FRIDAY, JULY 2, 1897.

ORDGON STATE FAIR .- The thirtyseventh annual exhibition of the Oregon State fair will be held at the grounds near Salem, commencing Thursday, September 30, and closing Friday, October 8, 1897. An excellent speed program has been prepared and liberal premiums offered on agricultural pro- days. ducts and mineral, floral, stock and mechanical exhibits. Reduced rates have been secured over all transportation lines and from the interest already tary . C D. Gabrielson anticipates the when an annual gathering of all fraternal societies will be held and a fine rilk banner presented the lodge giving the best half hour program. State Pioneer and barbecue day will be held on Tuesday, October 5, when a fine open air on home building in Oregon will be a feature of this day's program. A diploma and honorable mention will be awarded the proneer father who can show by a brief statement as a result of the continued residence upon his donation land, the largest number of sons and grandsons now living in Oregon as the owners and cultivators of land. Many premiums have been materially increased, sheep, swine, fruits, flowers, flax, hemp, canned salmon, etc. Other diversions contests and shooting tournaments, The music tor the fair will be furnished band of Portland, one of the best organizations of its kind in the State,

NEW SANITABIUM .- Articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state and with the county clerk incorporating the Oregon City Sanitarium, with George A. Harding, E. E. Charman, J. M. Wells, M. C. Strickland, J. W. Norris and J. W. Powell, incorporators. The capital stock is $1000, divided into shares of $1 each. The object is to conduct a sanitarium for the treatment of all surgical and medical cases. The Barin building on Main and Thirteenth streets, which is one of the best buildings in the city for this institute for Clackamas county teachers, purpose, has been thoroughly renovated which will begin its sessions in this city and fitted up for this purpose and is now ready for the reception of patients. Barton, Mrs Ellen Dye, their name, location, number that they can accommodate, whether gentlemen, ladies or both, rates for room and board. Boarding places in Oregon City, Parkplace, Gladstone or any of the other suburbs will be accepted. Private families by taking a boarder or two can add materially to their income and at the same time do a favor to the Chautauqua management in providing places for the hundreds of visitors who will be in the city during the assembly.

Dogs vs Vegetables,-The liberties that dogs take with vegetables and other commodities displayed by grocerymen on the sidewalk in front of their stores has come to be a matter of serious concern in Astoria as well as in Oregon City, as the following from the Astoria Herald would indicate: "There are two sides Then again nine out of every ten dogs them.
