Chas. Crittenden, a resident and a school teacher of Molalla, has bought through H. A. Pettinger's real estate agency a 10-acre tract belonging to Wm. Westburg, a mile east of Parkplace. Mr. Crittenden last week moved with his family into his new home while Mr. Westburg moved with his family to Linton, near Portland, where he will again resume his former vocation of fireman on a locomotive on the N. P. line.

Wedding stationery, the latest styles and finest assortment ever brought to Oregon City at the ENTERPRISE office.

The man who eats because he is hungry is, thus far, on a level with the brutes. The man who stops eating the moment his hunger is appeased is the wise man. Nature needs no more food than she calls for. Continued excess brings about indigestion or dyspepsia, with loss of flesh, strength, sleep ambition and mental power, and an accumulation of aches, pains and many dangerous local maladies.

The stomach now can do nothing alone. We must appeal to some artificially digested food which can also digest other foods. That is to say, we must use the Shaker Digestive Cordial. The effect is prompt and cheering. The chronic pain and distress ceases. Appetite presently revives. Flesh and vigor gradually comes back, and the sufferer recovers. But he must be careful in future. A trial bottle for 10 cents.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

It should be made a matter of public knowledge that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the household favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds. Geo. A. Harding.

No people suffer so much from physical disabilities as those whose business requires little or no muscular exertion. The lack of exercise causes the liver to become sluggish and the result is constant Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness and Sick Headache. To prevent this take Simmons Liver Regulator; it keeps the liver active and makes one's condition as comfortable as those who have much exercise.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the state was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

The North American Review for June presents in its opening pages a most interesting article from the pen of the Hon. T. B. Reed, speaker of the house of representatives, entitled "How the House Does Business." H. Seton Karr, M. P., contributes an able paper on "England's Food Supply in Time of War," while "Popular Errors in Living" are helpfully treated by Dr. Charles W. Purdy. "Literary Treasure-Trove in the Nile," by Prof. Rodolfo Lanciani, furnishes an account of the recent discovery in Egypt of the lost poems of a famous Greek writer, and the second paper in the series of articles on the "Progress of the United States," by Michael G. Mulhall, F. S. S., has for its topic "The Middle States." "Lewis Nixon, who designed the battleship "Indiana," "Massachusetts, and Oregon," writes upon "The Military Value of the Ship-Yard," and John W. Russell sets very strongly forth the subject of "Trade Relation with Canada." An eloquent discussion of "The Trust and the Workingman" is contributed by the Hon. Lloyd Bryce. The approaching jubilee of Queen Victoria lends additional charm to a paper on "The Record Reign," by Her Majesty's son-in-law, the Right Hon. the Marquis of Lorne, while apropos of the jubilee season, special interest attaches also to a brilliant contribution by H. W. Lucy on "The Queen's Parliaments," the first part of which appears in this number. Other topics graphically dealt with are: "The Disintegration of Political Party," by Prof. Goldwin Smith; "The Senate and the Tariff Bill," by Henry Litchfield West, and "Auther Word on Prison Labor," by George Blair.

The Zion Evangelical Lutheran church will have their handsome new building on the corner of Jefferson and Eight streets completed next week and Sunday, June 20 they will dedicate it with proper services. The morning service will be at 10 a. m. and the afternoon service at 2 p. m. There will be services in both English and German at the two services. Assisting Rev. Sack, the pastor in charge, there will be present Rev. Zweig of Portland and Rev. Kohmer of Macksburg and Rev. Kern, of Portland. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Died.

CHARMAN—In this city on Friday morning, June 4, 1897, Minnie G., wife of Fred R. Charman.

After a long and patient struggle, bravely and heroically borne, mortal endurance reached its limit, and the weary spirit found the rest that cometh as a boon after fruitless suffering. When the race was run and the end drew nigh, death had no terrors for her, and to yield up the burden of life brought no regret save the sorrow and pain of parting from those she loved. All that loving sympathy and kindly and skillful ministrations could prompt and do in her behalf, was done by her relatives and friends but to no avail. In the last days, medical skill and tender care was directed solely to alleviation of her sufferings, and after a perceptibly rapid decline, the end came early Friday morning, peacefully as the lapse into quiet slumber.

