"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W. H. Norton, of Suter Creek, Cal. This cold left me with a cough and I was expectorating all the time. The Remedy cured me, and I want all of my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by Geo. A. Harding.

The Mount Lebanon Shakers recently performed a great deed of charity, although it was not designed as a charity, being nothing more nor less than an advertising scheme. It however resulted in great good just the same. They gave away 1,000 bottles of their Digestive Cordial to those suffering from stomach derangements.

It was so effective in curing those who used the remedy that they were loud in their praises of it and in consequence a large demand for the Cordial was at once created.

The druggists of this town have little books that tell all about it. Digestive Cordial creates an appetite, aids digestion and brings about a rapid increase in flesh and strength.

BAD BREATH!

Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as bad breath; and in nearly every case it comes from the secret suffering from PILES. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. JAMES'S LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

PILES!

How many suffer torture day after day, making life a pain and the existence of all pleasure, owing to the secret suffering from PILES. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. JAMES'S LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION.

SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact, nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand poses the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a covetous habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE!

This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache, for the relief of which TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR MEDICINE.

Married.

SHARP-PRIESTER—At the residence of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, November 3, 1897, Miss Emma Priester to Mr. Edward Sharp, Justice C. Schuebel officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the high contracting parties only, after which a bounteous wedding dinner was served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Priester, highly respected and well-to-do residents of Maple Lane, a young lady of culture and refinement, while the groom is a highly respected resident of Wilsonville, where he owns a large farm and has but recently built a nice new home for his bride. A reception and ball was given the happy couple Wednesday evening at the Priester residence.

Mr. Priester has three married daughters and three single ones yet at home. He says he has been a republican since the days of Abraham Lincoln and does not know what he has done to be paid off in democratic sons-in-law, his three married daughters having chosen men of that political faith. He says they are all excellent men, the only objection being their politics. For his three remaining daughters he offers extra inducements to republican young men, but absolutely draws the line on populists, none of whom need apply.

The Enterprise acknowledges with thanks the receipt of some delicious wedding cake and joins with a host of friends in wishing the young couple who start out in life under such auspicious circumstances, all of the joys and none of the sorrows that are the common heritage of humanity in this life.

Some Political Pointers.

Robert Catlin, one of the brightest of the young attorneys of Portland, was in Oregon City Wednesday attending to business before the circuit court. Mr. Catlin is one of the leaders in the sound money faction of the democratic party and is a close observer of the trend of Oregon politics. As to what his party, or rather factional part of a party, would do in the coming campaign he was rather evasive in expressing himself, though he was quite certain that the sound money democrats would not fuse with the populists nor with the free silver democrats in getting out a ticket. But as to whether his party would get out a separate ticket, or endorse the republican nominees he would not venture an opinion.

Of the contest within the republican party between the Simon-Corbett-Oregonian and the Mitchell-McBride factions for supremacy, he was free to give his opinion as an outsider, that the latter faction would be able to control every county convention in the state including that of Multnomah, thereby giving them control of the state convention with the power to name the republican state and congressional ticket. As to what would be the outcome of the polls Mr. Catlin intended to be non-committal, but he left the impression that the republicans would have no difficulty in carrying the state in June.

Died.

MORSE—At her mother's home in Canemah, Monday, November 1, 1897, Marion Irene Morse, aged 22 years and 2 months.

Deceased, way stricken with a complication of diseases which caused her death, just one short week ago, for which all was done that loving care and human ingenuity could suggest, without avail, and her sweet young life went out early Monday morning. What her death can mean to those who were nearest and dearest to her words cannot tell. The greater and stronger may make more stir in this world but their lives are not entwined about the hearts of so many by acts of kindness, and the unvarying gentleness and sweetness of disposition that characterized the life of the deceased.

"Among all life's pilgrims who have passed this way" none reveal brighter examples of pure, noble womanhood than the life of the deceased, which she was called to yield up while the fingers on the dial still pointed toward the rising sun. Every memory associated with her causes the heart to vibrate with feelings of reverent, tender love.

She leaves besides her grief-stricken mother, Mrs. Grace L. Morse, three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. H. S. Webster, of Cottage Grove; Mrs. Charles L. Henry, of Spokane; Miss Wiltha Morse, of Canemah; James R. Morse, of Portland; and Willie Morse, of Canemah.

The funeral services, conducted from the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. T. W. Butler, were simple and beautiful and typical of the life of the commemorated, speaking from the text: "Her sun has gone down while it is yet day," and drew such comfort out of the text for the bereaved ones as can be found nowhere else outside of God's word.

The pall bearers were James Wilkinson, Otto Freytag, Benj Roake, Guy Fancher, John Monnor and Earnest Harrington.

The remains were consigned to their last resting place in Mountain View cemetery in the presence of relatives and devoted friends only, the grave being fairly smothered in beautiful flowers wrought into many appropriate and suggestive pieces by the hands of kinsmen and friends.

How appropriate to her in her last moments were the lines of Pope when he said: "Hark! they whisper; angels say. 'Listen, spirit, come away!' What is this absorbes me quite, Steals my senses, shuts my sight; Drowns my spirit, draws my breath? Tell me, my soul, can this be death?"

"The world recedes, it disappears! Heaven opens to my eyes! My ears With sounds seraphic ring; Lend, lend your wings! I mount! I fly! O grave! where is thy victory! O death! where is thy sting!"

"Saved Her Life."

MRS. JOHN WALLEY, of Jefferson, Wis., than whom none is more highly esteemed or widely known, writes:

"In 1890 I had a severe attack of LaGrippe and at the end of four months, in spite of all physicians, friends and good nursing could do, my lungs heart and nervous system were so completely wrecked, my life was despaired of, my friends giving me up. I could only sleep by the use of opiates. My lungs and heart pained me terribly and my cough was most aggravating. I could not lie in one position but a short time and not on my left side at all. My husband brought me Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I began taking them. When I had taken a half bottle of each I was much better and continuing persistently I took about a dozen bottles and was completely restored to health to the surprise of all."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
