H. H. Johnson left Wednesday for Idaho, where he has a government surveying contract 50 miles north of Boise. His crew is composed of Hal Bands, Jim Church, Leighton Kelly, George Lacey Thos. Long, Wm. Bushey and Mr. Dennis. They will go by rail to Weiser, Idaho, from where they will pack into the mountains and expect to be absent four or five months.

Announcement of the engagement of Gilbert L. Hedges, a brother of J. E. Hedges of this city, and Miss Nione Sperry, of New Haven, has been received in Oregon City. Mr. Hedges is a student at Yale, having received the degree of A. B. in 1896 and will graduate from the law course in 1898, after which he will probably locate on this coast.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church, preached a fraternal sermon to the members of Court Robin Hood, Foresters of America, last Sunday evening from 1 Timothy 5: 8: "But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house he hath denied the faith and is worse than an infidel." The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion and packed with an interested audience.

Drs. Carl and Sommer have just received an Edebold operating table of the latest pattern and design. It is made entirely of plate glass and enameled iron. There are four smaller tables in the set, all of the same material, and a complete line of sterilizers, the entire outfit costing $400. It will be put in the operating room of the Oregon City hospital and is only another evidence that these gentlemen are thoroughly up-to-date in the practice of their profession.

The services of the Congregational church were largely attended last Sabbath, Rev. T. W. Butler, Ph. D. occupied the pulpit, having been engaged to supply the church for three months. Dr. Butler will preach next Sabbath morning at 10:30, subject, "Handshakes." All members of the church are requested to be present; evening service at 8 o'clock. At this service the pastor will give a patriotic address, the exercises and music will all be in keeping with the day. Christian endeavor service at 7 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

Uncle Henry Samson, of Needy, has almost entirely recovered from his recent illness and is able to be about his farm, in which he takes great delight. His estimable wife, Mrs. Elenor Samson, has been seriously ill with stomach trouble but is now improving. The minds of this venerable couple continue active and while they "walk thoughtfully on the silent, solemn shore of that vast ocean they must sail so soon," their tarrying is regarded as a blessing to those who minister to their wants and walk backward by the aid of their memory through the years of decades long past.

Pillsbury, who showed them over the city. These gentlemen through their salesmen, had heard of Oregon City, but had no idea that it possessed the factories and wealth that they found and they were free in their expressions as to the bright future our city had.

Gus H. Sahlstrom, representing Corbett, Falling & Robertson, of Portland, one of the leading hardware firms of the Northwest, was in the city a few days ago and said, in conversation with a representative of this paper, that Oregon City was the best business town in the Willamette valley today. Mr. Sahlstrom travels as far south as Ashland and has been in the employ of this firm for a number of years. He is a very quiet, conservative man which adds much to the significance of his statement.

Mrs. W. B. Shively, accompanied by her family, has gone to Nevada City, California, to join her husband, who is engaged in the drygoods business at that place. Mr. Shively has been prominently identified with the growth of Oregon City, having erected here the largest and best appointed opera house between Portland and Sacramento. He was also successfully engaged in the dry goods business for a number of years. Many friends wish him success in his new home. His opera house will be in charge of Ely Bros.

Your pills are the best in the world. I used to be annoyed with constipation until I began using them. Now I have no trouble of that kind any more and I attribute my recovery to the use of your valuable medicine. In the springtime of the year I always take your s

Pistols and Pestles.

The duelling pistol now occupies its proper place, in the museum of the collector of relics of barbarism. The pistol ought to have beside it the pestle that turned out pills like bullets, to be shot like bullets at the target of the liver. But the pestle is still in evidence, and will be, probably, until everybody has tested the virtue of
