

Oregon City Enterprise.

PERSONAL NOTES.

COURTS. Circuit court convenes first Monday in November and third Monday in April.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1897.

SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

ASHLAND PEACHES—Direct shipments. Finest quality. Prices right.

Money to loan on good real estate security by A. S. Dresser.

Hop tickets on best tough check printed at this office at bed rock prices.

Prices will appreciate from now on. The time to select a home in Gladstone is now.

Ice cream and ice cream soda every day, rain or shine at the Novelty Candy Factory.

Campers and hop-pickers outfits furnished at bedrock prices at Young's second hand store.

A lot of trimmed hats and sailors at half price. Bargain prices on ribbons, flowers, purses etc., at the Red Front.

Don't fail to see our stock and get our prices before buying your Crawford peaches.

Call at Reddaway's candy store on Main street, Prior's old stand and get prices of all kinds of wood.

H. A. Pittinger, the real estate man, postoffice building, has a number of the best bargains in city and country property ever offered in Oregon City.

Stop that cough! Take warning. It may lead to consumption. A 25c bottle of Shiloh's Cure may save your life.

For a quiet place to hitch your horses away from the motor line and a place to get a first class job of repairing or horse shoeing call on S. F. Scripture's shop on Fifth street.

The Red Front sells Arm & Hammer soda at 4c pound, 2lb, Arbuckles or Lion coffee 25c, axle grease 7c, machine castor oil cut to 25c gal. vaseline 15c pound (3/4 price) bring can.

No man or woman can enjoy life or accomplish much in this world while suffering from a torpid liver. De Witt's Little Early Risers, the pills that cleanse that organ, quickly.

Karl's Clover Root Tea, for Constipation it's the best and if after using it you don't say so, return the package and get your money. Sold by Charman & Co., druggists, Oregon City.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot.

You run no risk. All druggists guarantee Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic to do all that the manufacturers claim for it. Warrented no cure, no pay.

Thrashing machine books, the simplest and best form ever devised for keeping accounts between farmer and machine-man as to amount of grain threshed and rate charged. It is in duplicate form so no dispute can arise as to the bill.

Malarial produces Weakness, General debility Biliousness, loss of appetite, indigestion and constipation. Grove's Tasteless Chill tonic removes the cause which produces these troubles.

It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so.

McClure's magazine for September will contain a thorough practical and useful article on "Life in the Klondike Gold Fields."

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

Mrs. Sarah Huntley is sojourning at Wilhoit springs.

Henry Pusoy visited his parents at Barlow on Wednesday.

Mrs. R. L. McClure and children are visiting friends in Salem.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery made a business trip to Albany Wednesday.

City Recorder and Mrs. T. F. Ryan are sojourning at Wilhoit Springs.

L. Moshberger, a prominent Molalla farmer, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Miller returned on Monday from their outing at Wilhoit springs.

Mrs. George A. Harding and family returned from Wilhoit springs yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. R. Glasspool and Mrs. John M. Graham will leave for Sea View Saturday for an outing.

Mrs. F. T. Rogers went to Gervais Monday, where she will spend several days visiting her parents.

Robt. Wilkinson, a weaver in the woolen mills, will return Saturday from a week's stay at Waterloo.

Attorney and Mrs. A. S. Dresser spent last Sunday in Portland with Mrs. Dresser's mother, Mrs. J. N. Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Cowing of Astoria were in the city Wednesday, to attend the Cowing-Smith nuptials.

Miss Ellen Garrison, of Forest Grove, is in the city the guest of her friend, Miss Edna Tabor, of Mt. Pleasant.

George Wilehart, one of Oregon City's expert tonsorial artists, made a business trip to the metropolis Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ruth Porter, of Ilwaco, is making an extended visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Warner, of Mt. Pleasant.

Rev. W. O. Forbes, of Portland, Presbyterian Synodical missionary for Oregon, visited Rev. A. J. Montgomery on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Pillsbury will occupy the residence on the corner of Water and Seventh street about September 15th.

Frank L. De Parco of Portland was in Oregon City Wednesday to attend the wedding of his brother-in-law, Tom F. Cowing.

W. S. Rider, of Oregon City, was a guest of his brother, O. D. Rider, last week, returning Monday.—Independence West Side.

Miss Hannah Stromgreen returned last Saturday from Netart's bay, where she spent two weeks very pleasantly with friends.

Reginald Hidden, the talented young violinist of Vancouver who played at the Chautauqua assembly this year, was in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sladen, who have been rusticating at Clatsop Beach for the past two weeks, will return to Oregon City Monday of next week.

Otto Genglebach, of Clackamas, justice of the peace of the Clackamas and Milwaukie district, was transacting business in the county seat Monday.

Max Praecht, of Ashland, special United States land inspector, was in Oregon City Friday and Saturday looking after business connected with his office.

