Last Thursday G. W. and Martha I. Walling filed notices of two mining claims, located on the south fork of the Molalla river, and called Molalla Diggings, also claiming the right to use 1000 feet of water from the stream. Robert Miller filed notice of a placer claim called White Rock, on the north fork of Eagle creek.

There are some people who are never positive in anything. It is always, "I don't know," or "I guess so." There is a world of such people, and it is refreshing sometimes to hear a person speak as one having convictions, like Mr. Chas. F. Sunder, of Bangor, Pa. who wrote: "I can heartily recommend Simmons Liver Regulator to all who are troubled with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint.

"My boy came home from school one day with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain," says Mr. E. J. Schall, with Meyer Bros. Drug Co., St. Louis, Mo. "I dressed the wound, and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely. All pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Geo. A. Harding.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Judge Gordon E. Hayes made a short business trip to the capital city last Saturday.

Miss E. Wattress, of Salem, is visiting the families of H. L. Kelly and Chief of Police Burns.

J. M. Tracy, a prominent citizen of Logan, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday.

G. W. Scramlin, merchant and the new postmaster at Macksburg, was in Oregon City Monday.

Miss Mary E. Conyers went to Clatskanie Thursday afternoon for a week's visit under the paternal roof.

Pearl Beaman, of Parkplace who has been working in Eastern Oregon all summer, returned home Thursday.

Miss Echo Samson returned Saturday afternoon from a visit of two weeks with relatives at Silverton and Mt. Angel.

Miss Jean Yonger returned Friday evening from Little Nestucca, where she very pleasantly spent a couple of weeks.

Mrs. R. L. Holman and children returned on Sunday from Seattle, where several weeks were spent with Mrs. Holman's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson, mine host and hostess of the Electric hotel, returned last Friday from a two weeks outing at Little Nestucca.

County Judge G. P. Terrell of Salem was in Oregon City Wednesday attending to some county business with the Clackamas county officials.

Grant Chapman, one of the Willamette Pulp & Paper mill boys, left Friday for Stockton, California, where he will spend two weeks visiting his mother.

Guido Clark and Howard Brownell left Tuesday afternoon for Forest Grove where they will attend Pacific university at that place during the winter.

W. H. Howell, H. E. Straight, H. C. Salisbury and A. Muhlin were angling for speckled beauties the first day of the week and report indifferent success.

John and Ada Moehne left for Albany Monday, where they will attend school at the Albany college, the former going on his wheel and the latter by train.

Dr. C. E. Bailey, who formerly conducted a drug store in this city, has been clerking in Woodward & Clark's drug store in Portland for several months.

Wm. Robinson of Toronto, Canada, father of M. W. Robinson of the Electric hotel, arrived in town Monday evening. He will spend the winter with his son here.

Will Beach and Fred Smith left today for Corvallis where they will attend the State Agricultural college at that place. This is their second year at that institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bellamy of Francis, Wash., are spending the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Howard of Gladstone. Mr. Bellamy is an uncle of Mrs. Howard.

Mrs. John Gilmore, of St. Helens, spent the past week visiting her daughter, Mrs. George T. Howard, of Gladstone and Mrs. Seward Rasmussen of Willamette Falls.

Charles Pope was seen wending his way toward the hop yards in the Canby neighborhood early Sunday morning a wheel. It is said he has "one" or more friends in that vicinity.

E. L. Johnson, the well-known barber went up to his old home at Silverton Tuesday morning, where he will remain until Friday visiting friends and incidentally trying to bag a few pheasants.

The family of Seymour S. Bass, assistant superintendent of the Clackamas hatchery, arrived in Oregon City Tuesday from California, their former home, and will hereafter reside at the hatchery.

E. E. Charman went up to his Elmo farm near Suver in Polk county Tuesday, where he will remain for a week looking after the disposition of his large crop. He was accompanied by G. W. Hannegan, who will enjoy a few days shooting.

Eletha Cumins, of Mick, sister of Mrs. L. Stout, came into the city last Saturday to spend the winter with her sister and attend school. She has graduated from the local school and is now taking a step higher in attending the Oregon City high school.

Judge J. W. Meldrum and family and Mr. and Mrs. George Steele returned Monday evening from a two week's camping trip in the vicinity of Mt. Hood. They report an excellent time, and among an abundance of other game they succeeded in killing four deer.

Miss Constance Holland returned to her home in Salem on the overland Tuesday evening after visiting several weeks with Oregon City and Portland friends. "Connie" will matriculate at Corvallis college at the opening of that school next week.

Celebrate for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulteration common to the cheap brands.

F. R. Charman will go to Corvallis Saturday to be present at the opening of the Agricultural college and see his son Fred matriculate.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Meresse and family returned Saturday from Netarts bay, where they spent two months very pleasantly and profitably.

R. A. Booth, business manager of the Grant's Pass Sugar Pine Manufacturing Company, was in town Wednesday, the guest of Rev. T. L. Jones.

W. E. Lethwaite, an employe of the Crown Paper mills, returned Sunday from a stay of three weeks in San Francisco and Stockton, California.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Porter, Miss Jessie Porter and Miss Clara Kellogg returned Wednesday from the hop yards near Aurora. The girls look brown, fat and saucy.

Dr. J. M. Wells, who has been associated with Dr. J. W. Powell for the past five months, left last Saturday for Boston, Mass., where he will make his future home.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence and little daughter and Mrs. C. O. T. Williams returned Thursday afternoon from their outing in the hopfield. They look as though their vacation had agreed with them.

