, the United States Senate's attitude toward the arbitration treaty with England, the immigration bill, the proposed international monetary conference, President-elect McKinley's cabinet selections, the recent Senatorial elections the New York Trust investigation, the famine situation in India, the Greeks in Crete, the foreign policy of Russia, the position of England, France, and the other great powers, and many other matters of current interest.

A Rich Harvest.

It costs no more to sow good seeds than it does to sow old and worthless stock. How foolish is the person who fails to get the best to start with. No doubt you have often thought of this, when your garden has not done very well.

Will you jog along in the same old way this year, or use a little forethought and send to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for their Catalogue which contains a list of all that's new and good?

There seeds are always reliable—sure to grow and never disappoint. Send 10 cents for Catalogue and deduct this amount from first order. Really costs nothing.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventative of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Geo. A. Harding.

Easter Hats and Bonnets.

A novel method of presenting the newest and freshest Easteride creations of Paris milliners has been adopted by The Ladies' Home Journal for March. In that magazine the new French hats and bonnets will be pictured as they are worn. This unique display is useful, therefore, in pointing out clearly not only Fashion's decree, but the styles in headdress best suited to several contrasted types and faces.

Eureka Hotel.

Has the reputation of setting the best table in Oregon City. The cooking is done under personal supervision of Mrs. Gibbons, and the victuals are equal to the best had in a private family. Rooms and beds clean and comfortable. Give the Eureka a trial. Meals and beds 25 cents each. Special rates to regular boarders.

For the Lungs.

Elder Alson W. Steers writes from Portland, Or., "There is no medicine for the throat and lungs that I can recommend to ministers, public speakers and singers, with the confidence that I can the S. B. Cough cure." 50 cents a bottle. For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

For the Kidneys.

"I am 65 years old; have had kidney disease and constipation for 25 years. Am now well—used your S. B. Headache and Liver Cure one year. Used 6 bottles at 50 cents each. J. H. Knight, Rutledge, Or." For sale by C. G. Huntley, druggist.

THE KNOW-SOMETHING PARTY.

First County Convention Held at Park-place Tuesday Evening.

The members of the Enterprise Parliamentary club of Park-place-Gladstone met at the residence of Capt. J. T. Apperson on Tuesday evening. The regular program for the evening was dispensed with and the members of the club, realizing the abuses and burdens under which the people are laboring today because of the corruption existing in the old political parties, organized the know-something party and proceeded to hold the first convention for Clackamas county.

The convention was called to order by Louis Rail, chairman of the county central committee, when the call for the convention was read by Miss Dollie Cross, secretary of the county central committee.

Temporary organization was then effected by the election of Fred Hargraves, chairman and Miss Nora Elliott, secretary.

Committees were then appointed by the chair as follows:

Credentials—Joseph Garrow, Miss Estella Bracken, Willie Williams and Miss Edna Jewell.

Order of Business—Miss Katie Smith, Percy Cross, Jesse Faubion, Florence Patty and Louie Rail.

Platform and Resolutions—Winifred Dauchey, Misses Harriette Dotson, Zilpha Galloway, Nora Elliott and Clark Williams.

Recess was then taken to allow the committees time to make their reports during which Mrs. J. W. Gray delighted the delegates and visitors with the rendition of a delightful solo. During the intermission Judge Galloway, a member from the foot hills who had been quietly polling the wires to get the nomination for state senator, was called upon to outline his policy. He protested that the convention was a "cut and dried" affair, that the county delegates had been utterly ignored and gave notice that he had been whetting his knife and would make trouble if the demands of his section were not acceded to.

H. E. Cross, another country delegate with mud on his feet and hayseed in his hair, an aspirant for the nomination of joint senator, complained that he had been invited to participate in the convention but had been snubbed on every proposition he had advocated and threatened bolt and set up a "rump" convention of his delegation was not properly recognized.

Further debate was shut off by the appearance of the committee on credentials, the report of which was read by Joseph Garrow, the chairman, and showed that each of the 36 precincts in the county were represented by delegates or proxies and that all present were entitled to seats in the convention. The report was well written and drawn up in the form usually adopted by such bodies. It was adopted without discussion.

Permanent organization was then effected by the election of Wilbert Garrow, chairman and Miss Edna Garrow, secretary. On assuming the chair Mr. Garrow, in a neat speech, thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him and promised the convention to render his services fairly and impartially.

The report of the committee on order of business was then submitted by the chairman, Miss Katie Smith. The report was nicely drawn up and in strict conformity to the rules governing political conventions and one usually followed in state and county conventions.