Minnie G. Cochrane was the eldest daughter of Fannie L. and the late Hiram Cochrane. She was a native of Vancouver, Washington, but came to this city with her parents when she was a mere child and has lived here ever since. She was united in marriage with Fred R. Charman seventeen years ago and leaves two sons, one 15 and the other 11 years old as the fruit of that union. Mrs. Charman was a prominent member of the Rebekah lodge and the members of that fraternity attended the funeral in a body. She was also a communicant and earnest worker in the Episcopal church. She was possessed of an unusually sunny disposition and seemed to get out of life all there was in it. She was constantly employed in some good work, and of her it can be truly said that "none knew her but to love her, none named her but to praise."

The funeral was conducted from the Episcopal church Sunday afternoon by Rev. J. W. Powell, of Portland, only a small portion of those who had gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the memory of the departed being able to gain an entrance into the building. The floral tributes were very numerous and beautiful. After the services at the church one of the largest processions ever witnessed in the city formed and moved slowly and sadly to the Odd Fellows cemetery, where loving hands laid gently to rest all that was mortal of the loving wife, the fond mother, the kindly affectionate sister and the true friend; while sweet flowers, fit emblem of the purity and gentleness of her whose grave they decorate, were placed upon the little mound beneath which her body peacefully awaits the time when "this mortal shall have put on immortality and death shall be swallowed up in victory."

Mrs. Charman's last request was made on Thursday, the day before she died, and is but another evidence of her self abnegation. She told her sister, Mrs. Nettie Robinson, that she wanted her to get five baskets, fill them with her choicest flowers, which she seems to have had saved for that purpose, tie them with ribbons of the class colors and present them in her name to Marjorie Caulfield, Annie Dungey, Lulu Hankins, Charlie Babcock and Thompson Meldrum, members of the graduating class of Barclay school and particular friends of the deceased.

The pall bearers were W. E. Pratt, J. G. Pillsbury, Henry Meldrum, J. T. Apperson, S. R. Green and Geo. A. Harding.

LA BELLE—On Sunday evening, June 6, 1897, at his home three miles east of Needy, Frank LaBelle, aged 80 years. Deceased was stricken with paralysis about a week ago which resulted in heart failure Sunday. He had been a resident of this county for 22 years and was an honest, industrious citizen, greatly respected in the neighborhood where he lived. He was laid to rest in the graveyard on the old Clingsley homestead Tuesday at 10 a. m., funeral services being conducted in the cemetery by Rev. J. K. Elmer, pastor of the Methodist church at Molalla. His wife survives.

ALLEN—At his home in Oregon City, on Tuesday, June 8, 1897, Thomas Allen, aged 69 years, 7 months and 6 days.

Deceased was born in Cooper county, Missouri, November 2, 1827; crossed the plains in 1846 and settled in California, coming to Oregon in 1870. He had been a resident of this county for eight years and during the last five years has lived in Oregon City. He has been a great sufferer for a number of years. Two years ago it was found necessary to amputate his left leg to stay the ravages of gangrene and later the right leg was attacked, resulting in his death. Two children survive, Mrs. E. C. Hamilton and Harry Allen, both of this city; he also has two brothers in California.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. M. L. Rugg. The interment was in the Masonic cemetery, the services at the grave being conducted by Multnomah Lodge No. 1, A. F. and A. M., of which the deceased was a member. His wife died some two years ago and was buried at Clackamas. Her remains will be removed and buried by the side of her husband in the Masonic cemetery.

FOLSOM—At his residence near Sprague, Washington, on May 24, John Edward Folsom, aged 73 years, and five days.

Deceased had been in failing health for a number of years and his death was not unexpected. A widow and seven sons survive. Mr. Folsom was well-known in this county, having been a resident of Oregon City some 20 years ago and later moved to Carrinville where he resided a number of years. He was buried in the Sprague cemetery.

After picturing numerous other State Federations, the Midland Monthly, (Des Moines) in the June number tells the story of Iowa's Federation, with twenty-four portraits of prominent club women—and a rare body of women they are.

