Logan to Celebrate the Fourth—Good Road Work Being Done—Pleasant Social Gatherings.

LOGAN, May 25.—Miss Carrie Swales entertained a number of her young friends in a very pleasant way Saturday evening. The time was spent in playing games, etc., until a late hour. Those present were Misses Mary and Rhoda Newkirk, Emma and Meahla Gill, May Wilson Lydia Shotel, Matilda Reed, Minnie Shumway, Maggie Rickhoff, Carrie and Mary Swales, Mrs. Josie Clark, and Messrs. James and Charles Hattan, Robert Gunther, Frank Hutchins, Charles Shumway, Fred Rickhoff, Emory Cromer, Madison Reed, Marsh Frakes and others.

Harding Grange held a rousing meeting on the 22d. There was a large attendance as usual. Steps were taken in regard to a Fourth of July celebration.

Our roads present quite a good appearance since our road boss, J. C. Sprague has had his crew of men working on them. Much of the work is volunteer as the appropriation for this precinct was very small and the only salvation was for the people to help themselves. Mr. Sprague does his work well and it is to be hoped we will not have to change road bosses very soon.

Frank Wilson went to Corvallis Monday, and expects to be absent several days.

Marsh Frakes, Madison Reed and L. H. Kirchem made a hasty trip to Viola Saturday.

Some of our young people attended a party at the home of Mrs. M. E. Hattan of Strington last week.

Mark Rowan visited friends at Molalla several days last week.

Rev. Bahr of Damascus will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

Prof. Robert Gunther, teacher of the Highland school, spent last Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnston. Professor Gunther is one of the rising young teachers of the county.

B. Fallert has returned home after an absence of several months.

Miss Matilda Reed will close a very successful term of school in district 28, on the first Friday in June.

Charles Chase is not improving in health. The Christian Endeavor meets every Sunday and Thursday evenings.

Miss Minnie Shumway is home on a visit. Miss Mary Newkirk is working in Oregon City.

Redland Notes.

REDLAND, May 23.—Rev. Herd, pastor of the Bethel Presbyterian church has been conducting the revival meetings alone so far. There have been no conversions yet. Meetings are going on nicely. A further account will be given next week.

A great many of the people attended the dedication of the church at Viola today.

There is some talk of celebrating the Fourth of July at this place. We don't see what there is to hinder as we have one of the finest groves in the state and a live energetic neighborhood of people, both old and young. All that is needed is for some one to start the ball rolling.

Memorial day will be observed by the schools. A suitable program will be rendered and some remarks by H. D. Johnson. All are invited. The exercises will take place at the cemetery, Monday, May 31.

Miss A. Fischer of Logan was visiting at Mrs. A. Sprague's one day last week.

Mrs. Henry and her sister, Miss Retta Behimer, of Portland were visiting their parents a greater part of the past week.

About 35 people attended a pleasant social hop at Whiteman's Saturday evening. All enjoyed themselves until about 12 o'clock when they departed wishing Frank much success on his fishing trip to the Columbia. There will be another dance at Whiteman's house given by A. Williams for those who find it.

$1000

What is the missing word in the following sentence:

Schilling's Best tea is not only pure but it is-----because it is fresh-roasted.

Get a package of Schilling's Best tea at your grocers; take out the Yellow Ticket; send it with your guess to Schilling's Best Tea, San Francisco, by August 31st.

One guess allowed for every yellow ticket. If your guess reaches us before July 1st, you are entitled to two guesses for each ticket.

If only one person finds the word he gets $1000. If several find it, the $1000 will be divided equally among them.

Every one sending a yellow ticket will get a set of cardboard creeping babies at the end of the contest. Those sending three or more in one envelope will receive a charming 1898 calendar, no advertisement on it.

In addition to the $1000 offered we will pay $100 each to the two persons who send in the largest number of Schilling's Best yellow tickets before June 15th.

Cut this out. You won't see it again for two weeks.

A Schilling & Company

San Francisco

Saturday evening, June 5. All are invited to come and behave.

Trout fishing has been the fad of late. Those who stand at the head are A. B. and F. E. Linn who caught 108 in one day, D. H. Mosher who caught 45 one afternoon and 21 the next; I. Goodfellow, A. Howell and E. Linn who caught 86 one day. There are a few left yet to think.

D. H. Mosher has gone to shearing sheep. That's a good job Harry.

An effort is being made to get up a good program for the Children's day exercises to be held at the Redland church June 13. Come, one and all.

