Bears and Congars Numerous About Marmot-School to Close-A Campers' Paradise.

Mannor, July 30 .- The fine weather brings out campers and Mt. Hood climbers by the score. Among the latest ones that stopped off to describe the ascent are Mr. Neusdorfer the well-known Port land hatter, and Mr. Boercher, the former went as far as the snow-line, but the latter with two other young men, guided by Mr. Yocum, ascended to the top but owing to the cloudy weather could not get the fine view that is usually presented.

Mrs. Minsinger, Miss Minsinger and Miss Stella Kitchen are now at their summer

After nearly three weeks of pleasant camping, Mr. Heimbach and family returned to Portland improved in health and

Mrs. Agatha Kelly, the Portland music teacher and singer, arrived here Monday for a couple of months recreation.

Among other arrivals for a vacation are Mrs. Morris Owens and child. Mrs. Matz with two children, Miss Stemme, Misses Bertha and Laura Robinson of South Bend, Ind., sisters of our neighbor Jerry Robinson, Miss Maggie Root of Mt. Tabor, and the Moflett family of Portland. It keeps the Aschoff family hustling to provide for the people.

A party of mountain climbers are getting ready for a trip to the top of Mt. Hood next Monday.

School closes on Tuesday, August 3d, for the present term and will begin again September 6th.

F. S Peake returned this week from a prospecting trip in the neighborhood of Williams, Jackson county, and reports good prospects.

The Clondyke fever has reached this toeality and several settlers are thinking of going there soon

Panthers seem to be numerous about Mr. Robinson's swale, and bears are leaving their tracks on Mr. Biber's place but all seem to be scarce when you hunt for them.

The party who broke into Mr. Stern's cabin, while he was taking Mrs. Shelton to her daughter in San Francisco, and stole every article that could be carried away, amounting to no less than $150 dollars, is in this neighborhood again. He took good care to leave for parts unknown as soon as he was suspected, but he will not get off so easy again should there be any clue whatever. There are a few of his kind in this community and the sooner they are handed over to the authorities the better.

The crops of cereals are looking fine and the cutting of wheat has already begun. With good weather this will be a most profitable year for farmers.

Nearly everybody in this section has the Clondyke fever, and they have it bad.

Alaska gold is circulating quite freely of late in this section and the cry for free silver is heard no more.

Borings Breezes.

Borings, August 1 .- Wheat harvest has begun. The acreage is below the average as some wheat had to be plowed up last spring because it had winter-killed.

Many people are going to the mountains, both for pleasure and to pick blackberries. Everyone reports a successful trip.

to Bullrun. They have the contract for sawing out the lumber for the new bridge which is to be built across Bullrun.

Mr. Vetsch has been very busy the last few days hauling bran from Troutdale. He buys several carloads of bran and shorts annually in Eastern Oregon and has them shipped to Troutdale.

Mrs. Welch and her grand-daughter Ada have returned from Salem where they were visiting for several weeks.

The "kids" of this place have adopted as particulars address, their yell, "Zip, zip, go bang, what's the matter with the Fern bill gang."

Clackamas Items.

CLACKAMAS, August 3 .- A. E. Holcomb is building a large addition to his drier, on account of the immense fruit crop this season. He will dry several tons.

Frank Deakins has gone east of the mountains to work at harvesting. His seasoned wood can be had, paying for it brothers, D. B. and Tom will join him in a at a date agreed upon. Call on or write few days.

Horace Knox and family left this week for a summer outing. Others are intending Twin City Notes.

PARKPLACE-GLADSTONE, August 4 .- Mrs. Mary R. Frey of Boone, Iowa, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. J. R. Seaver and Mrs. Gilman Parker, both of Gladstone. Mrs. Frey is 87 years old and made the trip entirely stone. She enjoys excellent health for such an aged person, and likes Oregon so much that this is her second journey hither, she having been here two years ago, but returned to her home in Iowa. She arrived Friday and will visit here for an indefinite period

Mrs Nathan Tingle, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs H. E. Cross, for a few weeks, returned Thursday of last week to her home in Quincy, Columbia county, Mrs. Henry Jewell and daughter, Miss Edna, and sons Bertram and Merle left on Faiday for Wilholt Springs. Bertram returned to Gladstone, Saturday but rejoined the party at Wilhost on Thursday. They intend staying about two months at that popular summer resort.

Mrs. B. S. Bellomy and daughter Rose, accompanied by an Oregon City party, left Friday for Little Nestucea, where they will seek recreation by the seaside. They traveled by team, Willie Beach holding the ribbons. Miss Estella Bracken went as far as McMinnville on the train, where she joined the pleasure seekers. They will stay about a month.

L. E. Sallsbury, Geo. Rinearson and Chas. Sandstrom left on Thursday of last week for the north fork of the Clackamas, where they intended harvesting the huckleberries and doing some shooting. They returned Monday and stated that the buckleberries were about as scarce as big game in that part of Oregon.

Fred Hargreaves left Monday for Grass Valley, where he will stay till school starts in September. He goes to visit his uncle and to seek employment. His many friends wish him success.

Misses Pearl Himler and Ada Huerth went to Portland Tuesday and will remain several days visiting friends.

Eli Rivers who, with several others, has been harvesting in the Walla Walla country, returned Tuesday. Rube Pankey, another of the same party, came back Wednesday. Both report good crops, plenty of work and few idle men, indicating that the S A Beuell to Grace L Beuell, 81/2 wave of prosperity is in evidence in that

H. Jewell went to Seattle Friday and will spend several weeks visiting his sister at that place.

The gold fever, which is raging in other parts of the country with such deadly effect, has struck our berg and, as in other large cities of the coast, forms the principal topic of conversation. Hal Sauer did not go to Clondyke, he having concluded that Oregon was good enough for him. Geo. Hamilton left on the 30th for the new El Dorado. O. S. Ohlson, W. L. Beckner, F. W. Smith and Wm Schwabauer contemplate seeking their fortunes in the frozen north, but will delay their venture until spring.

Camby News.

CANBY, August 3 .- Mrs. J. D. Stevens left today for Astoria where she will remain several days.
