

DATES TO REMEMBER.

Tuesday, July 13.—Fourth annual assembly of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association meets in Gladstone Park to remain in session for twelve days.

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1897.

A GLORIOUS DAY.

How The Nation's Day Was Observed.

CELEBRATION AT MOLALLA.

The observance of our natal day at Molalla was a decided success. The celebration took place at Shaver's grove, a mile west of Molalla, with fully 1500 people present.

A recitation by Miss Myrtle Cross won the applause of the audience, and foot and bicycle races in the afternoon furnished the sporting events of the day.

WILSONVILLE CELEBRATES.

About 400 people gathered at Wilsonville on Saturday, July 3, to celebrate the attainment of our independence. The program opened at 1 o'clock p. m. with prayer by Rev. A. Brady.

An able and well delivered address treating of the duties and responsibilities incident to American citizenship, was delivered by G. B. Dimick, of Oregon City.

The music was furnished by the Sherwood band, and was enjoyed by all. After the other program, foot racing, sack and wheelbarrow racing was indulged in.

SANDY PATRIOTISM.

Between 1000 and 1500 people gathered at Meinig's park, Sandy, last Saturday to celebrate the Fourth. The program opened at 11 o'clock a. m. with J. T. Jonsrud as president of the day.

The program was very agreeably interspersed with national airs by the Union quartette of Portland.

After the other program was completed the assembly adjourned to the Canby hall and whined away the hours of the evening with a dance.

SCOTT'S MILLS.

The celebration at Scott's Mills was one of the largest ever held in that part of the country, there being about 1600 people present.

At the grounds the program was opened by a stirring national air by the Chemawa band, which is composed of Indian boys whose playing is excelled by but few bands in the state.

The Declaration of Independence was read in a pleasing, and forcible style, by Miss Myrtle Conklin.

America when the monarchies of Europe were upheld by armed men, to its expansion and development in the Declaration of Independence.

The vocal music for the occasion was furnished by the Silverton quartette, and the Scott's Mills chorus, who delighted the audience with patriotic selections.

The large crowd present proved that the principles for which our fathers died, are still cherished by the people.

AT UNION PARK.

Last Saturday over 1200 people gathered at Union Park to celebrate the Fourth. The beautiful grove which is located on the Springwater road one mile east of Viola had been put in fine shape.

The program opened with a parade headed by a liberty car, drawn by six horses driven by Wm. Bard. On the car was Uncle Sam personated by Jas. Cromer.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Miss Matilda Reed, a popular young school teacher of Logan.

President Miller requests all ladies of the city to bring bouquets, potted plants, and whatever else they may have to decorate the front of the platform in the Chautauqua auditorium.

The famous Multnomah Quartette will sing at the Chautauqua concert at Gladstone Tuesday night.

The Oregon City ladies' quartet and the Heritage ladies' quartet of Salem both sing at Gladstone next Monday.

AT GLADSTONE PARK.

The Greatest Gathering Ever Known in Oregon to be on Bryan Day.

Admission to the Chautauqua grounds on Bryan day, Monday, July 12, will be 25 cents, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Southern Pacific Co. will run a special train from the south on Bryan day to Gladstone Park. The train will pass Oregon City soon after dinner.

The crush at the gates on Bryan day will be very great near the hour of speaking and it will be well for all who can to go early and thus avoid the crowd.

President Miller requests all ladies of the city to bring bouquets, potted plants, and whatever else they may have to decorate the front of the platform in the Chautauqua auditorium.

Mrs. Susie Hert-Mark, the wonderful soprano of San Francisco, will sing at the grand first night concert, next Tuesday evening.

The famous Multnomah Quartette will sing at the Chautauqua concert at Gladstone Tuesday night.

Mrs. Alice Hamill-Handcock, of Chicago will be on hand to start her classes in elocution Monday morning at 9:00 a. m. at Gladstone.

The Oregon City ladies' quartet and the Heritage ladies' quartet of Salem both sing at Gladstone next Monday.

The greatest program the Chautauqua ever had opens at Gladstone Park next Tuesday. All the classes organize Tuesday morning.

The pumping station for the park is now working fine and cold, pure water is forced to all parts of the grounds.

To care for the teams and see that there is no mishaps or pilfering, there will be a dozen mounted marshals to place and look after the hundreds of vehicles that will be at the park on Bryan day.

Prof. R. A. Heritage, musical director for the assembly is drilling his chorus singers every other evening and they are attaining a fine degree of proficiency under his teaching.
