If we could trace Dyspepsia to its source, it would lead back to our kitchens. In fact, the secret of good health is good cooking. If well cooked, foods are partially digested; if poorly cooked, they are less digestible in their raw state. If you are a victim of faulty cooking; that is, if you suffer from Dyspepsia, the rational cure must be looked for in an artificially digested food, and a food which will at the same time aid the digestion of other foods. Such a preparation virtually rests the tired digestive organs, thereby restoring them to their natural strength.

The Digestive Cordial, as prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, is just such a preparation, and a single 10 cent bottle will convince you of its value. If your druggist doesn't keep it, he will be glad to get it through his wholesale house.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

MAD BREATH!

Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as bad breath; and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. Do not neglect to take a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

FILES!

How many suffer torture day after day, making life a burden and robbing existence of all pleasure, owing to the trouble of suffering from Files. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION

SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact, nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a constive habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE!

This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache, for the relief of which take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR MEDICINE.

ANDRESEN-GRAHAM NUPTIALS.

At 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening in the presence of the relatives and a few immediate friends, at the new home prepared by the groom for his bride, on Jefferson street in this city, an event took place by which one of Oregon City's fairest and most accomplished daughters transferred her keeping into other hands. It was the occasion of the marriage of Miss M. Winnifred Graham to Mr. William Andresen.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the bride and groom-elect, attended by Charles Miller and Miss Anna Baird, took their places to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, under the arch of flowers in the bay window, where Rev. M. L. Rugg, of the First Baptist church, spoke the impressive words that joined two hearts, and made the happy couple husband and wife.

The bride was becomingly attired in a lovely gown of white organdie and the groom in conventional black.

After blessings and congratulations had been heaped upon the happy couple, the wedding party sat down to a bounteous wedding dinner. The repast ended, the bride's bouquet was thrown, according to custom, and Miss Winnie Williams was the fortunate person at whose feet it fell.

There were present: Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Rugg, Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Graham, Capt. A. B. Graham, Capt. and Mrs. A. W. Graham, Capt. and Mrs. J. N. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Morral, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fox, Mrs. Eliza A. Burmeister, Fox, Mrs. Alex. Lewthwaite, Misses Winnie Williams, Alice Glasspool, Mary McIntyre, Anna Baird and Nellie Coalfield, of Portland, and Messrs. Charles Miller and H. A. Our I's and Other Eyes.

Our I's are just as strong as they were fifty years ago, when we have cause to use them. But we have less and less cause to praise ourselves, since others do the praising, and we are more than willing for you to see us through other eyes. This is how we look to S. F. Boyce, wholesale and retail druggist, Duluth, Minn., who after a quarter of a century of observation writes:

"I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than 25 years, both at wholesale and retail, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; not a single complaint has ever reached me. I believe Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier that has been introduced to the general public." This, from a man who has sold thousands of dozens of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is strong testimony. But it only echoes popular sentiment the world over, which has "Nothing but words of praise for Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Any doubt about it? Send for the "Curebook." It kills doubts and cures doubters. Address: J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A Word About Shoes

Since opening in Oregon City our shoe trade has steadily increased. This has induced us to show a much larger line for spring than we have ever shown. There is no disputing the fact we make lower prices on shoes than any other house in Clackamas county and lower than Portland's largest houses. If you have been paying too much for your footwear and are not satisfied--give the Beehive a trial and you will be the winner.
