IT'S LIKE THIS?
 If you've been able to save up a little money out of your earnings it is very discouraging to be compelled to use that little for the purpose of furnishing your house—you'd almost prefer going without the furniture, but you needn't do that. You can buy the furniture, carpets, stoves, crockery, etc., of us on credit. We won't charge you a penny more for them than you'd have to pay cash in any other store. Let your little pile of money stay right where it is. Get every thing you need of us—pay for it a little at a time weekly or monthly. No security asked.

OUR NATAL DAY.
 How it Will be Celebrated in Clackamas County.

The United States is the only country with a known birthday, and it is fitting that that day should receive proper recognition. It is the people's day, a public holiday, and should be kept as such by all who can possibly suspend their labors. Let the fire go out in the forge and the hammer rest on the anvil for this day; stop the throbbing engine and the whirring spindles; let the planer lie idle until the morrow; shut up store and shop and warehouse, and unite for this one day in celebrating the birth of the greatest, richest, happiest and most independent nation upon God's green footstool. Give one day to the full realization of what freedom and liberty mean, and join heart and hand in a cordial, happy and glad some celebration of Independence day.

Everything is in readiness for a grand celebration at Gladstone park, Monday the fifth, under the auspices of the Oregon City Y. M. C. A. which for genuine enjoyment will not be excelled by any other celebration in the state. The oration will be delivered by Rev. W. K. Beans, D. D., of Portland, one of the most gifted and eloquent orators on the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Robert A. Miller will read the immortal Declaration of Independence. A grand chorus of 50 voices, under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Strickler, will render national airs, and there will be solos by Prof. R. A. Heritage, Mrs. J. H. Strickler and other celebrated singers. In the afternoon there will be games of basket and base ball, bicycle races, tug of war contests and a grand balloon ascension and daring parachute jump by Prof. Hagal, the celebrated aeronaut at 5 p. m. At 8 p. m. in the auditorium there will be rendered a delightful entertainment consisting of short speeches, solos, quartets, choruses and vaulting, tumbling, bar work and pyramid building, by the justly celebrated Athletes club of Portland. The grand finale of these festivities will be a magnificent pyrotechnic display arranged by Prof. Hughes.

Refreshments and meals will be furnished on the grounds at reasonable rates by the Ladies' Auxillary of the Y. M. C. A., and a nominal admission fee of 10 cents charged all over 10 years of age for the benefit of the Oregon City Young Men's Christian Association. The music for this occasion will be furnished by the Parkplace brass band of 13 pieces.

AT OTHER PLACES.
 The people of Logan and vicinity will celebrate on Saturday, July 3, at Union Park, two miles south of Logan and Hon. George C. Brownell will deliver the oration and Fred Gerber will be president of the day. This promises to be one of the largest attended celebrations in the county and extensive preparations have been made to entertain the crowd in a manner befitting the day.

The citizens of Sandy will celebrate on Monday, July 5, at Meinig's park. Dr. Chas. Plyffer and Hon. George C. Brownell will deliver orations. M. A. Lozman will read the Declaration of Independence and Hon. T. G. Jonesrud will be president of the day. The festivities of the day will close with a grand ball.

B. F. Swope will orate at Molalla on the 3rd at Shafer's oak grove, one-fourth mile west of Molalla. Games and contests of various kinds have been arranged for, and nothing left undone that will in any way contribute to the success of the celebration.

The celebration at Scott's Mills on Saturday, the 3d, will be held in a beautiful grove overlooking the town of Scott's Mills. Mr. A. S. Dresser will deliver the oration. Miss Myrtle Conklin will read the Declaration of Independence, John Henry Douglas will act as president of the day and George W. Bennett as grand marshal. There will also be a procession headed by the Chemawa Indian band, foot races, potato races, sack races, etc., and grand basket dinner.

At Wilsonville the people have arranged for a grand celebration on Saturday, the 3d. Joseph Rice and G. B. Dimick will assist in stroking the plumage of the great American eagle.

McClure's magazine for July will contain an article on the late Professor Drummond, written by his intimate friend the Rev. D. M. Ross. The source of Drummond's rarely equaled influence over men—assemblages as well as individuals—was his own charm of character; and Mr. Ross's paper will deal especially with his personal traits. With it will be printed several portraits, among others the best, and what his friends regard as the last, taken of Professor Drummond.

Life in India.

With the exception of the noted World's Fair number of The Cosmopolitan, which reached a price of five dollars a copy after the last edition had been exhausted, no stronger number of this magazine has ever been issued than that for July, 1897. The report of Julian Hawthorne, the Special Commissioner sent by The Cosmopolitan to India to investigate the horrors of the plague and famine, is of an extraordinary character, and will open the eyes of the world to conditions which were scarcely suspected. The same number contains what is probably the greatest poem of this quarter of the nineteenth century. This new rendering of Omar Khayyam's Rubaiyat which departs entirely from Fitzgerald, occupies four pages. Amelie Rives reappears as a story-teller for the first time since her marriage with Prince Taubetzky. One of the cleverest stories yet from the pen of Robert W. Chambers is given. The remarkable story of the War of the Martians, by Wells, which is attracting the attention both of the scientific and non-scientific good-story-loving public, is continued, and there is a fourth story by a'Becket, elaborately illustrated by the humor of Peter Newell. The educational discussion—this time by Professor Peck, of Columbia—the story of The Every-day Life of a Sister of Charity, elaborately illustrated; "The Genesis of a Comic Opera," given by Reginald de Koven; President Gilman, of the Johns Hopkins University, on "The Bankruptcy of Science," and an interesting story by the Greek who conceived and brought into existence "The Streets of Cairo at the World's Fair"—these are some of the contents of this ten-cent magazine.

