

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

THE ENTERPRIZE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

Candidates Galore for Canby Postoffice—Big Peach and Berry Crop—Camp-meeting a Success—Brings a Fine Rain.

CANBY, June 22.—Farmers are rejoicing over the fine rain of last night and today. Fruit and berry crops are generally good in this locality. Plenty of wild blackberries and they soon will be ripe.

G. W. Shank has an enormous yield of peaches. He has been compelled to pull off many bushels of young peaches to avoid having his trees broken down by their weight.

L. D. Shank and James F. Deyoe went on a fishing trip last week. They broke the record.

Deputy County Clerk Martin made Canby a visit yesterday.

Attorney J. E. Marks, of Oregon City, spent Sunday in the city.

Canby City dads have decided to appeal the suit of Canby vs J. W. Smith to the Supreme court.

The council have ordered posted an ordinance to provide a public watering place for stock in Canby. It will be located on U. St. provided the ordinance passes.

Canby people are availing themselves of the opportunity to get fine cherries. They may be had for 1 cent per pound, the buyer picking them.

J. M. Hayden and wife and Geo. Hayden were in Canby Monday. Mrs. Hayden will remain for one week and visit her daughter Mrs. W. H. Dobyns. Mr. Hayden and son George are on their way to Molalla to build a bridge for the county.

Samuel Walker, of Woodburn, spent Saturday and Sunday in Canby the guest of Miss Minnie Walker, his niece, who is the efficient and popular teacher of the Barlow school.

Frank Zollner has gone to California to be away for a month. He will ride through the state on his wheel. Frank furnishes most of the sport in Canby as he is quite a rider on his bicycle. No one has been found to supply his place yet. He may come home on a tandem with someone to help cheer him on his way.

Mrs. Cloninger and family left last week for California, H. C. Gilmore accompanied them.

The Methodist camp meeting is in full blast here. The rain spoils the pleasure of out camping. A large attendance is expected next Sabbath.

A. G. Stogdill is quite ill. He was in danger Saturday night, but glad to note improvement since.

James Hodges and wife spent Saturday in Oregon City.

William Knight, J. F. Deyoe, James Hodges, and Henry Evans are aspirants for the appointment as postmaster at this place. They are all sure of it and each is "in the lead" and has the promise of the support of the same Oregon City politicians. They are all good men and should all be cared for even if Uncle Sam has to establish three new postoffices in Canby. The present incumbent, Peter Sustauer, has made an excellent postmaster and no one has a bit criticism to offer except that his politics needs fixing. His term of office expires this fall.

Chester Hodges, John Zeek, E. H. Carlton and G. W. Knight spent Sunday in Salem at the conductors picnic.

Mrs. E. F. Carlton has gone to San Francisco as a delegate to the Christian Endeavor Convention. Her parents will return with her to Canby for a visit. They live in Michigan.

R. S. Coe has been investing in a new bicycle.

Lee Rogers, one of Uncle Sams braves at Vancouver spent Sunday in Canby.

Wm. Kleatsch, who lived in Canby for four years, but now of Woodstock has just returned from a four weeks visit to Southern California. Mr. Kleatsch enjoyed his trip highly, but says he expects to live and die in Oregon.

Boring's Breese.
BORING, June 21.—All the farmers have smiling faces since the rain insures better crops.

P. Utiger came home from work last Tuesday and returned with his son Edwards and daughter Ida. Edward is going to help his father, and Ida will keep house for them. They are working on Fire Island.

M. Welch is hauling lumber to build a new barn.

Johnson & Co. saw mill is busy cutting lumber.

Mr. Fausberg is hauling lumber to put up some new buildings.

Mr. W. H. Boring made a trip to Oregon City last week.

O. W. Boring saw a large panther last Sunday evening, and his father saw one on Monday.

Mr. Chas. Wilson, of Powell's Valley, was visiting at Edgar Richeys Sunday.

Wm. Welch went to Woodburn to work last week, also his son, G. S. Welch.

G. H. Pierce, of Portland, was the guest of O. W. Boring a few days last week. School will close here next Friday 25th of June.

outing for the Fourth of July, but so far have not decided on a program for the day.

The eagle will scream at Sunday, though, on the 5th of July as the posters of all colors are announcing it.

Mr. Aschoff is getting his timbers ready for the erection of a large barn.

Harmony Notes.
HARMONY, June 22.—Strawberry picking is over. There was only about half a crop.

Blackberries and some kinds of garden truck have been considerably damaged by the recent frosts.

One mile of the Price Fuller road leading from Mr. Kranne's place and intersecting the Milwaukee road at the school house has recently been graded, almost entirely by volunteer work. It is probable that this road will be graded the coming fall, and if so we will have a good road for all seasons of the year.

The school board has engaged Mr. and Mrs. Boland of Portland as teachers for the fall and winter terms of our school. The former for principal and the latter for the primary department.

Children's day was remembered by our Sunday school and a very interesting program was well rendered by the younger scholars in the church last Sunday morning. Quite a number were present.

A number of our people anticipate attending the Chautauqua at Gladstone.

An abundance of rain is falling here today, the first of much account for some time.