In presenting the report on platform and resolutions the chairman, Winifred Dauchey, said the committee had spent a great deal of time in their deliberations, having burned the midnight oil and consulted in their research Caesar's Commentaries, the Magna Charta, Blackstone, the bible, the Oregonian and Ayer's almanac, and that the committee felt assured the convention would, after hearing the report read, decide that it was an able and comprehensive document and would compare favorably with the immortal declaration of independence in the beauty of its diction and the grandeur of the principles enunciated. The report was then read by the secretary of the committee, Miss Dotson.

The platform, among other things set forth the fact that all other political parties have failed in meeting the wants and needs of the people in the matter of public trusts and private snags; that all ties binding the members of this convention to the old political hulk now drifting helplessly upon the bleak, turbulent and tempestuous sea of political despair and despond are forever severed; that this day upon which the Know Something party was launched shall shine in future with a grandeur and effulgence equal to the Fourth of July and exelling Christmas and St. Patrick's day in the morning; that the watchword of the party shall be "veni, vidi, vici," which in modern, up-to-date English is "get there and stay there."

The report also contained resolutions setting forth the fact that the men and women placed in office by this party would be celebrated throughout the land for their probity, moral rectitude and politics integrity, and that the celerity, regularity and punctuality with which they would draw and distribute their salary would cause their names and fame to go sounding down the stair-way of time, creating echoes which shall cause

Sweetness and Light.

Put a pill in the pulpit if you want practical preaching for the physical man; then put the pill in the pillory if it does not practise what it preaches. There's a whole gospel in Ayer's Sugar Coated Pills; a "gospel of sweetness and light." People used to value their physical, as they did their religion,—by its bitterness. The more bitter the dose the better the doctor. We've got over that. We take "sugar in ours"—gospel or physio—now-a-days. It's possible to please and to purge at the same time. There may be power in a pleasant pill. That is the gospel of tyrants to tremble and political sycophant to retire into a state of innocuous desuetude, from which there will be neither resurrection, redemption or reusucitation; also favoring the raising of all salaries as soon as Simon should say "thumbs up" and the legislature was organized; advocating 13 months' school in each district, increased salaries and shorter hours for teachers; the appropriating of money for supplying moss on Apperson's lake and the propagation therein of toads and mud cats; the spreading of the elective franchise, like "Job's comforters" over all to include women; the inclusion of prize fighting in the curriculum of our colleges and the state Chautauqua association; and concluded with the resolution as follows:

"Whereas, deprecating as we do, as patriots of whose patriotism there is no question, the growing spirit for sordid gain that has become the dominant idea of late years of too many people, to the exclusion of all patriotic sentiments from their hearts, thus endangering the very foundation of the government of which we are all so justly proud, therefore be it resolved, that Old Glory be floated from every court house, school house and private residence in the land, and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of this convention."

President Thomas McClelland, of Pacific University, was called upon for a few remarks and congratulated the members of the club upon the work they were doing and said he knew from experience that the training they were getting was such as would prove of great value to them in after years.

Miss Bracken responded briefly in behalf of members of the club.

Capt. Apperson, Judge Galloway and Mr. Cross made brief addresses also.

There were present besides the members of the club: President Thos. McClelland of Pacific University, Capt. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cross, Judge and Mrs. Wm. Galloway, Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Garrow, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams, Charles Meserve and Will W. Brooks.

The meeting next Tuesday evening will be held at the residence of Mr. Henry Jewell in Gladstone, when the regular program will be resumed. Clark Williams will read a paper giving a sketch of the early history of Clackamas county. The debate will be on the question, Resolved, that the indications pre- sage a longer life to the American nation than that had by any other nation.

A Safe Investment

A GOOD PLACE TO LIVE

Beautiful scenery and health giving air, high level land with good productive soil and pure water, a first-class public school building attended by nearly a hundred pupils on the premises; and a good plank road (one of the main thoroughfares in the county), connects with the macadamized streets of the city. This beautiful tract adjoins Oregon City and no portion of it is beyond a mile from the heart of the city and but a 15 minutes walk on plank walks to the business houses.

These are a few of the attractions of South Oregon City. Now is the time to think of the place to build your home or a good place to lay by an investment that will increase in value. The easy terms on which this property is sold should not embarrass any thrifty person. Lots are 50x100 and prices range from $100 to $150. Terms, $5 down and $5 per month until paid, without interest or taxes, a liberal discount for cash, and inducements to build. Every lot clear and ready for the garden. Quite a number of lots have been sold and there are several houses already occupied on the tract and quite a settlement in the neighborhood.

Oregon City with her big monthly pay roll, great woolen mills, large pulp paper and flouring mills and massive electric station, her fine public schools and all the modern improvements, is bound to increase her growth. Where can you find a better place to live in or a safer place for an investment? For further information call on or address
