Oregon City Oregon. Fine Grain Yield.

W. H. Bonney has been operating his big steam threshing machine in the Mt. Pleasant and Maple Lane neighborhoods this week. He reports both wheat and oats turning out well and of plendid quality. Mr. Bonney was in Oction City Tuesday and bought two threshing machine books at this office, for use with his machine this season, He used one of these books last year and states that by the aid of the blanks, which are in duplicate, one part being for the machine man and the other for the owner of the grain, and which shows the amount and kind of grain threshed each day, who for, and the rate, his accounts with his patrons were so accurate that he did not have one bill disputed. They are in fact a complete statement of account with the necessary blanks for receipting when paid. They are pocket size and Mr. Bonney states that he would not be without one of these books since he has found them such a convenience.

When to Sow Crimson Clover.

According to rules laid down by an agricultural writer in The American in enumerating necessary lines of pub-Cultivator, crimson clover ought to be He imprevements, named the public sown broadcast at the rate of 12 to 15 schools and highways. Arrested for Horsestealing.

Justice Schuebel issued a warrant Tuesday on complaint of Grant Criteser who Amelia Barreth, charging her with horsestealing. Critser alleges that Miss Barreth went to his pasture Monday, left a good horse which she rode to Salem,

Chief Burns immediately telephoned to Salem and D. W. Gibson, of the Salem police force, arrested the girl at her last year, which is accounted for by the on the amount of the delinquent taxes father's home a few miles east of the city, during the afternoon, took her to Salem, on the overland Tuesday night and brought the prisoner to this city Wednesday morning.

The arraignment was deferred until Thursday morning in order to give her father time to be present at the trial, but he failed either to come or send any word. The girl admitted she stole the horse and was sentenced to spend 25 days in the county jail in lieu of the $50 fine she was unable to pay.

Miss Barreth is undoubtedly a monomanic on the borse question. A short time since she took Dr. J. W. Norris' horse from the alley near Trembath's saloon, in plain sight of Main street, where the Doctor had left him while be went up to his office a few minutes, and rode the animal out to her parents' home near Jones' sawmill, where they then resided and where the horse was found the next day. After this escapade the neighbors had her sent to the Boy's and Girl's Aid society in Portland. The society put her in a good home at The Dalles but she ran away and came back to Clackamas county and staved for a time on a farm run by a couple of men, who got rid of her as soon as they could. While on the ranch she evinced a passion for horses, catching one and riding it over the pasture whenever she could and just before she left she brought in an old plug which she claimed she had paid $5 for. The young lady has been implicated in the temporary disappearance of other horses but has never before been held to answer for her deeds.

The Marketing Point

OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY

The factory towns of the East are noted for affording the best market to the neighboring farmers and gardeners in proportion to the population of any of the towns in that section. The reason for this is that the people of these towns have a fixed income upon which they can always depend, and, as a consequence, they are liberal buyers, paying cash for all their purchases.

As the Great Manufacturing Center of the Pacific Coast

OREGON

Is Coming to be One of the Best Marketing Towns in the State

This is proven every day by the number of farmers, who are to be seen on its streets selling their produce, who, until just the last few years, sought the markets of other towns. The system of macadamized roads that is being built into all parts of Clackamas county, will enable all the people of this county to share in the profitable market that Oregon City affords. If, as it is sure to do, the demands of Oregon City increase in the next five years as it has in the past five years, this city will rank next to Portland as a market place for
