A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a crutch. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

Laxol is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1894, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my foot and limb were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I consider that I am entirely cured. The Alumni Banquet.

Last Saturday evening the alumni society of the Parkplace-Gladstone school gave their annual banquet. As entertainers the young people proved themselves a success and they and their guests passed a most enjoyable evening. The affair was held at the residence of Prof. J. W. Gray, principal of that school, and the spacious parlors and dining room were handsomely decorated with flowers, evergreens and flags in honor of the occasion. The first part of the evening was taken up with a literary program and the transaction of the society's business. On being called to order William Beech, president of the alumni society, delivered an address of welcome to the graduating class who were about to become members of the society. The address was well worded and delivered in an easy and self-possessed manner that was a credit to the boy. The response was made on behalf of the class by Dollie Cross, class president, who in accepting the honor about to be bestowed upon her classmates, made a happy and pertinent speech. The class poem was then read by Mattie Tellefson, proving this young lady to be a poet of some promise. The class history by Joseph Garrow provoked considerable mirth as well as interest. The class song was then sung, after which Capt. Apperson, Capt. Smith, Mr. Bellomy, Prof. Gray, Miss Dotson and Mr. Meerve were called upon and responded with brief speeches, in which they complimented the young people on the good will that existed between the school board, the teachers and the pupils of the school.

After an hour spent in social amusements the party repaired to the dining room, where the many good things to eat and the toasts, both witty and serious, kept the banqueters until after the midnight hour. The table had been prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Gray, Miss Bracken and Miss Dotson and its appointments were a compliment to the artistic skill and taste of the ladies. In the intervals of the courses the toasts, "Our Girls," "Our Boys," "Home and Mother," "Parkplace-Gladstone," "Oregon," "A Boy's Life," "Our School Board," and "Our Teachers" were proposed and responded to, those speaking being Capt. Apperson, Florence Patty, Miss Bracken, Willie Williams, Mattie Tellefson, Joseph Garrow, Percy Cross, Clark Williams, Jessie Faubian, Fred Smith, Miss Dotson, Capt. Smith, Wilbert Garrow and Prof. Gray. As speech makers the young people showed that they were not far behind their elders and each of the speakers, both old and young, by their happy hits as well as serious thoughts won hearty applause.

Those present were: Capt. and Mrs. J. T. Apperson, Capt. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Bellomy, Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Gray, Miss Harriette Dotson, Miss Estelle Bracken, Miss Margaret Williams, William Beach, Fred Smith, Dollie Cross, Wilbert Garrow, William Williams, Mattie Tellefson, Joseph Garrow, Nora Elliott, Jessie Faubian, Percy A. Cross, Carl Butt, Pearl Himler, Daisy Rivers, Edna Garrow, Katie Smith, Fred Thayer, Mary Huerth, Maude Brown, Dottie Bill, Florence Patty, Clark Williams, John Williams and Charles Meserve.

GEORGE WATSON AND FAMILY.

Gladstone property will be in demand this coming spring and summer.

Died.

WATSON—At her home in this city on Thursday, 18, 1897, Mary Elizabeth Watson, aged 48 years and 11 days.

Deceased was born in Conway, North Wales, June 6, 1849, and came with her parents to Wisconsin in 1850, and emigrated to Oregon in 1852. She was married to George C. Watson, December 3, 1873, and leaves, as the fruits of that union, one son and three daughters. Mrs. Watson was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roberts, old and highly respected pioneers, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement in the evening of their lives. She had been a sufferer from consumption for a long time but the end came suddenly from heart failure. She was an obedient daughter, a devoted sister, an affectionate mother, a true wife and a patient sufferer, ever trusting in "Him who doeth all things well." She had been a member of the Baptist church for 25 years, always performing the duties of a faithful and devoted Christian. Her life has been one of kindness, duty and devotion to those who knew her. The funeral was conducted from the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon by Rev. M. L. Rugg. The floral offerings, given by generous and loving hands, were most profuse and beautiful, bespeaking the hearts of those who sought to pay a last tribute of love.

GITHENS—At his home near Eagle Creek, Saturday, June 19, 1897, George Githens, aged 69 years.

Deceased was one of the early settlers of Clackamas county and greatly respected for his integrity and uprightness of character. A wife and several children survive. The funeral was held from the family residence Monday, conducted by Lone Pine Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of which deceased was an honored member.

BARIN—In Portland, Monday June 21, 1897, Morton H. Barin, aged 21 years, 4 months and 8 days.

Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Barin, whose home was in this city for a good many years. The funeral was held from the family residence in Portland Wednesday and the remains brought to Oregon City on the steamer Altona and interred in Mountain View cemetery.

Married.

SHAW-ACKERMAN—At Hotel Portland, Saturday afternoon, June 19, 1897, Mr. James W. Shaw, of Dallas, to Miss Minnie Ackerman of this city, Rev. Gabriel Sykes officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few personal friends of the high contracting parties. The happy couple departed on the overland train Tuesday evening for San Francisco on an extended wedding tour. The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. S. M. Ackerman, and has a host of friends. The groom is also well and favorably known here, being a former resident, and is the son of James Shaw, manager of the Dallas woolen mills. Both of these estimable young people are natives of Oregon City.

An Afternoon Reception.

Mrs. P. F. Morey and Miss Florence Morey hospitably entertained about 75 of their friends Wednesday afternoon at their beautiful country home on the Willamette. A short farce, "Six Cups of Chocolate" was given by six young ladies in a pleasing, happy manner. They were: Miss Vera Pillsbury, Miss Florence Morey, Miss Myrtle Stevens, Miss Sade Chase, Miss Vera Canfield and Miss May Kelly. Charming vocal selections by well-known singers followed. A delicious lunch was served. Cut flowers, tropical plants and delicate maiden hair ferns formed the decorations of the large living room of the commodious dwelling. Strolls were taken through the greenhouse and the splendidly kept grounds of the park, making a pretty sight as the merry guests in light dresses flitted here and there among the dense green of the shrubbery. After an afternoon of unalloyed pleasure, adieus were said to the hostesses and the party returned on the steamers Altona and Ramona for their homes in Portland and Oregon City.

A Little Girl's Narrow Escape.

Polly Hart, the twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hart of Gladstone, met with quite a serious accident on Saturday last. While crossing the railroad bridge over the Clackamas river at that place, she lost her footing and fell about 30 feet to the bank of the river beneath. Happily she fell on the sand and was not very severely injured; had she fallen a few feet beyond she would have struck a ledge of rocks or into the swift running water of the river and would have undoubtedly lost her life. As it was, however, on Monday, she was able to be about the house again, not much the worse for the occurrence.

While this bridge is much used by foot passengers, and is reasonably safe, yet caution should be observed by the inexperienced, and parents should see that their children are kept out of harm's way.