A. Funk is building a new granary which adds very much to the appearance of his already fine farm.

Mr. Richardson lost a fine horse last week. The best always goes first.

The berry crop is looking fine so far.

C. Walensline spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Stone.

Johnnie Bargfeld left yesterday for Idaho and his brother Fred expects to go soon. May happiness and prosperity go with you, boys.

Those who attended the quarterly conference at Viola yesterday were H. D. Johnson, Wm. Stone, Mr. Behmer and B. E. Courtright.

Clarks News.

CLARK, May 24.—Elmer Lee had a new populist visitor last week and the way he steps around now would convince anybody that he is proud of it. He says, however, that the newcomer will be able to vote only at school meetings. Mother and child are doing well.

The spelling school at Harmony on Friday evening was a grand success. A large crowd was in attendance and Highland was well represented. On the final contest the school was spelled down by Mary and Zona Mayfield of Highland.

Mrs. Mary Manning and her son Frank were visiting in Highland Saturday and Sunday last.

Marysville district, No. 101, will have another school election soon. F. M. Manning was elected director at the annual meeting in March. Being the only candidate nominated he was elected by acclamation. W. J. Moldenhauer contested the election on the ground that it was illegal because not voting by written ballot, and County Superintendent Starkweather decided in his favor. Manning appealed to the state superintendent who affirmed the decision. While the appeal was pending a special election was called and Moldenhauer was elected. Manning gave notice that the election would be illegal, but was over-ruled by the chairman. Manning then instituted a contest and Superintendent Starkweather decided that the election was illegal and the office vacant.

If reports and appearances amount to anything our teacher in district 32 will have an assistant soon.

John Denison has been fixing the Meadowbrook hill and has done a good job. If the county court would furnish the means we would soon have good roads in this section but the farmers are getting tired of paying the road tax in money and then working our roads by subscription.

Geo. W. Lee is putting his hops in fine shape and has a prospect of a large crop. His pickers are all engaged and a good hop dryer could get a job by seeing Mr. Lee.

Stone News.

STONE, May 24.—W. E. Mumpower spent a few days at home last week. He reports work progressing rapidly at the Victor stone quarry in Clitwood.

Thos. Watts has recently returned from California.

Ed Dart and wife, and Mrs. F. Hattan of Molalla were visiting at Mark Hattan's last week.

Mrs. John Hattan was most agreeably surprised a few evenings ago when, on returning home from a friend's house, she found her parlors filled with the smiling faces of a number of her young friends. The evening was very pleasantly spent. Among those present were Mesdames Marie Hattan, Eliza Watts, Caroline Sprague, Clara Dart, Vic Hattan, Misses Matilda Reed, Carrie Swales, Alice Williams, Annie and Mattie Mumpower, Messrs. Marsh Frakes, Eli Swales, Ed. Dart, James, Charles and Owen Hattan, Royal and John Sprague, George and Fred Hess, Peter, Frank and Monnon, Homer, Rounds.

Mrs. Wm. Watts and daughters, Mrs. Sprague and James and Owen Hattan are paying a visit to their uncle, G. Willis, at Hillsboro.

The schools in the Holcomb and Strickler districts will have a joint picnic Saturday, June 5, at the picnic grounds near Hutton's ford on Clear creek. Every one is cordially invited, a special invitation being extended to the patrons and friends of the schools. Bring your baskets and come prepared for a good time. Ice cream will be served on the grounds. A musical and literary program is being prepared.

Sandy News.
SANDY, May 23.—Things were quite lively here in Sandy Sunday, as about 40 members of the Zig Zag bicycle club, of Portland, were out on their wheels. The roads are in splendid condition now which makes it really a pleasure to ride out to Sandy.

Sandy people are getting the bicycle fever with the consequence are that R. Jonsrud, Ed Strobridge and August Honekey will get them a wheel.

J. H. Weaver our progressive saw miller has a force of men running his mill now as he has several contracts for furnishing lumber.

Jerome Cockeress will immediately begin the erection of a two story frame residence.

M. Kesegar is making preparations to build a nice residence.

Ed Kopper, our popular mechanic, has contracted to build a barn for James Phalen.

P. R. Meinig, the road boss has been quite busy improving our public highways.

S. D. Coleman is quite busy with a force of men opening up the Barlow toll road.

The M. E. Sunday School will celebrate Children's day with appropriate exercises.

Sandy Ridge school had a pleasant picnic at its close, under the management of Miss Alva Smith, teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strobridge were visiting relatives and friends here.

James Rue of Willamette was renewing acquaintance on Sandy the past week.

