CIRCUIT COURT.

Proceedings of the Regular November Term.

The regular November term of circuit court for Clackamas county was convened at 10 o'clock Monday morning by Judge Thomas A. McBride. T. J. Cleeton, district attorney, E. C. Runyan, court stenographer, Elmer Dixon, county clerk, and G. W. Grace, sheriff, represented their several departments.

T. W. Fouts and T. M. Miller were appointed court bailiff and Max Schulpins bailiff of the grand jury. The grand jury was then drawn as follows: Richard Scott of Milwaukee, foreman; B. G. Coe, of Highland; W. W. Mars, of Oregon City; L. P. Williams, of Canyon Creek; Thomas Garrett, of Marquam; Norman Kaylor, of Upper Molalla; and F. M. Manning, of Milk Creek.

The court gave the usual charge to the grand jury, admonishing them while making diligent inquiry into all cases of suspected violation of law to avoid any unnecessary expense.

The retrial of the now celebrated domestic case of Mrs. Hess against Theodore Liebe was set for Tuesday of next week, Nov. 9.

The following cases were called and dismissed: Allen G. White vs Oregon City; J. B. Seeley vs T. M. Baker; A. Knapp vs James Evans; Rosenthal, Feller & Co. vs E. J. McKittrick; Thomas Charman & Son vs Holton et al; A. Longnecker vs James Bell; R. W. Fisher vs J. S. Moors et al; William Klatsch vs James Hodges; Fritz Weise et al vs Henry Epperson; A. F. Stokes vs C. P. Dix; J. A. Sager vs Atkinson; Oregon City vs East Side Railway Company; Isaac Traynor vs Frederick Marshall; Burke vs Vorpal; G. A. Harding vs J. L. Swafford; McMinnville college vs F. C. Mack; Young vs Young, and Mort vs Hanson.

Six suits of the Portland Trust Company of Oregon, involving the title to land in this city, were continued for the term.

In the case of M. C. Perrin against A. L. Blanchard, et al, judgement was rendered against A. L. and B. Blanchard and H. N. Edmunson for $218, while the matter as to defendants J. P. Tucker and W. M. Burket was continued.

Decrees of foreclosure were entered in the suits of R. Langard vs Silas E. Bevens et al for $1,187.18 and $100 attorney's fees and the sale of 124 acres of land near the junction of Rock creek and Padding river ordered to satisfy the claim; Wm Pochin and Robt Whitworth vs G. J. Trullinger et al for $3,686 and $150 attorney fees and the sale of 400 acres of land in the donation claims of Rema and Orin Mattoon; Filaney Otis vs W. T. Shurtleff et al for $692.18 and $500 attorney fees and the sale of 160 acres of land on the east side of the Willamett river opposite Rock island; Helen B. Anderson vs W. R. Wade et al for $1,165.33 and $100 attorney fees and the sale of 80 acres of land; M. E. McCarty vs Eliza Colman for $699.10 and $100 attorney fees on 22.60 acres of land near Clackamas station; and John Weismann vs John R. Abbott for $985 and $90 attorney fees on 82.86 acres of land in section 15, 4 south, 1 east.

Henry McEisander was given judgement against B. E. Hawley et al for $119 and $50 attorney fee; W. H. Rees against O'Conner et al for $115.50 and $50 attorney's fee; Portland Flouring Mills Company against Jacob Kober for $84.73, and David Turney against H. M. Jackson et al, for $503 and $50 attorney's fee.

Two divorces were granted there being no appearance on the part of the wife in either case. M. H. White was granted a divorce from R. H. White on account of incompatibility of temper, and M. C. Strickland was divorced from B. Strickland because of desertion. Both plaintiffs are practicing physicians, the former being located at Canby and the latter in this city.

In the case of the State vs Walter Wyland, for the larceny of a mare, in which the jury failed to agree in a trial had two years ago, the defendant was granted permission to withdraw the plea of not guilty and to file a demurrer to the indictment. The indictment set out that the mare stolen was the personal property "of some person or persons unknown to the grand jury." It was maintained that under the statute no crime could be shown to have been committed unless it could be proved that the article stolen was "then and there the property of another." The district attorney admitted that the ownership of the animal could not be established in this case, and he asked for a dismissal, which was granted.

sale were set aside and a new decree granted for $3263 and $300 attorney's fee.

In the suit of the Swopes et al vs Scholz in which a temporary injunction had been granted to prevent the defendant from erecting a slaughter-house on Abernethy creek, a demurrer was sustained, and the plaintiff allowed until Saturday to amend the complaint, but the injunction was not dissolved.

The demurrer in Barlow Willembezzlement case was overruled and the case set for trial Monday, November 15.

The case of R. Schneider vs Mrs. Schneider for divorce occupied the attention of the court Wednesday and furnished no end of diversion for the entire court.

