FRIDAY, MAY 28, 1897.

A DIRTY OUTLET.—A gang of about 60 Mexican gypsies are in Southern Oregon traveling this way and the newspapers of that section state that they are guilty of all manner of petty depredations. The females in the band go sneaking around everywhere offering to tell fortunes and picking up all the loose articles possible. This outfit, taken in connection with the small army of tramps now coming this way, certainly calls for vigorous measures and heroic treatment on the part of the city authorities. The genius tramp is composed of three classes of individuals: Men who are idle from necessity, others—and they constitute a large majority—who are idle from choice, would not work if they could, and still others who are roving criminals. The city authorities should provide a chain gang or a rock pile and give these nomads an opportunity to work off that habitually "tired feeling." Every loafer who saunters in among us expecting to live off of us without giving some adequate return for the privilege, should be compelled to labor upon the county roads or streets of the city. Every city ought to have a rock pile and the city jail should be merely the sleeping quarters of the men who are forced to labor vigorously during the day or "move on." These parasites are fed now in many places, even in Oregon City, because people are afraid to refuse them lest they burn them out or commit some other outrage upon them and food is given them as the cheapest way to be rid of them.

SCHOOL CLOSED.—Prof. H. S. Gibson closed a very successful eight months school at Oswego last Friday. The attendance has been large, the average enrollment for the year being about 200. In place of the usual closing exercises the pupils were given a picnic at Camp Morcy, where a long, pleasant day was put in playing games of various kinds which were heartily enjoyed by all. The picnic was a "basket" affair and the refreshments were lavish and varied. Prof. Gibson was ably assisted by Misses Mary Bickner, Annette Pauling and Nellie Younger, all teachers in the school, who exhausted their ingenuity in entertaining the children, succeeding admirably in all they undertook. The weather was perfect and nothing was wanting to make the occasion a veritable season of delight to those who participated. Prof. Gibson is one of the leading educators of the state and his assistants, Misses Bickner, Pauling and Younger among the most efficient and successful of our county teachers, and the people of Oswego are very hearty in their endorsement of the work of the past year.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The regular monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association at Canby next Saturday, May 20, promises to be one of the most interesting and profitable sessions of the year. An excellent program has been prepared for the occasion and no pains will be spared by the people of Canby to make the event one long to be remembered by all who attend. The meeting will be held in the tabernacle on the camp grounds near the town. There will also be a school picnic, in which many schools will take part, held in connection with the teachers' meeting. In the evening the drama entitled "Heroic Dutchman of '75" will be given, commencing at 8 o'clock. All schools in the county are invited to take part in the picnic and remain for the drama. The overland train, as well as Roseburg local, stops at Canby, making it very accessible from all parts of the county.

AN OLD-FASHIONED CAMP MEETING.—The annual camp meeting under the auspices of the Oregon State Camp Meeting Association, will be held on the Canby camp ground, beginning June 18, 1897, and continuing until June 28, 1897. The grounds are in order, and arrangements have been made for a successful meeting, under the direction of the three presiding elders of the Oregon conference, Revs. John Parsons, D. D., T. B. Ford, D. D., and G. W. Gue, D. D. This is not intended to be a meeting merely for intellectual improvement or pleasurable recreation, but an old-fashioned Methodist camp-meeting, where gospel services are preached and the people receive a genuine spiritual uplift. In order to meet the expenses there will be an admission fee charged at the gate, which plan was found to be most satisfactory a year ago. The prices will be $1 for a family season ticket; 50 cents for one season ticket and 10 cents single admission. A well-kept boarding hall where meals can be obtained at reasonable rates will be maintained. The Southern Pacific will sell tickets from all parts at one and one-third fare for round trip, good from June 14 to July. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody. Bring your bibles and the Methodist hymnal, your children and your neighbors.

GOBBED BY A BULL.—Last Saturday evening R. S. McLaughlin, a farmer living near Milwaukie, led his Jersey bull out to water and had just taken him back into the barn and was tying him up when the animal attacked him tossing him into the manger. His cries for help brought his son Earl, who prodded the bull so vigorously with a pitch fork that he stopped his attack on his father and was tied up. In tossing Mr. McLaughlin into the manger the horn of the animal caught him in the calf of the leg, tearing the flesh to the bone nearly to the knee laying bare the muscles and arteries. Dr. Sellwood, of Sellwood, was summoned, dressed the wound and Mr. McLaughlin is getting along nicely. It was a very close call, however, for the bull was young and his horns sharp and but for the fact that Mr. McLaughlin was dumped into the manger he might have been gored to death before help reached him.

PIONEER REUNION.—The twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer Association will be held in the Exposition building at Portland on Wednesday, June 16, 1897. The procession will form at the Hotel Portland at 1 p. m. under the direction of John W. Minto, grand marshal. The annual address will be delivered by Hon. John R. McBride, of Spokane, Washington, a pioneer of 1846, and the occasional address by Hon. John Burnett, of Corvallis, a pioneer of 1858. At the close of the literary exercises a banquet will be served by the pioneer ladies of Portland. The evening will be devoted to informal musical and literary exercises and a short address on the "Pioneer Women of Clatsop County," followed by reminiscences of pioneer days. Reduced rates can be obtained over all transportation lines.

A RELIGIOUS FRAUD.—Secretary Walpole, of the city board of charities, of Portland, warns the public against Albert J. Green, age about 25; height 5 feet 3 inches; weight about 120. He has curly black hair, eyes dark, small and sunken. His eyebrows meet over the nose. He is working the pastors of the Willamette valley, and has been at Eugene, Junction City and Albany. He has the appearance of an Italian and claims to be a converted Jew, except when appealing to the Jews. He is a Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian, etc., according to the belief of the person he approaches for aid. He gets the names of the ministers before he begins operations and works systematically. This pious fraud may visit this city and our pastors will be prepared to accord him a gracious reception.

RIVER RIFLES.—River traffic remains good on the upper river and notwithstanding the fact that the water is getting low the Altona continues to make regular trips on schedule time. She makes the run from Independence to Portland every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Portland to Independence on alternate days. The Ramona continues to ply between this city and Portland, her passenger and freight business showing a steady growth highly satisfactory to her owners. Now that the river is up so high with back water from the Columbia, it resembles a placid lake and the steamer makes better time than the electric cars. These warm days a trip by boat to Portland is exceedingly pleasant and invigorating. Only 25 cents for the round trip.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—R. O. Thomas, of Beaver Creek, marketed the first load of hay for this year Tuesday. It was rye hay and the stocks were from six to seven feet in length. The hay crop promises to be good this year. Timothy and clover look well and give every assurance of a large yield while the prospects for a good price were never better. Taken altogether the future looks very bright for the farmers.

VISITORS COMP.—The California Press association is due in Portland, Monday, June 7. It is not yet definitely decided whether they will get off here or go on to Portland and return later to this city. Secretary Tozier, of State Press association desires the cooperation of Oregon City business men in entertaining the visitors and showing them the beauties and advantages of the city and surrounding country, and certainly no class of people will be more profitable to our people than a lot of newspaper men and no city in the land possesses more advantages or grand and picturesque scenery than does Oregon City.

NO GRADUATING EXERCISES.—Out of respect to the memory of Mrs. Martin there will be no graduating exercises at the West Side school. This is one of our new schools and the only graduate this year was Louise Martin, whose mother died last Monday and the program that had been arranged for the occasion has been dispensed with.
