The close season against killing deer ends the first of August and Jenks says he is going back and get some of the boys out there to kill him a deer but we will not be responsible for the slayer when he gets back into town. It will probably be a case of "Betty and I."

For The Clondyke.

The Clondyke mines continue to be the one absorbing theme of conversation, local interest being enhanced by the number of people who are going from this city to seek their own fortunes and the fortunes of those who are backing them.

Among those who are being "grubstaked" and sail on the steamer George W. Elder today, is Earnest Layton, who is being sent by Rudolph Koerner, Charles Miller, John Fildley, Sam Kilpatrick, Jas. D. McIntyre, Geo. Broughton, Otto F. Olson, Julius Peterson, A. C. Tower, James Wilkinson, Earnest Mass, and Dr. D. L. Paine. Each of these gentlemen contribute $50 to the fund and are to have one half of what Mr. Layton digs out of the mines. His family remains here and are to be looked after by members of the company. Mr. Layton's stay, like the returns from the mines, is indefinite, but each member of the company is sanguine of the results and is trying to imagine how it will feel to have nothing to do and money to throw at the birds.

J. A. Confer is another Oregon City man who will leave on the Elder to-day followed by the best wishes of a score of interested parties. His backers are Rudolph Koerner, Charles Athey, Sidney Smyth, Elmer Dixon, Wm. Andreessen, Mrs. M. E. Burmeister, Dr. D. L. Paine, Mrs. Henry Smith, G. W. Grace, Chris. Spind, George L. Storey, J. T. Gary, H. S. Gibson, Mrs. Gibson, H. Howard and P. A. Fairclough. Six of these "grubstakers" put in $100 each, eight put in $50 each and two $25 each. Mr. Confer gets one-half and the remainder, if fortune smiles upon him, is to be divided among the backers in proportion to the amount donated. J. W. Groat contributes $100 towards the maintenance of Mr. Confer's family for one-tenth of the latter's findings and Marr & Mur, $100 worth of groceries on the same conditions. The location of the claim and the prospecting, as well as the duration of the stay is left entirely to Mr. Confer's judgment.

George C. Kinney will also sail on the Elder to-day. He is backed by N. R. Long, F. E. Donaldson, O. Ohlson, D. C. Latourette, Geo. W. Swopes and one or two others whose names could not be learned.

Among the other persons who will go on their own responsibility are George A. Hamilton, Fred White, Jack Collins, Harry Moffit, R. G. Pearce, Al Fairclough and H. Stokes. J. M. Lawrence also expects to sail on the Elder for that land of golden boulders, where the springs send forth honey, and pan cakes can be had for the asking. Mr. Lawrence was stricken with the "fever" on Sunday last and may not be able to arrange his affairs so as to get away on so short notice but says he will go in February if he fails today.

C. H. Tilton, field manager of Fidelity Savings Association, of Denver, Col. will be in town on Tuesday, August 3d. Parties desiring to make applications for loans can obtain information at Thos. E. Ryan's office.

The Same Old Sarsaparilla.

That's Ayer's. The same old sarsaparilla as it was made and sold 50 years ago. In the laboratory it is different. There modern appliances lend speed to skill and experience. But the sarsaparilla is the same old sarsaparilla that made the record—50 years of cures. Why don't we better it? Well, we're much in the condition of the Bishop and the raspberry. "Doubtless," he said, "God might have made a better berry. But doubtless, also, He never did." Why don't we better the sarsaparilla? We can't. We are using the same old plant that cured the Indians and the Spaniards. It has not been bettered. And since we make sarsaparilla compound out of sarsaparilla plant, we see no way of improvement. Of course, if we were making some secret chemical compound, we might.... But we're not. We're making the same old sarsaparilla to cure the same old diseases. You can tell it's the same old sarsaparilla because it works the same old cures. It's the sovereign blood purifier, and —it's Ayer's.