James D. McIntyre, assistant foreman in the wool room of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, went to Salem Wednesday to visit friends for awhile. He expects to extend his visit to Albany and Newport before his return.

Constable and Mrs. M. F. McCown, Mr. and Mrs. John Jennings, Miss Cornelia McCown and Malcolm McCown left Wednesday for an outing at Clear Lake, 15 miles beyond Mt. Hood. They will be absent a couple of weeks.

Dr. Sellers, of Mt. Moriah, Missouri, who has been visiting his friend, J. M. Warnock, for several months, left for his home Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Kate Warnock, who will remain a year in Missouri with the hope of benefiting her health.

Fred C. Charman, will leave Saturday for Corvallis, where he will attend the Agricultural college for the winter. Fred is a graduate of the Oregon City high school, and the son of one of our well-known merchants. He is a bright boy and will doubtless make a good record for himself.

John W. Loder, the attorney, went to McMinnville Tuesday to attend the opening of the college at that place and also to see that E. A. Smith matriculated properly. On leaving McMinnville, Mr. Loder will stop for a couple of days visit with his parents at Carleton before returning to Oregon City.

Ira D. Wishart, who has been employed in Charman & Co's. drug store for three years will leave Sunday for Corvallis to attend school. He will take the laboratory course to fit him for his chosen profession of pharmacy. Ira is an industrious, painstaking young man and should make a pharmacist of more than average ability.

E. P. Carter, a well-known farmer and a republican of some prominence in the Molalla precinct, was in Oregon City Wednesday arranging some business matters preparatory to taking a trip to Arizona. Mr. Carter will leave next week and will spend the winter in that territory in the hopes that the dry climate will relieve a severe catarrh and throat trouble that now afflicts him. His family will remain at the farm and he expects to return home in time for spring work.

E. A. Smith, who has held the position of shipping clerk in the Portland flouring mills of this city for the past seven years, has resigned his position and left Tuesday morning for McMinnville to attend school at the Baptist college at that place. "Rastus," as he is familiarly known to his friends, who are legion, has decided to make the preaching of the gospel his life work and after graduating at McMinnville college will probably complete his education at Colgate university at Hamilton, New York. He was an earnest, faithful worker in the church, Sunday school and young people's society and his departure leaves a void that will be hard to fill. His position at the mill will be filled temporarily by L. Fiester, of Canemah, and it is said that Leighton Kelly will be given the permanent position when he returns from his surveying trip in Idaho.

R. S. McLaughlin, of Milwaukee, was transacting business in this city Wednesday. He is engaged in farming and fruit raising and states that the farmers of his section have had fine crops and saved their grain in splendid shape, and are now gathering their fruit, much of which is being dried, though considerable has been shipped green to market.

Hon. T. T. Geer came down from Salem Saturday afternoon and looked over the Oregon City land office, to which position he has been recommended by the Oregon delegation in congress and later in the day went on to Portland, Tuesday he returned to his home in Marion county, still undecided as to whether he will accept or not.

A. L. Yoder, son of J. S. Yoder, of Snyrna, will leave next Monday for Corvallis where he will again take up his studies in the Agricultural college, he taking the mechanical course. His brother O. P. Yoder will leave next month for this college to take the agricultural course. Both boys are bright, industrious, farmer boys and will make worthy members of the Clackamas delegation in the Agricultural college.

Chautauquas Begin Class Work.

Monday evening a number of the members of McLaughlin Chautauqua circle met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Charman and reorganized their circle, ready for the winter's work in the course of study prescribed in the Chautauqua course. For leader Mrs. R. A. Miller was the unanimous choice of the circle, Mrs. C. H. Dye, who has so successfully conducted the circle for the past four years, declining a re-election owing to her time being fully occupied with her literary work. Mr. A. S. Dresser was elected assistant leader and Miss Mina Kelly, secretary. Misses Mina Kelly, Mary Conyers and Nieta McCarver were appointed a committee on membership. The regular meetings will begin Monday evening, September 27, when the circle will meet at residence of Mr. C. H. Caulfield. There is no charge for membership in the circle, anyone wishing to become a member can leave their name with the committee on membership. The course of study for this winter embraces five books: Imperial Germany, Social Spirit in America, Rome in Pliny's Time, Short History of Medieval Europe and Roman and Medieval Art. These text books are prepared by the ablest writers of the land and are valuable to keep in the library for reference works.

Opening Day.

Mrs. Sladen, the old established milliner, will have her opening on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 22, 23, and 24. She feels confident that the selection made by Miss Wishart will be found superior to anything ever brought to the city in point of variety, style and beauty and cordially invites the ladies of Oregon City to call and inspect her stock on the above dates.

Dreadfully Nervous.

Gents:—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength.

Married.

FEAKES—PETERS—At the office of County Judge Gordon E. Hayes in Oregon City, Oregon, on Wednesday, September 15, 1897, Mrs. Anna Feakes of Wilsonville and August Peters of Stafford, Judge Hayes performing the ceremony in his usual happy and effective style.

Notice.

The third district quarterly meeting for Portland district of the Free Methodist church, will be held at Sunnyside, commencing October 1st, to continue over the Sabbath. District Elder B. F. Smalley will be in charge. All are cordially invited to attend.

Dog Owners, Attention!
