FRIDAY, AUGUST 13, 1897.

Linn county, but Game Protector McGuire is after the culprits and will doubtless make an example of some of them. It might be interesting to know more of Oregon's game law and it is given here in a nut shell. Game and fish can be killed only during the following seasons: Grouse, Mongolian pheasants and quail, September 1st to December 1st. Prairie chickens, July 1st to October 1st. Wild ducks and other water fowl, September 1st to March 15th. Deer, mountain sheep, etc., August 1st to December 1st while the killing of hides or parts of carcass only is prohibited at all times. It is also unlawful to kill spotted fawn at any time. Trout, April 1st to November 1st. Salmon, December 15th to November 1st. East of the Cascades it is unlawful to kill at any season of the year, Chinese pheasants, quail or Bob White quail.

THE FOURTEENTH CHURCH BUILDING.—The trustees of the German Evangelical Lutheran Immanuel church of this city, which was incorporated some time ago, have bought the northwest corner lot on Eighth and J. Q. Adams streets and will shortly commence the erection of a church edifice 26x40 feet with a 55-foot steeply surmounting it. An addition will be built onto the back of the church in which a school will be conducted. Rev. Ernest J. W. Mack, the pastor of this denomination, is a young man of ability and energy and in the few months since his arrival in this city from the East he has greatly strengthened his church organization and added several new members to its list and has made many friends among the citizens of Oregon City. The trustees of the church are, Fred Cramer, John Roethe and W. Stover. When their church is completed, it will make the fourteenth building of its kind in and around Oregon City. This number of churches in a town the size of Oregon City speaks well for the moral and religious character of its people.

GREENMAN'S AIRSHIP.—The first airship to leave this city weighed anchor last Monday for a voyage to Ocean Park. It was built like a "Prairie Schooner" with four wheels, two on each side. The rudder was an eight foot pole fastened in front, to which were attached two bronches to furnish the motive power. The vessel was in command of Captain F. W. Greenman, and manned by Pilot E. C. Greenman. The passengers were Mrs. C. N. Greenman and Mrs. L. D. Shepherd. The style of the ship was the Alaska and Yukon flyer, No. 1. It was invented by Bert Greenman, who has also applied for a patent. It is expected that with fair weather and favorable wind the voyage will be made in two weeks. If the ship behaves well on this journey its owners expect to start for the Klondike gold fields early in the spring. When last seen the vessel was headed southwest and was stirring up enough dust to smother every thing following in its wake.

FARMER'S PICNIC.—On Saturday of this week the farmers of Tualatin, Pleasant Hill and Union precincts, will hold a grand picnic at Wilsonville. An address pertinent to the occasion will be delivered by Hon. Geo. C. Brownell, and speeches will be made by prominent citizens. A basket dinner will form one of the most interesting features of the program. A thoroughly good time is anticipated. A similar gathering will be held at Wilhoit's Springs on Saturday August 21st, at which time the farmers and campers will join in a jollification. An address by Hon. Geo. C. Brownell will be the leading feature of the day, while short speeches and music will enliven the occasion. The day promises to be one of unusual interest and pleasure and every one who can should avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy themselves.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIAL.—Crescent Union Sunday school near Jones' mill on the Abernethy, two miles northeast of Oregon City, gave a literary and ice cream social in the Methodist chapel at that place last Saturday evening which was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. At the close of the literary exercises Hon. H. E. Cross was introduced as one who had been superintendent of the school for three consecutive years. He was given an ovation as he came down the aisle. His talk was on Sunday schools and Sunday school work timely and duly appreciated. Miss Lena Nemyre, of Oregon City, sang two solos with autoharp accompaniment and was accorded rounds of applause for her effort.

WRIGHT'S SPRINGS RESORT.—Messrs. Havard & Shadinger have purchased the park at Wright's Springs embracing some five acres which form one of the finest groves in the country. Several large springs yielding clear, cold water are one of the natural attractions of the park and the many improvements made for the entertainment of guests including a hall 28x50 feet and a well-appointed boarding house. A stable has been erected for the accommodation of teams. These improvements together with the short distance from Oregon City, it being situated twelve miles south-east of town, makes it one of the most attractive resorts in the county.

HOUSE FOR RENT.—A new, seven-room cottage, hard finished, with pantry, bath-room, wash and wood room will be rented cheap to the right person. Furnished if desired. Call at this office.

A LAWS PARTY.—Miss Mary McIntyre, who left for Lacon, Illinois, last Monday, where she will remain a year, was given a farewell lawn party by L. C. Driggs's Sunday school class, of which she was a member, at the home of J. M. Lawrence on the southeast corner of Adams and Eleventh street last Saturday evening. With games, conversation, and refreshments the evening was most pleasantly spent.

OCEOLA BAND ENTERTAINS.—A very pleasant lawn party and social dance was given at Myers' farm on Molalla avenue on Saturday of last week, under the auspices of Oceola brass band. Dancing and light refreshments were indulged in until a late hour, when the company departed for home, well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

John Griffin, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agony, until a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal troubles, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Geo. A. Harding.

DOKE WITH A KNIFE.—Those fine, juicy steaks and prime roasts to be obtained at Albright's meat market are all done with a knife in the hand of an expert cutter.

It Is Greatly To Your Interest

To consider the wisdom of this little bit of plain advice we are going to give you about tea. Tea is as little understood by the average merchants as by the average consumer. He may charge you 75 cents for a tea worth 25 cents and still not make a large profit. He buys his teas like the consumer, from appearance solely. The fact is, the prettiest looking teas are artificially colored and have lead, terra-alba and other matter added to increase their weight. It's small wonder so many people prefer coffee and don't care for tea. A pound of pure tea will make from 200 to 250 cups. It is therefore not expensive. As it is the principal beverage of nearly three-quarters of the people of the earth it must be considered wholesome. Our stock is a feature of our business. We carry the largest stock and greatest variety. We can make you all tea drinkers if you'll give us a chance to find what suits your taste, and you will never regret it. Samples cost you nothing.

E. E. WILLIAMS,
The Grocer.

A Merchant's Chance.
Being compelled to change climate on account of ill health I will sell my stock of goods, store fixtures, etc. at Liberal. Goods all new and salable. No indebtedness of any kind on property and no credit business done. Location one of the best in Clackamas county, being in the midst of the famous Molalla country and 12 miles from Oregon City, by turnpike road. Will resign the postoffice which could be secured by the right person. Trade is steadily growing and the big crops which the farmers will have, make it still better with the opening of the fall trade. Will give the right person the best bargain ever offered in this section as I must leave Oregon before the rainy season sets in.
F. T. WILLETT.

Attention Campers.

McClure's Magazine
For 1897
SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.)

Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begins in November.)

Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished. (Begins in May.)

Chas. A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studies under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Picture of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction.

Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaboriau.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS

Ian Maclaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McClure's Magazine.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories.

Rudyard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McClure's all of the short stories he will write during the coming year.

Octave Thanet is preparing for the Magazine a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself.

Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr
Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weyman Clark Russell will all have stories in McClure's for the coming year.

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McClure's Magazine for 1897, the subscription price of which is only

One Dollar a Year

The new volume begins with November. Subscriptions should start with this number.
