Miss Bersa Redlick gave a pleasant party Saturday evening at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Westervelt in this city, in honor of her guest, Miss Millan, of Portland.

Don't pay the advertised prices for Oxien Electric Bitters, Chamberlain's Cough Cure and Williams Pink Pills; but buy them at a discount at Huntley's cut rate drug store.

A bicycle is worth no more than it will sell for. Don't think the $75 wheel offered at $45 is worth more than $45. If it were worth more it would bring it. Beware of the bicycle that has no fixed price.

The services in the Baptist church on Sunday evening will be of a Memorial character. The pastor will speak on the "Principles for Which Our Fathers Died." All welcomed; old soldiers specially invited.

Not only acute lung troubles, which may prove fatal in a few days, but old chronic coughs and throat troubles may receive immediate relief and be permanently cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Geo. A. Harding.

The Ramon's Sunday passenger traffic has increased to such magnitude that it has been found necessary to make four round trips on Sunday, leaving this city at 8:30 a. m., 12:30, 3:30 and 6:30 p. m. and leaving Portland at 10 a. m., 2, 5, and 7:45 p. m. Commencing next Sunday.

Why is the new photograph gallery crowded with people? Because they are getting those platinum or carbon tissue photographs guaranteed not to fade for 75 cents small size, and cabinet for $1.50 per dozen. Don't forget the place, Price's old stand, Main street. E. N. Wells, photographer.

"My landlord will pay for that paper," said a business man to Holman, the wall paper dealer. Holman said it was $— for the room. "Is that all? Well, I will pay it myself," replied the business man. You will be surprised when you find how little it costs to paper your room when you see Holman and see his up-to-date styles and prices.

Quite a number of the members of McLaughlin Chautauqua circle, together with the teachers and a number of the pupils of the Parkplace school attended an entertainment given at the Taylor street church in Portland, Wednesday evening, by the Chautauquans of that city. A pleasant trip and enjoyable program was reported by the Oregon City visitors.

Apropos of the sixtieth anniversary of the reign of Queen Victoria, the June number of McClure's Magazine will contain a series of life portraits of the Queen, the earliest showing her, a child on her mother's lap, at the age of two years; the next at four, the next at five and so on, almost year by year, down to the present day. The reproduction will be, in most instances, directly from the originals, and by the finest process. No such series has ever been published before.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

PERSONAL NOTES.

Attorney A. S. Dresser made a professional visit to Canby Monday.

Miss Elvie Apperson, of McMinnville, is visiting Miss Winnie Williams.

Mrs. George Ely and Mrs. Knotts, of Ely, are reported quite ill with throat trouble.

M. L. Manning, a farmer and fruit raiser of Clackamas, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. L. A. Packard, of Eugene, was in Oregon City Tuesday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye.

Dr. J. W. Welsh returned Monday afternoon from an over Sunday visit at his old home in Silverton.

Mrs. C. D. Davidson, of Mayger, Or, visited her niece, Miss Millie Grant in this city during the first of the week.

Miss Dorothy Chase returned from Stanford University on Tuesday and will remain during the summer vacation.

Mrs. Albert Robinson, of St. Helens, arrived in the city Monday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tucker.

Mrs. J. J. Mulvey, of Tacoma, is in the city making an extended visit with her sisters, Mrs. Wallace Cole and Mrs. Charles Athey.

Mrs. Dolridge D. Shindler and child, of San Francisco, are expected to arrive in this city next Sunday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. W. Norris.

Hon. Ole P. Hoff, of Irving, Linn county, was in Oregon City Sunday, the guest of Hon. George C. Brownell. Mr. Hoff is a prominent applicant for minister at Copenhagen, Denmark.

S. M. Wiley, the freight clerk at the Southern Pacific depot in this city, has been spending the last two weeks at Salem and Fred Wentworth of that city is discharging his duties during his absence.

J. W. Noble left Wednesday evening for Gray's Lake, Lake county, Illinois, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of his father, who is in his 80th year. Mr. Noble will perhaps be absent for sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard went to St. Helens last Sunday to visit Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore. George returned Monday and resumed his place in the Red Front store, but his wife will remain and visit for a couple of weeks.

Rev. T. L. Jones has been spending the week at Stayton with his brother and sister and attending the Methodist ministerial conference which held a session in that city during the week. Rev. Jones is rapidly regaining his wonted strength and vigor.

K. H. Gabbert, a former resident of this city, but for the past year of Southern Oregon where he has made a fortune, more or less, in gold mining, has been in Oregon City during the week. He left Thursday evening for California, where he will remain for some time.

Bishop Cranston, of Portland, will preach in the Methodist church in this city next Sunday morning. The bishop is one of the most eloquent pulpiter orators on the coast and will doubtless be greeted with a large audience. The choir is preparing some special music for the occasion.