"Quantrell, the Guerrilla Chief," in this number is a thrilling tale of the Missouri and Kansas border, and of the tragic "Walker Raid" in which several Quaker youths from Iowa were betrayed by Quantrell. "June days at Cape May," by George Merriam Hyde, is a breezy picture of a famous resort, the author evidently uninfluenced by hotel patronage. Col. Emerson happily marries off Lieut. Grant and Julia Dent, after their long courtship. Mary Avis Scott pictures old Corpus Christi on the Mexican border. "Birds of the Midland Region," by David L. Savage, the ornithologist, begins in this number. The authors of "Sweet Bye and Bye" are described by a Wisconsin lady. Captain Romeyn, now in the midst of a dramatic court martial at Ft. Mepherston, tells of the romantic wooing of Lieutenant Burton. A strong plea for good roads by H. W. Perry of Chicago. A severely suggestive criticism of woman's uncertain influence on architecture, by F. W. Fitzpatrick, also of Chicago. Stories that interest, poetry that pleases, editorials that aim to tell the truth, and various other features strongly commend the June Midland to the public.

Lost. Somewhere between cemetery and Green Point on May 30, a silk umbrella with name "E. Graham" engraved on handle. Finder will please return to this office and receive reward.

IN SPECIAL SESSION.

East Side Railway Matter Deferred One Week.

The city council held a special session Monday evening at which all members were present except L. C. Caples.

The election of water commissioner to serve for three years from July 1st was the first business taken up. Mayor Caulfield stated that T. P. Randall had requested the withdrawal of his name. Mr. Randall received one vote and Mr. T. L. Charman six and was declared duly elected.

The petition of R. L. Holman to have the license on cigar stands reduced as it was now exorbitant and prohibitive was referred to finance committee.

Bill of D. W. Kinnaird for $16 for work in cemetery allowed and warrants ordered drawn for amount.

On recommendation of the finance committee the council agreed to accept $150 as payment in full as ground rent from the Oregon City Transportation company.

Report of cemetery committee relative to the purchase of 2.80 acres of the McGeehan tract for additional burying space at a cost $412 accepted.

Ordinance authorizing the mayor and recorder to execute deed to H. C. Stevens for Alden property recently purchased by him from the city, read first time and ordered published.

Matter of looking up certain property belonging to the city and assessed to other parties referred to finance committee.

Matter of putting additional manholes in the sewer on Water street referred to committee on streets and public property.

Richard Freytag granted permission to use part of Main street during the construction of his building.

Matter of repairing city hall referred to committee on streets and public property with power to act.

L. Diekleman employed to clean the streets at $26 per month.

Recorder instructed to reply to letter from Joseph Simon, receiver of the East Side Railway company, and correct certain mis-statements contained therein. The reading of this communication precipitated quite a discussion but action was deferred for another week. Adjourned to meet Monday evening, June 14.

PURELY VEGETABLE.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the world! AN EFFECTUAL SPECIFIC for all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen. Regulate the Liver and prevent CHILLS AND FEVER, BILIOUSNESS, HEADACHE, COLIC, CONSTIPATION, RHEUMATISM, JAUNDICE AND NAUSEA.

BAD BREATH! Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. Do not neglect to secure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

CONSTIPATION SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact, nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is easy as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a cative habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE! This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache, for the relief of which TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR MEDICINE.

MANUFACTURED ONLY BY J. H. ZEILAN & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

New Lawyers.

Justice C. Schuebel, Prof. C. W. Durette and W. G. Hayes. These gentlemen deserve great credit for so successfully passing one of the hardest examinations ever submitted by the state board. Mr. Schuebel began reading law of nights while employed in the Willamette Pulp and Paper mills and after being elected justice of the peace, continued his studies and attended the Portland law school at night. He is an honest, energetic young man of undoubted ability and certainly has a bright future before him.

Prof Durette pursued his studies while teaching school. He is gifted with considerable oratorical ability and eminently qualified for his chosen sphere of life. He will continue to teach for the present.

Mr. Hayes has also read law while employed at other work, using only his spare time for study. He expects to locate in some good, live town and "grow up with the country."
