Sandy Farmers Getting Short of Feed -Hay Eighteen Dollars Per Ton-Pilling Camp to be Established.

SANDY, March 27 .- All of our Sandy people who have plenty to eat for themselves and plenty of feed for their stock are able to stand the present disagreeable weather.

Ed. Burnette of Eagle Creek was on Sandy an bought 15 or 20 head of two-year-old stock. He is buying for a Salem firm. Mr. Kligle is busy getting out timber for a barn which will be the largest in the neighborhood when finished. The main building will be 50x80 with 30 foot posts.

J. N. Foster is making necessary preparations for his creamery. When finished be intends to purchase the milk of his neighboring farmers.

Road Supervisor P. R. Meinig has advertised for bids for splitting 1850 puncheons to be laid on the hill road south of town. The road is almost impassible and people who travel will greatly appreciate the supervisor's work.

A gentleman from Portland was out on Sandy looking for pileing timber. It he could make arrangements for timber he would start getting out piles and raft them down the river.
