FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1897.

THE LAND OF ROSES.—If any one doubts that Oregon, and especially Clackamas county, can raise roses which are not excelled by any other state in the union, they should examine two rose bushes which Mrs. F. T. Barlow has growing in her yard. The smaller one of the bushes is a Marechal Niel, which, when budded in June, had a stem three or four inches in height. It now measures 38 inches, having made a growth of 34 inches since that time. The other bush, a Crimson Rambler, was six or seven inches high in June and now measures 10 feet and one inch. Such a thrifty growth of rose bushes proves more conclusively than anything else that Clackamas county is extra well adapted to rose culture.

CHAUTAQUA CIRCLE TO MEET.—The members of McLaughlin Chautauqua circle will hold the first meeting of the winter at the home of E. E. Charman on the corner of Main and Ninth streets on next Monday evening. The business of this meeting will be to organize and formulate plans for the winter's course of study. The Chautauqua circle has become an institution in every progressive town, and without boasting, Oregon City can claim a bright, up-to-date circle whose influence is felt in the culture of our town. As this is the first meeting of the season, all the members are requested to be present.

PENSION EXAMINERS.—The board of medical examiners for pensions recently appointed for Clackamas county by the United States pension bureau through the efforts of Congressman Tongue in response to a petition from the Grand Army men of the county, met last week and organized by electing Dr. J. W. Norris, president; Dr. W. E. Carl, secretary and Dr. D. L. Paine, treasurer. The regular meetings of the board will be held on the first and third Wednesdays in each month at the office of Dr. Norris in Willamette block. The first meeting will be held next Wednesday, September 15.

EXCURSION RATES DISCONTINUED.—The East Side Railway Company and the Oregon City Transportation Company have discontinued their special Sunday excursion rates whereby the round trip could be made from Oregon City to Portland for 25 cents, tickets being good on either the car or boat. With the opening of the excursion season next spring, the 25 cent Sunday rates will probably be resumed. In the meantime full fare must be paid on Sunday.

A CHAMPION PEAR TREE.—R. H. Taber of Mt. Pleasant left at this office last week a box of 20 pears, whose weight was 35 pounds, all picked from a Bartlett pear tree three years old grown from the graft in his orchard. While it is not an uncommon occurrence for a two or three year old apple or pear tree to bear here in Oregon, the number on this tree of Mr. Taber's is unusually large for one so young.

FAREWELL SOCIAL.—The farewell social for Rev. T. L. Jones has been postponed until Wednesday evening, September 15, when it will be held in the Methodist church. No admission fee will be charged but a free will offering will be received at the door. A good musical program will be rendered and ice cream and cake served.

September Ladies' Home Journal.

The September Ladies' Home Journal, in the variety, interest and timeliness of its articles, and in the beauty of its illustrations, is a notable number of that magazine. A spirited article by John F. Coyle. "When Henry Clay Said Farewell to the Senate," describes the most impressive and dramatic scene ever enacted in Congress, and another, by Clifford Howard, tells of "Destroying a Million Dollars a Day," the task of the redemption division of our Treasury. Elizabeth Bissland in "The Difference Between Mrs. A and Mrs. B," defines the exactness that "The Four hundred," or the dominating social circle of communities, imposes on an aspirant for admission to its ranks.

The second part of Hamlin Garland's serial, "The Spirit of Sweetwater," will appeal to every reader of romance, and the first of Mrs. Mark Morrison's "The Pixies and the Elaines" series will charm every child who may follow the adventures of those winsome fairies. A composition for the piano, "Golden Vineyard Waltzes," the musical feature of the magazine, is regarded by its famous composer, Edward Jakobowski, as one of his best. Edward W. Bok, with characteristic directness, discusses "On Being Old-Fashioned," and other topics of especial concern to women. William Martin Johnson describes and pictures "Floral Effects for Home Weddings," and Walter Germain tells of "The Groom's Part in the wedding." Other articles that have special, practical value detail how photography can be successfully pursued as a profession by women; tell of "The Best Shade Trees for Small Gardens," give advice in nursing the sick; explain and picture some striking household decorations, etc.

Mrs. Rorer's cooking lesson treats of "Making Bread and Rolls," and she also points out "Small Leakages of a Household," and how to prevent them. The fashion articles on winter gowns, hats, coats and jackets by Isabel A. Mallon, have the value of being profusely illustrated by photographs from the latest Paris designs. There are also poems, various short sketches, and the departments; so there is nothing lacking to make the September Journal a complete family magazine. By the Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia; ten cents per copy; one dollar per year.

There will be the usual services in the Baptist church on Sunday, the pastor preaching morning and evening. A week from Sunday the pastor will begin a series of Sunday evening sermons on Bible Doctrine "As We See It," discussing some of the great questions of Christian doctrine from a Baptist point of view.

For Young Men and Young Women

There is nothing that will arouse the ire of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's barber shop.

Study of American Fashionable Life.

Julien Gordon (Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger) has used for her last novel a study of New York, Newport and Boston life, which promises to be read with wide interest by all who are interested in American fashionable life. No one knows the society of these three centers of fashion better than Mrs. Cruger. From her girlhood up she has had every opportunity to observe, and we have had no American woman of more brilliant powers, not only of reading the human heart, but of putting her impressions in delightful fashion.

A charmingly fresh Massachusetts girl is sacrificed in her youth to the ambition of a "rich marriage." Deprived of love, she throws herself into the race for social leadership, and we follow for twenty years, with ever-increasing interest, the career of this able and beautiful woman as she captures outpost after outpost, failing in Boston only to change her base of operations to England, and then attacking the main works of the enemy at New York, and so on to Newport, and finally beholds the capitulation of Boston itself. The first chapters open in the September Cosmopolitan.

Low Excursion Rates.

The Southern Pacific will make a one fare rate from all points on their lines in Oregon to the Oregon state fair which opens September 30 and closes October 8. A big harvest and a big fair. With the present crop prospects and the extremely low railroad rate of one fare for the round trip, the people of Oregon can afford to patronize the State fair that benefits all classes. Popular admission of 25 cents.
