

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

Redland Notes.
REDLAND, May 10.—The recent rain was of great benefit to the farmers of this community.

Messames A. and L. Sprague, M. Tomblison, Miss E. Carr, Messrs. E. Tomblison and Wm. Sprague of this place spent Sunday with J. Sprague of Logan.

The young people who attended the hop at Whiteman's Saturday evening report a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Tomblison of Astoria are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sprague of this place.

Wm. Boney of Hubbard was down to see his best girl Sunday.

DEED.—At her home in this place, on Saturday, May 1st, Mrs. Sophie Bargfeld, aged 61 years, 1 month and 14 days. Mrs. Bargfeld's maiden name was Martin and she was born in Hanover, Germany, in 1838. She came to New York City in 1854 and in 1855 married John J. Bargfeld. From New York they moved to Wisconsin in 1858, thence to Chicago, Ill., in 1872, where they resided until 1885, when they came west and settled at this place. Mrs. Bargfeld leaves a husband, three daughters and two sons, survivors of nine children. Her remains were interred in the Redland cemetery on Monday, May 3d. Funeral services were conducted by the pastor of the German church of Logan.

B. Sprague and T. W. Linn starts for the Soda Springs tomorrow morning. Both have been in poor health the past year. We hope the change will agree with them.

There will be a ball given at B. F. Linn's hall Saturday evening, May 15. All are invited. There will be a stand in connection with the hall. They always have a large crowd and a good time at Mr. Linn's.

Owing to an unexpected meeting of the Presbytery requiring the presence of Revs. Hurd and Montgomery in Portland next week, the revival meetings announced to be held in Bethel church commencing next Monday, have been postponed until a later date, of which due notice will be given.

The members of the Y. P. S. C. will give a pie social on Friday evening, May 14 at the residence of Mr. H. A. Allen for the benefit of the society. All their friends are invited to come and help them and enjoy a pleasant time.

Canby News.

CANBY, May 10.—Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rosenkrans gave a housewarming in their new home on Second street, Saturday evening. The elegant new house was crowded with their friends and it is needless to state that everyone had a delightful time. Dancing and games of various kinds were indulged in until a late hour. At 12 M. a delicious lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rosenkrans, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stogdill, Mr. and Mrs. Matchett, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dohy, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Coe Sr., R. S. Coe Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Dimmick, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carlton, George W. Knight, Miss Ethel Terry, Master Allie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Coleman and others whose names your correspondent failed to get.

A large concourse of friends attended the funeral of Miss Blanchard here last week. Miss Blanchard died suddenly at the family residence near New Era. She was a bright, kind-hearted girl and greatly esteemed by all who know her.

John Wolz and others are contemplating taking a fishing trip to Clear Creek this week.

Miss Minnie Walker is teaching school at Barlow and judging by the reports from there is giving excellent satisfaction.

John Koehler lost a valuable horse here last week. He was driving through town when the animal fell dead in the harness.

Needy News.

NEEDY, May 10.—Our May showers are doing considerable good, as most farmers are through sowing grain for this season.

Hop yards are being thoroughly worked in this vicinity.

The late frosts are supposed to have damaged fruit in some sections, but our trees give promise of a good yield.

Our roads were rather dusty before the rain, but are now in fair condition and traversed daily by bicycles.

J. E. Mitts has returned home after a three weeks term of court. They say his farm work goes on just the same when he is away.

The Dryland school closed its first month on Friday, April 30. Several visitors were present one of whom was County Superintendent Starkweather who addressed some very encouraging remarks to the school. The school here is progressing nicely.

Stone News.

STONE, May 10.—We have been enjoying some real spring weather the past few weeks and now the refreshing showers have returned.

A number of young people met at the residence of Mrs. Sprague on the evening of the 30th. Music and games were indulged in and a very pleasant evening was spent.

School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Alice Williams.

Miss Matilda Reed spent last Sunday with her friends at Stone.

Some splendid work is being done on the road between Clear Creek and Artur's prairie, under the management of J. C.

Sprague. Bring your bicycles and inspect our work.

James Hattan is thinking of selling his pony and purchasing a bicycle.

Father Hattan has been ailing in health the past week.

Miss Ella Dieken is on the sick list. The Holcomb and Stricklin schools are planning for a picnic during June. A pleasant time is expected.

Miss Annie Mumpower has been unable to teach the past two weeks on account of sickness.

Miss Ella Byers is expecting to attend the teachers' examination this week.

Miss Nora Hess of Oregon City is visiting her mother this week.

Crescent Notes.

CRESCENT, May 11.—Mrs. Hiddleston, wife of William Hiddleston, after a lingering illness of about three years with that dread disease consumption, quietly passed away at her home on Saturday May 8th, leaving a husband and five children to mourn her loss. She was buried in her last resting place in the Redland cemetery by many friends who sympathize with the bereaved family.

Uncle Johnnie Jones, of this place has a stroke of paralysis of the right side. He is quite cheerful and his many friends are glad to hear that the doctor is hopeful of his recovery.

Mrs. George Waldron has returned from Mr. E. M. Waldrons near New Era. School is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Hattie Wetherell of Portland.