For A River Ride.

The backwater from the Columbia is yet sufficient to make the lower Willamette like a mill pond and a steamboat ride between Oregon City and Portland is one of the most delightful trips that one can take. There is no dust nor heat to make it uncomfortable and no noise to interfere with conversation, and with the spacious cabins and wide promenades, passengers are enabled to move about and make the trip a social pleasure as well as to enjoy the beautiful scenery.

Monday next to accommodate the people who wish to attend the celebrations in Gladstone park and in Portland, the steamers Altona and Ramona will run on the following time card, leaving both Oregon City and Portland at the hours as follows: 7:30, 9:30, 11:30, a. m. and 12:30, 2:00, 3:30 5:00, 6:30 and 8:30 p. m. The last trip down from Oregon City being at 9:30 p. m., while the two last trips from Portland will be 10:00 and 11:30 p. m. The round trip fare will be 25 cents and as no heavy freight will be handled special fast time will be made. The daily time card as well as the special Sunday trips of these boats will be found in their advertisement in another column.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says "Dr. King's Discovery is the only discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it: it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and to-day stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Charman & Co.'s Drug Store.

Teachers' Institute—Date Changed.

The annual teachers' institute for Clackamas county will be held in the Barclay school building in Oregon City, commencing Tuesday, July 6, at 9 o'clock a. m. and continuing in session four days. Every teacher is expected to attend or file written statement of reasons for non attendance.

H. G. STARKWEATHER,
 School Superintendent.
 Dated June 10, 1897.

John Griffin, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Geo. A. Harding.

COLUMBIA THE BEAUTIFUL.

Grand Scenery—And a Delightful Ride on the Great River.

The excursion to the Cascade locks next Saturday, July 3, promises to be the most delightful outing of the season. It is a fact, admitted by all tourists, that the scenery of the Middle Columbia, is the grandest in America to be found on a navigable river, surpassing in magnificence and splendor even the beauties of the classic Rhine.

Among the many points of interest enroute are the Vancouver barracks and parade grounds, Rooster Rock, which towers up out of the edge of the Columbia, upon whose top early settlers found a rooster, which had doubtless escaped from some farmer immigrant, and just beyond the pillars of Hercules, which stand up like two gigantic thumbs. Then Castle Rock, Multnomah falls and the gorge of the Columbia, where the river stands on edge, Cape Horn, around whose rugged base the water rushes and roars like a cataract, and Wind Mountain whose summit is continually swept by old Boreas.

While the outside attractions will be great they will not be surpassed by the entertainment in the elegant cabin of the Harvest Queen, which is one of the largest and handsomest of our river steamers. Some of the very best local talent of the city assisted by Salem and Portland talent will render a delightful entertainment. The soloists will be Prof. R. A. Heritage, Chautauqua musical director, Mrs. W. B. Wiggins, Mrs. A. S. Dresser, Miss Kato Warde and Mrs. J. H. Strickler; Prof. Anton Zilm, of Portland, will render some pleasing violin solos, the ladies' quartet, composed of Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. E. E. Charman, Miss Hattie Monroe, Mrs. C. H. Caulfield; also the Crescent quartet, Misses Echo Samson and Ivy Roake and Chester Roake and Abel Meresse. The Taylor street M. E. church orchestra, one of the finest musical organizations in the state will render selections during the day.

The O. R. & N. Co. have given a guarantee to the promoters of the excursion that they will positively reach the locks. The fare for the round trip is only 75 cents and meals can be secured on board or taken along at the pleasure of the excursionists. Boat will leave the O. R. & N. dock on Saturday morning at 7:40 sharp.

Willamette Association.

The 49th annual session of the district Willamette Baptist Association convened in the Immanuel Baptist church, Portland at 10 a. m. Tuesday. The Willamette Association is the oldest in the state and includes in its territory seven counties, of a population of 160,000, of which 3000 are Baptists. There are 24 churches in the district, each of which sends delegates to the convention.

Rev. Gilman Parker delivered an address and Rev. M. L. Rugg preached the annual sermon. Among those who attended from Oregon City were Revs. Rugg and Parker, Mesdames L. C. Driggs, Wm. Andresen, Peter McIntyre, R. W. Porter, Miss Mary McIntyre, Henry Wilehart, D. C. Latourette, B. S. Bellomy and M. L. Rugg.

United Brethren Conference.

The Oregon conference of the United Brethren church (radical) was held at the Abaqua camp grounds, two miles south of Marquam last week, closing Sunday, during which time the following appointments were made for the Willamette district:

L. F. Clark, presiding elder: Salem mission, W. Reynolds; Oregon City station, A. J. Ware; Portland mission, W. Stewart; Marion circuit, R. Miller; Mountain Home circuit, R. Gynn; Washington circuit, Mrs. E. McElroy; Hillsboro circuit, Merritt Davis; Vernonia circuit, T. W. Ward; Nehalem circuit, W. H. Palmer; Cowlitz circuit, W. J. Gossett; Yamhill circuit, Mrs. A. H. Kyo.

McClure's magazine for July opens with an interesting account of the actual daily life in a little "Republic" where the citizens and governors are young boys and girls from the poorest and most crowded districts of the City of New York. Private industry and public functions are pursued precisely as by older people in larger republics, and neglect or abuse of either encounters the same pains and penalties as in life at large. The paper is fully illustrated from special photographs.

The late Professor Drummond is the subject of a paper by the Rev. D. M. Ross, who lived in close intimacy with him from his boyhood to the hour of his death, who is thereby enabled to give us the first really vivid and satisfactory presentation we have had of a man who was one of the great personal influences of his time. The paper is illustrated with several portraits of Professor Drummond, one of them a recent one which his friends consider the best in existence.