Prof. F. G. Young, of Eugene, was in town several days last week, collecting historical data of the pioneer days of Oregon. He returned to Salem Monday.

Mrs. Louis R. Stinson and two sons, Logan and Leslie came down from Salem Monday and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Stinson's brother, H. Ley, at Highland.

Mrs. Andrew Kan, wife of the well-known Japanese merchant of Portland, accompanied by her children and an American lady, was in Oregon City last Saturday viewing the sights of our town.

Mrs. M. A. Stratton, of Portland, who formerly resided in this city, her husband, since deceased, having been manager of the Oregon City woolen mills, was in the city last Friday visiting old-time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Catta, Mrs. Wm. Lankens and Mrs. N. G. Clark, of Bolton, returned from Ocean Park last Saturday, where they spent a short season enjoying the cool breezes of that delightful retreat.

Grafton Cheney, foreman of the Courier office, went to Long Beach last Saturday, where he is spending a couple of weeks principally bathing in old ocean and incidentally breaking the hearts of the young lady sojourners.

Mr. and Mrs. George Howard returned Saturday evening from the lower Columbia, where they have been spending the past week at St. Helens visiting Mrs. Howard's parents.

B. E. Courtright, who owns a farm at Redland, has made several trips into the city this week delivering wood. Since the roads have been improved between Oregon City and his place he makes two trips each day, while before he could only make one.

A. C. Keech, of Randolph, New York, is in the city making an extended visit with his sister, Mrs. A. J. Washburn, of Parkplace. Mr. Keech came by way of California, revisiting the scenes familiar to him in the days of '49, when he came west in search of gold.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands.

Johnny Anderson returned Monday from a two week's visit with friends in Oakland, Calif. He has resumed his position on the East Side Railway.

T. A. Ely, Chas. Moran, J. M. Harrington and W. H. Savage left Tuesday morning for the upper Clackamas, where they will spend several days prospecting.

Mrs. S. Ackerman will remove to Portland about the first of September, where she will reside in future. Her daughter, Miss Lorena, has a position in the public schools of that city.

Mrs. John Lewthwaite, and her daughter, Miss Alice, and her son, Will, left by steamer for San Francisco Wednesday night, where they will visit friends and relatives for several weeks.

E. A. Smith and J. W. Loder conducted services at Logan last Sunday, the former preaching the sermon and the latter leading the singing. The attendance was quite large and the services greatly enjoyed.

F. A. Toepelman, Dr. J. W. Powell, W. N. Godfrey and families returned from their summer outing on the upper Abernathy last Monday. They all report a pleasant time and seem greatly benefitted by the trip.

Prof. T. J. Gary, the recently elected principal of the West Oregon City school, moved to the city Tuesday from Milwaukee and will occupy, with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Gary, Dr. Paine's cottage on the West Side.

Henry Salisbury, the plumber in Pope's hardware store, and Malcolm McCown, the special constable, will leave Saturday for Clear lake, about 15 miles beyond Mt. Hood, where they will breathe the pure air of the mountains for a week.

Ivan Strickler, accompanied by his friend, Berl Campbell, left yesterday for Salem. They leave Salem Thursday in a skiff for home, floating down the Willamette until Oregon City is reached. They anticipate a delightful as well as a novel outing.

Miss Gladys M. Jones, formerly of Beaver creek and lately of Oswego, holds one of the highest church choir positions in the Northwest, being contralto soloist in the First Presbyterian church of Portland. The position was formerly held by Mrs. Walter Reed.

Miss Ella Hoberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Hoberg, formerly of this city but now of Portland, has been given the position of leader of the First Christian church choir of that city. Miss Hoberg has shown considerable musical ability and this is a just recognition of her talent in that line.

Albert Wright, a leading farmer and capitalist of Heppner, Oregon, was in the city last Friday and Saturday, the guest of his old-time friend, Major Thos. Charman. Mr. Wright was one of the early settlers of Clackamas county, having come to Oregon in 1853 and settled at Redland, where he resided until 1872, when he removed to his present home in Eastern Oregon.

Lester M. Leland, of Liberal, is an example of what a farmer boy can do when he makes up his mind to accomplish anything. Mr. Leland took a course in the Agricultural college, graduating with high honors, passed the civil service examination and is now in the railway mail service.

John F. Clark, manager of the Clackamas Abstract and Trust Co., returned on Monday from a month's outing in the Santiam mountains spent in company with Fred Toner and Joe Sibley, of Dallas. The party traversed the Minto mountain, Fish lake and Blue river countries and report an excellent time.

H. S. Cram, one of our most energetic young men, who for the past two years has been the junior partner in the firm of Wheeler & Cram, owners of the Novelty candy store and oyster parlors in this city, left Thursday to join his father who resides 30 miles northeast of Prineville, where he owns a large cattle ranch.

