Oregon City Enterprise. HONEST PRICES AND HONEST PROFITS

Has always been the motto of this store and with one exception its prices have been going down to correspond with the hard times. This exception is Patent Medicines, the prices of which the manufacturers have always presumed to dictate, saying "you must charge 25c. for this and $1.00 for that or you can't handle our goods." I have given the Patent Medicine Manufacturers the "Grand Ha, Ha," and down go their prices 20 per cent to 40 per cent, to correspond with our other reductions. Now that I am in a position to cut the prices on patent medicines. I can guarantee the price on every bit of merchandise that goes from my store. An elaborate study of "The New Administration at Washington," by Albert Shaw, appears in the April Review of Reviews. Dr. Shaw draws an interesting comparison between the American and British administrative systems, pointing out the distinction between "ministry" and "cabinet," in both theory and practice; he also treats quite fully of Mr. McKinley's process of cabinet-building, its various difficulties and adjustments, and outlines the noteworthy characteristics of the president's official family as finally selected, both individually and in ensemble.