Y. Honda, a young Japanese student, was in the city Tuesday and visited the Eastham school. Mr. Honda has finished the public school course in his native country and is spending his vacation on the Coast to acquire a better knowledge of the English language, preparatory to entering the university at Tokio.

Fred Fiske and D. B. Kuykendall, students at the state university at Eugene, spent last Sunday in this city the guests of Judge and Mrs. Wm. Galloway. They were on their way home from Portland, where they had taken part in the interstate collegiate oratorical contest. Mr. Fiske won the state contest at Newberg last spring and also the inter-state contest at Portland last week.

Sheriff Grace, Assessor Stott, E. Elliott, P. A. Fairclough and John Green went fishing in the Clackamas a few miles above Highland last Saturday. They reported on their return that they caught 583 fine trout, but that the weather was warm and they forgot to take along any salt and the fish spoiled before they could get them home. It has transpired since, however, that the sheriff caught 0, the assessor 1, Mr. Elliott 2, Mr. Fairclough 6, and Mr. Green 5, which rightly combined make 583. Ever since Jonah swallowed the whale it has not been considered lying to tell fish stories.

Mr. John Brooks, of Salem, is in the city visiting his son, on Adams street.

W. H. Conyers, of Clatskanie was in Oregon City Saturday visiting with his daughters in this city.

Mrs. Napoleon Davis and Miss May Cole, of Portland, were in the city Thursday visiting Mrs. W. W. Brooks.

J. B. Robinson, of Sacramento, Cal., spent a few days in this city visiting with his family, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Cochrane.

The many friends of Mrs. F. R. Charman, will be sorry to learn that she is still lying very low at her home on Washington street.

Councilman W. H. Meade and J. L. DeBevoise, general passenger agent for the Albert Lea route, of Portland, were in the city Monday enjoying a fish on the island with Sidney Smyth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Baker, of Portland, were in Oregon City Tuesday, the guests of Mrs. Dolan. While here they visited the cemetery to have the family lot placed in proper condition for Decoration day. Mrs. Baker's father, James Smith, one of the old and respected pioneers of this county is buried there.

John S. Sleeper left Thursday for his old home in Kalamazoo, Michigan. He went by boat to The Dalles, from where he expects to make the trip overland on his bicycle, following the line of the Union Pacific railroad. He took with him a cooking outfit and a pair of blankets and is prepared to make a night of it anywhere. There is one particular feminine attraction in far-away Michigan that Johnny just had to go and look after.

Joseph C. Gibson, a former resident of this city but now of Portland, was in Oregon City Thursday. Mr. Gibson has been appointed general agent for Oregon for the Yucca Root Soap company, of San Francisco and is in this city to introduce his company's soap which has already attained a high degree of popularity. Mr. Gibson is a rustling young man and should succeed in his venture.

Mrs. M. E. Hayward was in Oregon City Thursday on her way home in Carus from an extended visit to Oberlin, Ohio, where she was called to be with her father and mother who were both quite sick but who were in fairly good health when she left for home. Mrs. Hayward says Oregon is even better than her old Ohio home and that she is fully contented to make Webfoot land her permanent home. She stated that crops as far west as Missouri looked fine but that in Kansas they appeared to be badly dried up.

W. P. Hawley, superintendent of the Crown Paper company returned last Thursday from an extended trip through the East where he had been to examine the latest improvements in the construction of paper mills and to inspect the latest machinery for paper-making. His company is now receiving bids for the construction of another mill building and while East Mr. Hawley purchased the necessary machinery for this addition to their plant. Mr. Hawley states that the business outlook in the East is good and that he has little fear but what times will soon be better here.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a health, vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Charman & Co's drug store.

Dr. Schubert Married.

Dr. Emil Schubert, formerly of this city, but now located at Mount Angel, Oregon, was married on Thursday last, to Miss Amelia Haedel, of Monroe, the ceremony taking place in Eugene. Dr. Schubert and his bride were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Meyer on Fifth and Washington streets for a short time during the week, returning Friday to Mount Angel where he has built up a profitable practice and they will make that place their home. Mrs. Augusta Schubert, mother of Dr. Schubert, and her sister, Mrs. Meyer, of this city, were present at the ceremony.

Died.

MARTIN.—On Monday afternoon, May 24, 1897, at her home on the West Side, Mrs. Rosalia Fallensbee Martin, aged 53 years and 9 months.

Mrs. Martin leaves a husband and two children, a son and a daughter, to mourn the loss of a loving wife and an affectionate mother.

The funeral was held from the Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Joseph DeForest and a large number of sympathizing friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Canemah cemetery.

CHARLES.—On the 24th inst., the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Charles.

Special prices for Gladstone property entire July 1st.

Pistols and Pestles. Ayer's Cathartic Pills. "Your pills are the best in the world. I used to be annoyed with constipation until I began using them. Now I have no trouble of that kind any more and I attribute my recovery to the use of your valuable medicine. In the springtime of the year I always take your..."
