Boy Run Over by a Big Field Roller-Successful Epworth League Social New Sidewalks to be Built.

CANBY, April 12.-The most successful social event of the season was that held in the M. E. church last Friday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League. The church was crowded and nearly every family in the city and vicinity was represented there. The following program was rendered: The congregation sang "America" as an opening song. Rev. H. T. Atkinson, the minister in charge of this circuit, made the address of welcome in a neat and appropriate speech. J. Webb delighted grounds and witnessed the interesting cerethe audience with an excellent vocal solo. Master Victor Carnthers favored the audience with a select reading and was heartily applauded. Next was a recitation by Mrs. glad to welcome her home. Emma Dobyns which was highly appreciated. Then came some instrumental music by Mesdames Carlton and Rosenkrans and Mr. Robert Coe who responded to a hearty encore. Master Ernest Shank recited a selection in a very clever manner. after which the audience sang "Throw Out the Life Line." Master Summer Daugherty was next on the program with a recitation which was well rendered. Miss Ruby Hopping next recited a comic selection in a very entertaining manner. Mesdames Carlton and Rosenkrans and Mr. Robert Coe again pleasantly entertained the andience A chorus of little girls sang a pretty song which added materially to the evening's pleasures. Miss Eya Terry came next with a recitation and the program was concluded with a selection by the orchestra. After the entertainment everybody was treated to coffee and cake. Your corres pondent was there and in the zenith of his glory when the cakes began to move in his direction and, being a critic, can truly state that for quantity and quality, price considered (for they were free), no finer lot of cakes was ever seen in Canby or elsewhere as, far as statistics show, than those donated by the ladies of Canby on this occasion, Mr. Halsey Phelps was master of ceremonies and none better could have been se-
