SIDEWALK GALLANTRY.—The Hillsboro Argus is deeply shocked at the habit the young men of that place have of lining up on the sidewalk in the evening at the close of church services or other public gatherings, ready to escort the young ladies home, and proceeds to deliver a lecture to the parents of the girls and to the preachers as though they were to blame for this display of sidewalk gallantry on the part of the young men. If the Argus would give a little fatherly advice to the young men it would be more to the point, for these boys, as in Oregon City for this sidewalk habit is only too prevalent here, are not rowdies or hoodlums but are just too bashful to call at the young ladies' homes for them, and to sit with them in an audience exposed to the searching glances of fond mamma and disappointed rivals. Below is given what the Argus has to say on this vexing social problem: When the ministers in our pulpits have the courage to take hold of the moral question and handle it without gloves we shall see a decided improvement in our social fabric. When they see young girls coming to church in the evening unattended; when they see young men lining up along the walk at the close of services ready to offer escort; when they observe these things and remain silent, they are breeding contempt for their calling. They should handle these matters without delicacy. If parents do not know enough; or if they care so little, that they see and tolerate these things, it is time the ministry should lift the subject matter to the bottom and teach parents their duties. A man had better tell truths, even if they are unpleasant, to a small crowd, than to shut his eyes to conditions that are making sad tangles in our social wool and warp. If young girls are not old enough to go home alone they are not old enough to make their way to church alone. If they are old enough to accept of company on the return, they are old enough to accept of company on the starting out. Parents should know this, but when they do not—or heed it not—ministers would lose no respect in hitting the nail on the head and "speaking out in meeting."

NEW SCHEDULE.—Commencing May 1st, the Southern Pacific will put into effect a new time card, which will make a number of changes, the most important one being the leaving time of the San Francisco overland from Portland, which will be at 6 p. m. instead of 8:50 as at present. The object of the change is to make closer connections with the Northern Pacific overland from St. Paul, which arrives in Portland at 5 p. m. instead of 7:30 as heretofore. The new schedule on the Southern Pacific will put the overland into San Francisco three and a half hours earlier than at present, namely 7:45 a. m. instead of 11:45, giving business men a whole day in San Francisco, by leaving Portland at 6 p. m. the overland will take the place of the Salem local, which leaves at 4 p. m. and the overland train will do local service, stopping at all the stations between Portland and Salem. Coming north the overland will leave San Francisco at 8 p. m. instead of 7 p. m. as at present, reaching Salem at 7:10 a. m. and arriving in Portland at 9:30 a. m. instead of 8:10 as at present. Taking off the Salem local, according to the new time table, will not prove a detriment, as it will give parties going to Portland two hours and forty minutes more in which to transact business. The overland leaving Portland at 6 p. m. will reach Salem at 8:30 and the return train will leave Salem at 7:10 in the morning for Portland. The Roseburg local will arrive 10 minutes earlier than at present. The West Side schedule has been changed so that the Corvallis train will arrive in Portland 5:50 p. m. and trains for McMinnville will leave at 4:50 p. m.

THE GRADE COMPLETED.—The three-fourths of a mile fill that the Southern Pacific railroad company is making across the Abernethy bottom north of the city is about completed only 60 car loads of gravel being necessary to finish the job. The track has been raised four and one-half feet, placing it above any ordinary high water. To make this fill it required 2,600 car loads of gravel or 33,800 cubic yards. The gravel train with which this fill was made consisted of 40 cars and the work was all done by machinery. The cars were loaded near Canby with a huge steam shoveler and when they came to the place where they were to be unloaded, the brakes, which are arranged along the sides of the cars so as to be out of the way, are all set fast and a large iron plow shaped like the letter V was drawn across the cars by means of a wire cable operated from the engine. By this means the trains of 40 cars can be unloaded in three minutes. While the men were leveling up the track the company has been making fills at New Era, LaBish and graveling the track near Salem. The Southern Pacific company has adopted the policy of filling up all the trestles and culverts possible. It is understood that the high trestle in the northern part of this city will be filled in with gravel before the timbers decay and have to be replaced with new ones. The gravel bed from whence all this gravel comes is near Canby and is 600 feet wide by a quarter of a mile in length.