Fall and spring grain is looking well. Hay is reported short in several places.

Mrs. E. A. Luther, Mrs. Millard and Mr. A. Clarke are on the sick list.

Sandy News.
SANDY, June 21.—Children's day was observed by the M. E. Sunday school with appropriated exercises at Menig's hall Sunday June 20. As it was the first time that Children's day has been celebrated here it created more than ordinary interest.

The hall was very handsomely decorated with evergreen and flowers of every variety making it a most beautiful scene and filling the air with the sweetest of natural perfume.

The young people, who entertained the audience were well trained for the occasion under the wise supervision of Mrs. J. N. Foster superintendent of the Sunday school and Mrs. Annie Reed, hence the exercises were rendered in a most graceful, pleasing and instructive manner which were as follows: Opening song by the choir with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Foster; prayer was then offered by Mr. Foster; address, Mr. Geo. Flinn; recitation, "Give us a Chance," Dottie Kopper, Arthur Foster and Arley Mitchell; class song by little children; recitation, "The Town of Use to Be," by Mary Washby; recitation, "To Do All You Can," by Mamie Kopper; class of love, by the school; song, "Scatter Precious Seeds," by choir; recitation, by Mamie Kopper; recitation, "The Master is Coming," by Herman Bruns; song, "Tell it again," by choir; dialogue; closing song, "God Be With Us Till We Meet Again," by school.

Sandy will celebrate the Fourth on the 5th of July in a grand style.

F. A. Meinie & Sons are making extensive improvements in and about the park to accommodate the immense crowd that generally celebrated the Fourth at Sandy.

T. H. Fischer is very busy building a barn. He will also build a house.

Logan Locals.
LOGAN, June 21.—S. C. Smith was thrown from his cart the 19th and quite badly hurt.

Harding Grange has just received two hundred books for the library. They have fifty more ordered.

There will be a school picnic at Logan park, on June 28th, under the management of the teachers of the three Logan schools. Come one, come all and bring your baskets and have a good time.

The very much needed rain is with us and people are willing for it to cease any time especially those who have hay cut.

Quite a number of our people attended the graduating exercises at Gladstone Friday night.

Miss Mattie Tellefson graduated from the Parkplace school June 18th. Miss Mattie deserves much credit for her pluck. She worked for her board in order to secure an education, such persons will surely make their mark in the world.

Mrs. Allie Hawley visited friends in Springwater last week.

Miss Nellie Huniston is home after an absence of several weeks.

Mr. W. A. Frakes is visiting friends in Salem.

Sophia Shuttles is visiting her sister Mrs. J. Boss of Columbia Hough.

Mr. Tracy, of Douglas county is seriously ill at the home of his son J. M. Tracy.

Everybody contemplates a glorious time the Fourth.

Beaver Creek News.
BEAVER CREEK, June 21.—Children's day was observed at the Presbyterian church and an interesting program was rendered.

Rain has come at last to the satisfaction of all, and although many farmers have their hay mown in the field, still they expect their loss will be gained in the grain harvest.

on his place which adds to the other improvements.

Mr. Weinstner has his saw mill in running order and is sawing out lumber which will be an inducement for the Marmot people to improve their places with better buildings.

There is talk of a union picnic on the Fourth in the grove at the mouth of Bullrun of the Sunday schools at Marmot, Pleasant Home and Sandy and Bullrun.

Maple Lane News.
MAPLE LANE, June 22.—There will be a meeting at the school house next Sunday to organize a Sunday school after a short sermon by the Rev. I. C. Shoemaker at 2:30 p. m. The Rev. gentleman had left an appointment for last Sunday for that purpose, but there were so few present that it was postponed for a week.

Mrs. Flo Jennings has been with her mother, Mrs. Richards, quite sick for some time, but has so far recovered that she went to her home in Oregon City last Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Rugg and about eighteen ladies of the Baptist church and Maple Lane held a missionary meeting at Mrs. Brayton's Tuesday, and report a good meeting with an interesting program and a general good time.

Fourth at Union Park.
REDLAND, June 22.—All wishing to enjoy a good time, can have the opportunity to do so by attending the Fourth of July celebration at Union Park, one and one-half miles east of Viola and four miles south of Logan on the Springwater road, on Saturday, July 3rd, under the auspices of the Viola, Logan, Springwater, Currinsville, Redland and vicinity. They intend to have one of the best celebrations ever held in the county.

They have a well shaded park of three acres and seats for 3000 people. The best brass band in the country with two excellent orchestras. Hon. Geo. C. Brownell and Hon. John H. Mitchell. The program will consist of reading of the Declaration of Independence by Miss Matilda Reed, songs, duets and recitations by the best singers, and speakers in the several communities.

Pugnacious and liberty car. An excellent race track has been put in order and the following races will be on, for which very appropriate prizes will be given: Horse race, bicycle race, sack race, potato race, foot race, fat man's race, three legged race and the most graceful lady horseback rider. A dance floor will be run in the afternoon and evening. Good shade, good water, good accommodations, good stands, in fact every thing but a saloon and that is not needed or allowed. Go one and all they will make you welcome. See if they don't. They intend to celebrate, they do, let us tell you.
