The closing of Concord school on Fri-was attended by a large number of the friends and patrons of the school, and a most enjoyable time was had. A botanical picnic luncheon was served in the again repaired to the school room. One of the class of six graduates Henry Theissen, Jr., dropped his name from the list on account of his long and severe sickness, which made the one young gentleman of the class look rather lonesome.

The young ladies resembled a bouquet of Presentation of diplomas by S. S.

Supt. Robertson. Elder Benham addressed the graduating class, dwelling on the value of courtesy and loving kindness to all with whom you come in contact with and warning all young people against the contagious disease called right study of the scriptures. The following named gentlemen responded to a

A unanimous vote of thanks was voted to the teacher Mr. T. A. Fleck who has labored so faithfully to raise the standard of our school and to make the closing exercises of more than usual interest.
Mr. Fleck responded with his farewell address to the pupils and patrons of the school. The school then sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again." Mrs. Ida Derry presiding at the organ. As the song ended all formed into line and as they passed out each clasped hands with their teacher and friend thus end-affairs of the corporation will be man-three members selected for three years, one to be elected each year on the first Monday after the 25th of November.

the amount of $500 and derives its income from the aid society of the church and from the voluntary contributions of its members and others. Its business reader will be taken on the British throne, and the marvelous panoramas of the world's history for sixty years will

Memorial Day Services.

The arrangements for the proper observance of Memorial day are about completed. In accordance with the custom of Meade Post No. 1, G. A. R., ceding Decoration day by some one of the pastors of the city, the address this year will be delivered by Rev. A.

Hillebrand. The address on Monday, May 31st at the cemetery will be by Capt.
S. B. Ormsby, post department commander. Mr. Ormsby is a very fine speaker, possesses a good voice and his address will be both eloquent and interesting.

The procession will be under the direction of Captain Fielding Kelly, as chief marshal.
The school children will all be in attendance and will compose one of the most interesting features of the procession.
The city council has had the cemetery nicely fixed up, the underbrush and other obstructions removed and it now presents the appearance a cemetery should.

that all members of the post and corps

Vegetable Plants.
To have an early and successful garden here in Oregon it is necessary to have plants started in the hot house that they may be well grown by the time the weather permits their planting out of doors. Jos. Collins, of the Clackamas greenhouse has a fine selection of cabbage, tomato and other plants now growing which he will guarantee to be perfectly hardy and strong. He also has lettuce and other early vegetables now ready for table use.

"My landlord will pay for that paper," said a business man to Holman, the wall paper dealer. Holman said it was $— for the room. "Is that all? Well, I will pay it myself," replied the business man. You will be surprised when you find how little it costs to paper your room when you see Holman and see his up-to-date styles and prices.

Daniel Williams, at the head of Seventh street stairs, has added a line of pa-
