Atkins & Co., Indianapolis, Ind., "and my wife would as soon think of being without flour as a bottle of this Remedy in the summer season. We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure—not simply stop pain, but cure absolutely. It is all right, and anyone who tries it will find it so." For sale by G. A. Harding.

GOES TO A NEW FIELD. Dr. John W. Cowan, who recently resigned the pastorate of the Congregational church in this city after a three years' faithful service, preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening and will leave for Syracuse, N. Y., next week. Dr. Cowan and his estimable wife have made many warm friends during their stay here and he is held in the highest esteem by his ministerial brethren of the other churches for his kindly Christian work and conversation and for the high character of his work as a minister of the gospel.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Ministerial Association at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon:

WHEREAS, Rev. J. W. Cowan, D. D., for three years pastor of the First Congregational church of this city, has resigned his pastorate and is about to leave our city, therefore be it

Resolved, that as a Ministerial Association, we hereby express our appreciation of his faithful labors as a fellow-pastor and a Christian gentleman having always found him ready and willing to cooperate in every work for the good of the church and for the city. We desire to testify to the faithfulness and ability which he has labored among us, and deeply regret that he finds it necessary to lay down his work and leave our city.

Signed on behalf of the association, by LEVI JOHNSON, Secretary.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York

Her husband, Mr. Russell C. Higginson is one of the leading druggists of that city.

Died.

BACON.—In this city on Thursday, May 27, 1897, Charles Earnest Bacon, of paralysis aged 3 years, 2 months and 20 days.

Charlie had been sick for five or six weeks with infantile paralysis of the lower limbs but was not considered dangerous until a few hours before his death, when the disease went to his brain. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon have been sorely afflicted, and are assured of the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement. It has only been five weeks since they were called upon to follow to its last resting place the remains of a dear little daughter, and their sorrow seems even greater than they can bear.

The funeral was held from the family residence on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. W. Cowan. The interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

ATHEY.—On Monday, May 31, 1897, of heart trouble, James Athey, aged 81 years.

Mr. Athey had been enjoying good health and was apparently as well as usual on the day of his death, and suddenly expired without a struggle while sitting in a chair. He was one of the few remaining pioneers of 1843. His wife preceded him last February to that bourne whence we all are tending. Three daughters, Mrs. B. H. Holland, of Salem, Mrs. Frank Campbell and Mrs. Jno. Baxter, of this city, and three sons, Morrison and John, of Boise, Idaho, and Charles Athey, of this city, survive.

The funeral was held from the family residence Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Col. C. A. Reed, of Portland. The interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Gladstone property will be in demand this coming spring and summer.