Mrs. John Kraeft, senior, of Portland, was visiting at her son, Theodore Kraeft Tuesday.

Charles Welch and wife, of Highland, were seen in our vicinity last Thursday.

Mr. James Deshaizer and wife, of Eagle Creek, were visiting at Charles Livesay's some days past.

Miss Rosa Bullard, of Beaver Creek, is staying at Z. S. Gards going to school, and taking the place of Mr. Gards daughter, who is away for her health.

Our school was favored by a visit from Supt. Starkweather some days ago.

We are having some very warm days for May. Early crops are doing well while the later ones are being hurried into the ground hopefully.

George Notes.

GEORGE, May 10.—May be some of your readers would like to hear something of George.

Henry Johnson has the contract to open that part of the new road from George across Eagle Creek to the Miller Brothers saw mill at Millovia which was not finished last summer but did not get at it on account of being laid up with a sore throat.

Mr. Ruhl had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse. It happened to get caught in a barb wire fence and had one of its hind legs nearly cut off.

Mr. Rath is busy fixing up his beehives. He expects a big crop of honey as well as fruit and grain.

Miss Dora Schmidt is sick with the measles.

Julius Paulsen is very busy clearing up an eight acre patch of land to get ready for breaking this summer.

Haus Paulsen has been making a fish pond on his land. He is now considering what kind of fish he is going to stock it with.

Morris Grafenbain has his new sawmill nearly finished, he will begin sawing lumber in a week, or two.

Road work will begin this week in this district.

Mulino News.

MULINO, May 10.—The machinery for the Mulino shingle mill, Carlisle Bros., proprietors, was hauled Saturday by Messrs. Mulvey and Woodside. It is all firstclass, of the latest pattern, and their work will be guaranteed. It will be in operation by the 14th.

The sawmill of the Mulino Lumber Co. is running steadily and turning out all kinds of lumber. Its genial manager, Geo. McCord, made a flying business trip to Portland last Saturday.

C. T. Howard, proprietor of the flouring mill, spent a few days in Oregon City and Portland last week on business.

Master Bayne Howard returned from Portland Saturday.

Geo. Albright has been engaged by Carlisle Bros. as bolt cutter in the new shingle mill.

Wm. Evans is busily engaged building a residence in Lower Mulino.

J. E. Carlisle also expects to build a residence this summer.

Eagle Creek Notes.

EAGLE CREEK, May 8.—The farmers in this vicinity have finished seeding.

Fall and early sown spring grass looks well.

The weather is fine again after the rain. The prospect for a good crop of fruit is very encouraging.

Mr. Armstrong's new house at Eagle Creek Falls is nearing completion and will be ready to occupy by the 15th.

A pleasant party was held at the home of H. F. Gibson last night in honor of his own and his brother's 31st birthday.

W. I. Howlett and J. Woodie made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Martha Poe, a former resident of this place, who died near Pasel, Washington, April 24th, was buried in the cemetery near her old home, April 29th. She was a very estimable woman and it may be well said that those who knew her best loved her most. She leaves three children, one brother and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Boring Breezes.

BORING, May 10.—Acting on the principle that good roads are built for the people by the people, several of the most prominent farmers of this neighborhood have done considerable volunteer work on the Bradley and Richey road between D. Hederman's and J. C. Bradley's farm. The work done was mostly filling up mud holes, taking out stumps, roots, stones, etc. If the people would do more of this and less kicking about the road overseer the roads would soon be in a much better condition. Johnson & Co. brought their new steam sawmill out last Saturday. They have a sixty horse-power engine and the mill will be set up on the farm of Mr. Vetsch.

Mrs. C. C. Richey spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends in Portland.

John Richey of Portland was the guest of Edgar Richey for a few days last week. He came out for the purpose of fishing and reports good luck.

Wiley Wilson of Troutdale spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Borings.

Logan Locals.

LOGAN, May 11.—A new girl arrived at the home of M. W. Baker on the 6th. Mother and child are both doing well.

Seeding is about done and the indications are in favor of a good crop.

Nellie Humiston is working at Gladstone. Young ladies will be at a premium before the summer is over if there is not a change—so many are going away.

Mrs. W. Dean of Sandy visited relatives and friends in Logan last week.

Clem Clark is working on his place with the intention of building in the near future. Chas. Chase is still on the sick roll. It is feared he will not recover.

Lizzie Wilson is home for a few days. She returns to Oregon City next week.

Mrs. James Wilkinson of Oregon City visited Mrs. Geo. Clark one day last week.

McClure's Magazine

For 1897

SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.)

Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begins in November.)

Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished. (Begins in May.)

Chas. A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studies under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Picture of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction.

Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaborian.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS

Ian Maclaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McClure's MAGAZINE.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories.

Rudyard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McClure's all of the short stories he will write during the coming year.

Octave Thanet is preparing for the MAGAZINE a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself.

Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weyman Clark Russell will all have stories in McClure's for the coming year.

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McClure's MAGAZINE for 1897, the subscription price of which is only

One Dollar a Year

The new volume begins with November. Subscriptions should start with this number.
