W. C. Painter of Walla Walla, an Oregon Pioneer of 1840, who had been attending the pioneers reunion in Portland last week, has been in Oregon City this week looking up his old friends and visiting the scenes of his childhood. Mr. Painter is a grandson of Robert Moore who took up the donation land claim now embracing West Oregon City, and upon which he laid out Lynn City, the principal part of the town being on the beach where the paper mills now stand and which was washed away in the big flood of 1862.

George W. Rich, a well-known former resident of Oregon City, but now in Carlinville, Illinois, where he is assistant auditor and cashier of the Litchfield, Carrolton & Western Railroad Company, writes a friend here under date of June 7, that they are having good weather in his section of the country with excellent prospects for an abundant corn and oat crop, but that wheat is almost an entire failure. He is still interested in Oregon City, around which cluster many pleasant memories of by-gone days, and desires to be remembered by all his old friends.

Resolutions of Condolence. At a meeting of Abernathy Rebe-kah Lodge, No. 80, held in their hall this day, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved sister, Minnie G. Charman, and the long and intimate relations held with her in the faithful performance of her duties in this lodge, make it eminently fitting that we record our appreciation of her, Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Minnie G. Charman, P. N. G., we have lost a faithful member, a kind friend whose wisdom, ability and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance, and while her memory is enshrined in our hearts and we realize we have suffered an irreparable loss, we humbly bow to Him, "That doeth all things well."

Resolved, That we extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband and family of deceased sister.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be placed on the records of this lodge, a copy printed in the Pacific Odd Fellow and in the local papers and also a copy forwarded to the family of the deceased.

Joseph and Will Garrow, of Parkplace, left Wednesday on a walking expedition into Marion county, where they will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gleason left on the steamer Monday evening for San Francisco where they will remain a few weeks visiting their many friends.

Gilbert Horton, son of George F. Horton, has taken a position in the store of Horton & Gibson, where his friends will find him during the summer vacation.

Miss Pearl Meldrum of Oregon City, who spent the past week visiting Miss Blanche Belle, in this city, returned to her home yesterday.—Salem Statesman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Huntley are expected home from their extended bridal tour of California on the incoming steamer due in Portland this (Thursday) evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Charman and daughter June returned Monday from Sea View, where they spent a couple of weeks getting their cottage in readiness for the outing season.

Miss Harriet Dotson left Tuesday to spend the summer vacation with her parents at Eugene, when she will return and again take her place in the Park-place-Gladstone school.

E. E. Boyd, the ever pleasant Southern Pacific station agent for this city, returned Tuesday morning from his outing at Drain. Mrs. Boyd will remain a couple of weeks longer.

Miss Estella Bracken will spend the vacation at her home in Portland, having gone down Wednesday. She will resume her place in the Park-place-Gladstone school at the opening of the fall term.

Howard Brownell, who recently returned from Pacific University has taken a position on the Press. Howard is a rustler for news as is evinced by the improved appearance of that paper recently.

Rev. F. G. Strange of Ashland, who is visiting his brother, Prof. H. S. Strange, occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening to the evident delight of the congregation.

Miss Addie Clark, one of the West Side school teachers, went to her home in Polk county last Wednesday. She will attend the international Christian Endeavor convention in San Francisco next month.

Capt. J. T. Apperson went to Corvallis Monday to attend a meeting of the board of regents of the Agricultural college, Capt. Apperson being president of the board, and to attend the closing exercises of the school.

The Doctor and Rev. C. A. Wooddy made addresses at the Baptist church Sunday evening. He will return to his California home next week, accompanied by Mrs. Gilman Parker, who goes to attend the Christian Endeavor convention.

The Blue and the Gray.

Both men and women are apt to feel a little blue, when the gray hairs begin to show. It's a very natural feeling. In the normal condition of things gray hairs belong to advanced age. They have no business whitening the head of man or woman, who has not begun to go down the slope of life. As a matter of fact, the hair turns gray regardless of age, or of life's seasons; sometimes it is whitened by sickness, but more often from lack of care. When the hair fades or turns gray there's no need to resort to hair dyes. The normal color of the hair is restored and retained by the use of