F. Elling of Portland was out on a fishing trip and looking after his interests here. H. L. Ward of Oregon City was in Sandy the past week.

Alex Lamar made a trip to Portland and brought back a bicycle.

Mullino News.
MULLINO, May 24.—The farmers in this vicinity have nearly all finished putting in their grain.

The weather has been fine but looks like rain again.

Mrs. Critzer's little daughter Edna, who has been quite sick, is getting better now. School is progressing nicely.

A. Amen who has been staying at Woodburn returned home Saturday and is running the engine for Carlisle Bros.' shingle mill.

Frank Albright and wife have moved to their new residence in East Mullino.

The sawmill of the Mullino Lumber Co. is running steadily and turning out all kinds of lumber.

Will Mulvey has been engaged by Carlisle Bros. as shingle packer in the mill.

The Mullino young people who took a boat ride Saturday evening won't be in a hurry taking another one—I don't think.

Mr. Evans has his new house almost completed.

Mink Notes.
MINK, May 21.—The Luthern association will build a parsonage at this place.

Robert Moehnke was injured quite severely last week while working in Martin's sawmill by falling from a log 14 feet high and striking another log with his head and shoulder. He was at first thought to be dead, but is now on the way to recovery.

Rev. A. Engelbart preached his first sermon at this place Sunday afternoon in the Evangelical church. He will preach every first and third Sunday in the month from now on. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Steines were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gosmiller Sunday.

G. A. Schuble is improving the looks of his place by constructing a new picket fence.

F. W. Cramer attended the teachers' examination held at Oregon City last week.

Highland Notes.
HIGHLAND, May 21.—The outlook for a fall crop is excellent. Grain looks fine and if weather continues favorable, a large yield will be the result.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor, of Oregon City, were visiting friends and relatives during the present week.

Mrs. S. A. Frost, of Elyville, is visiting Grandpa Welsh, who is yet confined to his room.

Mr. Rutherford, who recently met with a serious accident, resulting in a broken leg, and other painful injuries, is slowly recovering.

Mr. Robert Gunther has purchased a new wheel and is seen quite often spinning along the road.

Sunday school is progressing nicely under the efficient management of Chas. Rutherford.

Damascus Notes.
DAMASCUS, May 25.—Miss Eugenia Morton has returned home to remain during the summer.

Miss Anna Hiclnbothem was the guest of Mrs. Wolthagen Saturday and Sunday.

It is rumored that a string band is to be organized soon.

Mrs. Barber of Portland is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Griffin, who is quite sick.

Other visitors from Portland last week were Mr. and Mrs. Bateman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bohna, Ella Fredolph and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilham.

Decoration day will be observed here. The Union school will join the Damascus school with the exercises.

The closing exercises of the Damascus school were held in the Grange hall, Saturday, May 22. The following program was rendered: Music, violins and organ; recitation "Kate Matoney"; Pearl Lovelace;

Motion Song, by children; Exercise, "The Train," by boys; quartette, "The Song that is Sung by the Stream;" dialogue, "The House that Jack Built;" Carrie Fredolph and Willie Pflister; recitation, Mrs. Elliott; duet, "Under the Old Umbrella, Nellie Fredolph and Carl Wolfhagen; exercise, "June and the Flower Fairies;" by five little girls; solo and chorus, "Why Did They Dig Ma's Grave So Deep;" dialogue, Elmer Hillberry and Robert Schmidt; military drill by boys; vocal solo, Mabel McMurry; recitation, Pearl Griffin; calisthenic drill, by girls; music, Medley Quartette; dialogue, Mrs. Elliott and Fred Buchman; song, "Four Little Curly Headed Coons," by four boys; recitation, Albert Welch; broom drill by young ladies; vocal duet, "Wandering in the May Time," Pearl Griffin and E. Fredolph; dialogue, "A Sudden Recovery;" male quartette, "Twinkling Stars Upon the Lake;" good night drill by eight children; music, violins and organ. After the program was rendered lunch was served consisting of lemonade, cake and pickles. The proceeds of the lunch will be used to buy pictures for the school room.

McClure's Magazine

For 1897

SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.)

Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begins in November.)

Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished. (Begins in May.)

Chas. A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studies under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Picture of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction.

Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaboriau.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS

Ian MacLaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McClure's Magazine.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories.

Rudyard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McClure's all of the short stories he will write during the coming year.

Octave Thanet is preparing for the MAGAZINE a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself.

Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weyman Clark Russell will all have stories in McClure's for the coming year.

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McClure's Magazine for 1897, the subscription price of which is only
