HE WANTS A POSTOFFICE.—Shades of Bacchus, what are we next to expect of our man Marquam, he of fourteen indictments for violating the laws of Oregon by selling liquor without a license. He now wants to be postmaster. Emboldened by his success in getting up a petition to keep himself out of the Clackamas county jail, he is now getting up a petition to get himself into the postoffice at Marquam. And he has the gall to ask republicans to aid him in securing from a republican administration, a position of trust and honor as a recognition of his past labors for the party. It was such work as this man Marquam has done in the past for the republican party, that was an important factor in bringing upon it the crushing defeat it sustained at the hands of the voters of Clackamas county at the last county election. When the republican party gets the last of such barnacles and reprobates as he is scraped off, will there be prospect of its securing the good will and support of the better element of our county. It is an outrage upon public morality and political decency that this man Marquam should ask the suffrage of his fellow citizens for a government appointment after having robbed the taxpayers as he has, and misled men and boys without number. In the last term of circuit court three indictments were found against him for different violations of the law. On one he was tried and found guilty and only escaped a just punishment by the clemency of a political schemer in the governor's chair, the other two he dodged by legal technicalities when brought to trial. These three indictments cost the taxpayers of Clackamas county no less than $550. The fees for the witnesses before the grand jury amounted to over $100 while the fees of the witnesses in his trial in the circuit court amounted to $182. His trial lasted two days and as it costs the $125 per day to run the circuit court for this county, that made another $250 to add to the costs. As the other 13 times which he has been before the courts have cost from $100 to $300 each, it will be seen that this man Marquam has cost this county enough to have built five miles of good road, or to have given a nine-months term of school each to 20 school districts. Marquam is neither wanted as a saloon keeper nor postmaster in Clackamas county, and he had better emigrate to Texas or Hades and give the taxpayers a rest.

BAND CONCERT.—The concert given by the Silverton Marine band at Shively's opera house last Saturday evening was only fairly well attended but greatly enjoyed by those present. While the entire program was strictly first-class, special mention should be made of J. W. Welch's cornet solo, "My Old Kentucky Home" and the baritone solo by M. G. Cooley. The best number of the whole program was "The Bullfinches," a polka for two clarinets, by H. L. Allen and Albert Johnson, which was roundly applauded. Each member of the Silverton Marine band is not only an artist but a gentleman and should they conclude to favor our city with another concert would be greeted with a crowded house. In the afternoon before the concert they gave a parade on Main street that was very pleasing. Their marching was in firm order, the twenty-two men in their neat fitting uniforms presenting quite a soldierly appearance, while their playing greatly pleased the crowd which had gathered to listen to the out-door concert.

THE CHAUTAUQUANS.—With the meeting of last Monday, McLaughlin Chautauqua circle finished their work in Greek art, which is the last book in the course of study for this year. It has been decided to hold a closing meeting next Monday evening when a symposium embracing all the live topics of the day will be considered, each of the members taking a subject and giving their views and explanations. Light refreshments will be served and an evening of fine intellectual as well as social enjoyment is anticipated. It is earnestly desired that every member be present on that evening, as a mark of appreciation of Mrs. Dye, who has so acceptably filled the office of president and instructor since the organization of the circle.

NOT MARQUAM'S ATTORNEY NOW.—In publishing the report of P. A. Marquam's application to the governor for a pardon, the ENTERPRISE stated that Geo. C. Brownell was Marquam's attorney and that he presented Marquam's petition to Governor Lord. In regard to Marquam's application for a pardon, Mr. Brownell disclaims all connection with the case, he having nothing to do with Marquam's legal affairs since the October term of circuit court when he and H. E. Cross defended him, but as Marquam was not good pay and had proyed himself unworthy of further assistance they both dropped him at the termination of the trial.

FOR A FRATERNAL PICNIC.—Representatives of the various fraternal organizations in the city held a meeting in Recorder Ryan's office Wednesday afternoon and discussed the matter of having a fraternal picnic in Oregon City about the 21st of August. A committee consisting of C. A. Fitch, Max Bolax and A. S. Walker was appointed to ask each fraternal organization in the city to send one delegate to meet with this committee at the recorder's office next Monday evening, June 21st, when arrangements will be perfected.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Court Robin Hood, No. 9, Foresters of America, elected the following officers last Friday evening for the ensuing six months from July 1st: Chief ranger, A. W. Mosier; sub-chief ranger, W. M. Roake; recording secretary, J. K. Morris; senior woodward, M. P. Chapman; junior woodward, A. S. Williams; senior beadle, G. C. Atchison; junior beadle, H. B. Stafford; hold-overs, F. T. Rogers, financial secretary; treasurer, J. H. Hyatt.

HOUSE ROBBED.—Ed. May's house back of the city hall was entered by burglars Sunday night and a silver watch and $27.50 stolen. Some of the family were out late and the door was left unlocked through which the burglars must have entered. When Mr. May arose Monday morning he missed his pants but found them in the hall near the front door, but the money and watch were gone. There is no clue to the thief.

NEW PASTOR.—Dr. W. D. Williams, of San Francisco, has accepted a call to the rectorate of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this city and will occupy the pulpit for the first time next Sunday. Until recently Dr. Williams was a Congregationalist, and pastor of the First Plymouth Congregational church, of San Francisco, and is one of the most gifted pulpit orators on the coast.

FOR THE CHILDREN.—Next Sunday at 10 a. m. in the Presbyterian church will occur the Children's Day exercises by the Sabbath school, consisting of appropriate songs, recitations and dialogues. At 11 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. A. J. Montgomery, will preach a children's sermon, which will be followed by the annual administration of the sacrament of infant baptism.

In The Justice Court

The case of J. Anderson against A. Newell was tried by a jury in Justice Curran's court, three miles northeast of Eagle Creek Tuesday. Plaintiff Anderson had been sued in the justice court at Damascus and a wagon attached by Defendant Newell, as constable. The wagon was claimed by Anderson as exempt from all execution and on it was replenished together with $25 damages. Newell's claim was that no demand had been made on him for the property as being exempt. The jury gave plaintiff the wagon without damages. J. U. Campbell appeared for the plaintiff and G. B. Dimick for the defendant.

Wednesday afternoon in Justice Schuebel's court James Kerns was given a preliminary hearing for assaulting I. M. Parks with a dangerous weapon and bound over in the sum of $100 to appear before the grand jury. Bail was furnished by his brother, G. B. Dimick represented the state and George C. Brownell the defendant.

Omer Harmon, of Marquam was arrested Monday by Deputy Sheriff Isom for assault and battery upon E. M. Hartman of that place. His trial is set for Tuesday, June 15 in Justice Schuebel's court.

Constable McCown has had his weather eye out for Harmon for some time. One day last week Jenks was out at Marquam and came suddenly upon Harmon and told him to consider himself under arrest. Harmon promptly took to his heels, with Jenks in hot pursuit. Two shots from our sanely complexioned constable, fired on the fly, only served to increase Harmon's speed. Jenks was gaining on his victim, however, and would doubtless have captured him had his long legs not got tangled up and threw him down. When at last he got them straightened out Harmon was in the woods. A friend at Marquam says Jenks can run fast enough to beat a populist at the June election but not fast enough to catch one after election.

For Young Men and Young Women

There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's arber shop.
