Mink Grangers to Hold a Picnic—Lutheran Church Parsonage Completed—A Fine Quire.

MINK, July 19.—Haying is over in our neighborhood and as a general rule the crop is not the very best, but still it is better than was expected on account of the long delay of rain.

Grain looks excellent around here and if this fine weather continues, the farmers, can rejoice over the abundant produce of their farms, and herald the coming of prosperity.

Mr. Massenger has taken his little daughter, who was severely burned a few years ago, to the Oregon City Hospital, where the Drs. have amputated two toes from one of her feet.

Mrs. Studeman has been quite sick lately, but is able to be around again.

The parsonage of the Lutheran church is completed, and is a neat addition to our immediate neighborhood, and a credit to the church. We understand it is to be dedicated next Sunday.

Rev. Staub, the worthy pastor of the German Congregational church is drilling the young people of the church as well as others, who are willing to learn in the art of singing, every Friday evening. And must say to his credit, he has as fine a choir of singers as could be found anywhere.

Robert Ginther, went to Logan last Saturday to attend the Grange there.

Eddie Hornschub, of this burg, and several other young men made an attempt to ascend Mt. Hood a few weeks ago, but failed to reach the top as the weather was too rough. They report having a good time going and coming.

The last Saturday in July, Central Grange, of Bever Creek, will give a grand picnic, in Hughes' grove, about 6 miles from Oregon City. Everybody is invited to come and spend the day. There will be music by the band and other amusements, and also refreshments.

Sandy News.

SANDY, July 19.—The weather has been favorable for hay making and farmers have been very busy, while their wives have been very busy preserving wild blackberries.

A great many farmers have all their hay in and the crop is not as good as was expected.

Mr. Bosham has the job of building a residence for M. Kesgar.

Justin Strowbridge has several men busy putting a new roof on his barn.

A band of two thousand sheep passed through our town the first of the week.

Three more of our young men have purchased bicycles. They are Charley Chase, Allen Meing and Mr. Shandlin. A wheelman's club will be the next thing and those who have no wheels will be in it—nit!

John and Victor Doyan were over from Grass Valley to get their threshing machine.

The largest crowd that ever attended the young people's Christian association was present last Sunday evening, and considerable interest was manifested in the lecture of Rev. Mr. Brown on "Ancient People."

Those young people who make so much noise going home should be more quiet.

Miss Iva Spooner of Portland is visiting her sunny friends here.

Marmot Notes.

MARMOT, July 16.—Twenty-nine of the Boys' Brigade, from East Portland, passed here Wednesday on their way to Portland from a very successful ascent to Mt. Hood under the leadership of Messrs Hamilton and Francis Drake. Tuesday about a dozen of the Bishop Scott academy boys passed on their way to Mt. Hood.

Mr. Heimbach, of the C. B. C. of Portland, accompanied by his wife, daughter Stella, and niece Gertrude and grandchild are out here for a few weeks recreation, and will soon be followed by some other members of the family.

Mr. A. Aschoff is in receipt of a good many letters from parties wishing to come out to spend their vacation here during the next two months. Mr. Minsinger has built a new house for his family to live in during the summer.

Our school will close August 31 and the teacher, Miss Failing, and her pupils are arranging a program for the closing exercises that will be decidedly interesting.

Trout fishing has commenced and those who go out for that sport have something to carry home and gladden the hearts of those hungry for mountain trout.

Molalla News.

MOLALLA, July 19.—Behold the ripening grain.

This week will close the Chautauqua, then everybody will come to Wilhoit Springs to clear their throats.

While shingling on a teasel dry-house last Monday, Mr. Gregory fell from the roof a distance of 20 feet, striking a stump, and barely escaped breaking his neck. Dr. Leavitt has the patient resting well at this date, with a good prospect for recovery.

John Bagby, the mountaineer, while coming out of the "Dungeon" a few days ago, narrowly escaped with his life. His pony began jumping and when John commenced taking in on the reins they both parted at the bits and he was thrown, one foot hanging in the stirrup. The unfortunate man received a kick in the back before being liberated from the running animal, and when he came to himself again the pony was breathing the breath of life in his face. He succeeded in remounting and completing the twenty mile journey home.

Photographer Jones of Silverton, who has been here with his family for some time, has gone to Hot Springs to take views of mountain scenery.