FLAX CULTURE.—The movement to add the production of flax to the list of Oregon industries is assuming tangible shape. A company has been organized and one scutch mill to prepare the raw flax as fiber will be erected this year. The general committee is receiving more applications for seed from farmers who want to grow flax than they are able to supply. The board of trade committee in Oregon City, of which J. A. Thayer is chairman and D. H. Glass, secretary, is working up the matter in Clackamas county. Seed can be sown up to the middle of May with the assurance of a good crop and all farmers of this county who desire seed to grow this crop can obtain it by applying to Mr. Thayer or Mr. Glass. The association supplies the seed, works up the straw into commercial products for home and foreign consumption and takes its pay from the seed furnished from the crop. The climatic conditions of Oregon are particularly suited to the growth of flax, actual experiment having demonstrated that the highest grade of flax fiber grown anywhere in the world can be grown here. Something of the importance and magnitude of this industry can be learned from the fact that $300,000 are annually sent out of Oregon for twine for fishermen, thread and other linens alone. Our business men and farmers should encourage this industry, for whenever a factory is established it is almost certain to be built in Oregon City since we have the water power and other natural advantages to be found nowhere else.

A SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT.—The ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church gave a very successful musical and literary entertainment at Shively's opera house last Friday evening which was attended by some 300 people and netted a neat sum to the society. During the evening Rev. A. J. Montgomery and his estimable wife were presented with an elegant silk crazy quilt with the names of 123 members of the church worked in it. A dainty little satchel bag suspended from one corner of the quilt contained a five dollar gold piece. The presentation was made by W. G. Beattie in a neat speech and responded to by Rev. Montgomery in a very felicitous manner.

NEW PASTOR.—Rev. Ernest Mark, of the German Lutheran church, has been located in the city by the Ohio synod and was duly installed into the pastorate last Sunday by Rev. A. Krause, of Portland. Rev. Mark came here from Tacoma and for the present will hold services in Shively's opera house in the morning only. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 o'clock and preaching at 10:30. These services will be conducted in German. There are 25 families of this branch of the Lutheran church in Oregon City and they expect to purchase property and erect a church edifice thereon during the summer.

BURIED AT EAGLE CREEK.—Mrs. Martha Poe was buried at Eagle Creek cemetery last Monday. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Rich. Mrs. Poe was one of our old and highly respected pioneers and leaves a host of friends. Her death occurred in Pasco, Washington, where she had gone hoping the dry climate would be beneficial to her health. Her remains were brought back for burial by her brother, Hon. L. Whitcomb, a former resident of Damascus, now county commissioner for Franklin county, Washington.

RAGS WANTED.—Cash will be paid for clean cotton rags at the ENTERPRISE office.

AWARDED CONTRACTS.—Contracts for government surveying recently awarded finds Oregon City well represented. Henry Meldrum and Hez Johnson have each received large contracts in Idaho 70 miles west of Boise City. Earnest Rands has a contract in Malheur county, Oregon. They expect to leave about the first of June to commence work, or as soon as the snow is out of the mountains.

WOODMAN DAY.—Tuesday, May 11th will be Woodmen day. Head Consul F. A. Falkenburg will be present and deliver an address on objects, aims and benefits of Woodcraft. An excellent musical and literary program will be rendered. There will also be wood-chopping and sawing contests for suitable prizes. Admission free and everybody invited.

NARROW ESCAPE.—In attempting to catch a horse in the pasture last Sunday, George Monner, a young man residing seven miles up the Clackamas was severely kicked, both feet of the animal striking him square in the face. His nose was crushed and several teeth knocked out. It was a narrow escape from instant death.

PERSONAL.—The gentleman who annoyed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing will find instant relief by using One Minute Cough Cure, a speedy and harmless remedy for throat and lung troubles. Geo. A. Harding.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer $100 for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