The grand jury has returned the following true bills: Bruce Minkler for the larceny of a horse; James Fay for sodomy; and two indictments against Charles Lescor, one for assault with a dangerous weapon and the other for carrying concealed weapons.

The following Oregon City attorneys have been in attendance during the week: L. Stipp, Jno F. Clark, W. G. Hayes, C. H. Dye, J. U. Campbell, L. P. Smith, V. O. Hyde, Geo. W. Swope, J. E. Hedges, W. C. Johnson, Ira Jones, Joseph Rice, R. A. Miller, F. T. Griffith, John W. Loder, L. L. Porter, J. E. Marks, G. B. Dimick, B. F. Swope, D. C. Latourette, A. S. Dresser, B. C. Curry, G. W. Story, H. E. Cross, C. Schuebel, G. E. Hayes, Geo. C. Brownell, and C. D. Latourette, T. F. Cowing.

November Ladies' Home Journal.
"The First Thanksgiving Dinner," "Lillian Bell's First Days in London" and "When Dr. Whitman Added Three Stars to Our Flag" are among the leading features of the November Ladies' Home Journal. The first tells of the most historically important dinner in America, at which Indian chiefs were guests, and at which oysters were first eaten by white men. Miss Bell finds much in London to inspire her pen to its smartest activity, and the descriptions of her sight-seeing tours, her impressions and experiences fairly sparkle with wit. Dr. Whitman's service to the United States in saving Oregon, Washington and Idaho from the British are acknowledged in an article which follows the first women across the continent, and the first whites over the Rocky Mountains. Magician Keller writes on "How I Do My Tricks," showing how simple is their solution when it is known.

The second article on "Inside of a Hundred Homes" is more attractive and rich in suggestions on furnishing and fitting up a home than was the excellent inaugural one of the series. It presents fifteen views. Edward W. Bok advises young married people against living in a hotel or boarding house, points out the beauties of the courtesies of life, and expresses hearty approval of the renewed interest in sewing—woman's truest accomplishment. Alice Wellington Rollins introduces a new and charming character in fiction in the first of her Philippa sketches—"The Mistakes of Philippa"—and Clara E. Laughlin contributes "Revolution of Christopher," a story of strong human interest. Pianists will be delighted with the musical feature, "Poet's Dream Waltzes" by Reginald de Koven, author of "Robin Hood," etc., and people who are home-seeking, with the Journal's special architect's plans for a $2200 house for a small square lot. Mrs. Rorer tells how to cook eggs and to handle family wash, and other articles give hints for church sociables and parties. Suggestions for Christmas presents that can be made by the giver are timely, as are articles upon dress, needlework, and the various departments covering nearly every phase of home life and of woman's work. The November Journal is interesting, instructive and practical. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar per year; ten cents per copy.

PEDAGOGUES MEET.

Clackamas County Teachers Discuss Methods of Work.

The regular monthly meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association was held in the school house at Redland Saturday, October 30, 1897. Called to order at the usual hour by the president, H. G. Starkweather.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Secretary, Fannie G. Porter, and duly approved.

The names of Minnie Walker, Hattie Wilcox, Adam Hermann, W. R. Brooks and Frank C. Murdock were added to the roll of membership.

It was decided to hold the next regular meeting at Clackamas the last Saturday in November, and Messrs. Anderson, Thomson and Rutherford were asked to prepare a suitable program for that occasion.

The program was opened by singing "America"; next came a recitation by Little Maude Stone. An informal discussion on "School Games" followed in which Messrs. Brooks, Rutherford, Strange, Tallman, Austen, Supt. Starkweather and Misses Rowen and Hicinbotham took part.

Messrs. Charles Rutherford and Charles Miller favored the audience with some fine instrumental music, receiving a hearty encore.

An informal discussion of the merits and demerits of "Vertical Writing" showed that a majority of those discussing the subject believed in the vertical system. The subject was introduced by Miss Porter, followed by A. C. Strange, Robert Gunther, Charles Rutherford, Jennie Rowen, W. W. Austen, Annie Hicinbotham and Supt. H. G. Starkweather.

A delicious lunch had been prepared for the teachers, at the residence of Mr. Murdock. Hither the association adjourned, and did ample justice to the good things provided.

Afternoon session called to order by President Starkweather.

The association sang "The Red, White and Blue," with Miss Minnie Walker as organist.

Messrs. Rutherford and Miller again favored the audience with instrumental music.

The feature of this meeting was an able address on "The Laws of Habit" by A. C. Strange. Mr. Strange's talks are always good, so it goes without saying that the address on this subject was exceptionally fine, showing the influence of will, hereditary tendencies and environments on the formation of human character.

For Young Men and Young Women

They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussed their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's arber shop.
