Mrs. Ezra Fisher.

The following extract is taken from the Quincy, Illinois, Whig of Sunday, August 1st furnished us through the courtesy of Mr. Thomas Pope, of that city, who will be remembered by the old settlers of Oregon City and Clackamas county as a resident of this city some 40 years ago, when he conducted a general merchandise store on Main street where the north wing of the woolen mill now stands in connection with George Abernethy, the provisional governor of Oregon. Mr. Pope remained in business a few years when he sold out and returned to Quincy, Illinois, where he has resided and been engaged in the farming implement business. He made his Oregon City friends a visit about 10 years ago. He has a son in San Francisco, T. Edward Pope, who is general manager of the Pennsylvania fire insurance company for the Pacific Coast. Thomas Pope is an uncle of T. A. Pope, of the firm of Pope & Co., the well-known hardware merchants of this city. Mr. Pope is remembered as a kindly disposed, quiet, unassuming, straight forward, energetic business man. The extract is as follows:

"It will interest the old citizens of Quincy, to know that quite recently Mrs. Amelia Fisher, now of Albany, Ore. second wife and widow of Rev. Ezra Fisher, the first pastor of the Baptist church in Quincy, attended the fiftieth anniversary services of the founding of the Baptist church in Oregon City, Ore.

Mrs. Fisher was requested to make an address, but had prepared a statement which was read. Rev. E. Fisher was one of the pastors of that church in the early fifties. He died some twenty years later.

Mr. Fisher was one of the speakers at the anti-slavery meeting held in the Congregational church in Quincy, in 1836 when it was attacked by a mob. The attack had been expected, was prepared for, and the assailants put to inglorious flight.

Mrs. Fisher is in her 96th year a beautiful example of prolonged life, consecrated to faithful service."

Sarsaparilla Sense.

Any sarsaparilla is sarsaparilla. True. So any tea is tea. So any flour is flour. But grades differ. You want the best. It's so with sarsaparilla. There are grades. You want the best. If you understood sarsaparilla as well as you do tea and flour it would be easy to determine. But you don't. How should you?

When you are going to buy a commodity whose value you don't know, you pick out an old established house to trade with, and trust their experience and reputation. Do so when buying sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has been on the market fifty years. Your grandfather used Ayer's. It is a reputable medicine. There are many sarsaparillas. But only one Ayer's. IT CURES.