A pair of gold spectacles was lost last Sunday, between the postoffice and Mrs. M. E. Barlow's residence. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at Geo. A. Harding's drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jaguar returned Tuesday from their outing at Sea View.

Miss Veva Wright, of Portland, is spending the week visiting Miss Vera Pillsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Depew and Mrs. Richen spent Sunday and Monday with friends at Needy.

Gerald Kelleher, Tom Morisey, and John Finley returned last week from California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huntley and daughter, Louise, are sojourning at Clatskanie.

Misses Kate and Nellie Leary and Mr. Ross, of Portland, spent Sunday with Miss Ellen Gleason.

Miss Azale Cochrane returned from her California trip on Monday and reports a delightful time.

Joe Austin and M. J. Gleason returned Monday evening from a couple of week's sojourn in San Francisco.

Miss Mollie Hankins and her sister Miss Lulu, returned on Friday from their outing at Wilhoit springs.

Grace Miller, who has been visiting relatives in Portland for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

Miss Alice Glasspool returned from Sea View Wednesday, where she spent a couple of weeks very pleasantly.

Mrs. H. D. Glass returned on Monday from Alsea, where she spent the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Fullerton.

Mrs. C. N. Greenman, Mrs. Lillie Shephard and Fred and Bert Greenman returned from Netart's bay Wednesday in their air ship.

Mrs. R. A. Miller returned Thursday from "The Lilacs," her old home, ten miles from Salem, where she has spent a delightful summer.

Miss May Lewthwaite, who has been spending several weeks in this city, left for her home in Oakland, California, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. S. M. McCown and family and Mrs. Geo. O. Rinearson and children, are spending the week camping at the high bridge, on the Clackamas.

Miss Hattie E. Pierce, a teacher in the Gresham school, and Miss Susie Deal, a teacher in the Union school, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Strange this week.

James Oliver, the genial conductor on the East Side Railway Co.'s, cars, returned Tuesday with his family from the seaside, where they have spent the last two weeks.

Misses Dorothy and Sade Chase will leave on the steamer next Monday evening for Stanford university, where they will attend school. This is Miss Dorothy's third year and will be Miss Sade's first year.

Mrs. L. M. Fuller, of Portland, is still confined to her room, suffering from the effects of an accident to her foot, while leaving one of the O. R. & N. Co.'s, boats about nine weeks ago. The best wishes of many friends will find fruition in her complete and speedy recovery.

Harry Swafford, son of E. J. Swafford, of Salem, who has been visiting his uncle, J. L. Swafford of this city for several weeks past, left for his home Tuesday to be ready to enter Willamette university at the beginning of the school year. Harry has been elected laboratory assistant in chemistry department.

Rev. W. N. Meserve, who was for several years pastor of Union Square Baptist church, San Francisco, and is now taking a vacation from his pastoral duties, spending it in traveling through Oregon, Washington and British Columbia, was in Oregon City Thursday. He expressed himself as very well pleased with Oregon City, and said that a future was in store for our town.

L. G. Garnett, formerly superintendent of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Mills of this city, but who for the last two years has resided in Portland, where he has been manager of the Oregon Agricultural and Rural Northwest, is now superintendent of the La'amas paper mills. Mr. Garnett is a thorough paper maker and his Oregon City friends are glad to learn of his good fortune.

Prof. Frank Rigler, city superintendent of the Portland schools, was in Oregon City last Saturday making brief calls on old friends and attending to some business matters. Prof. Rigler was a former principal of the Oregon City schools and has a host of friends in this city who are proud of the honor that has been bestowed upon him by the Portland school board in placing him in charge of the school system of that city.

Prof. Frank Rigler was a former principal of the Oregon City schools and has a host of friends in this city who are proud of the honor that has been bestowed upon him by the Portland school board in placing him in charge of the school system of that city.

Prof. Frank Rigler was a former principal of the Oregon City schools and has a host of friends in this city who are proud of the honor that has been bestowed upon him by the Portland school board in placing him in charge of the school system of that city.

A pair of gold spectacles was lost last Sunday, between the postoffice and Mrs. M. E. Barlow's residence. Finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving them at Geo. A. Harding's drug store.

Advertisement for Bubbles or Medals, featuring a circular border and text describing a contest for sarsaparilla.

Advertisement for White Bronze Monuments, including an illustration of a monument and text about its durability and cost.

Advertisement for The Review of Reviews, Monthly Illustrated, edited by Albert Shaw, featuring a globe illustration.

Testimonial for The Review of Reviews, praising its content and global reach.

THE REVIEW OF REVIEWS CO., 13 Astor Place, New York.

Large advertisement for McClure's Magazine, For 1897, featuring Seven Great Serials and a list of authors and titles.