FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1897.

PLEASANT LECTURE.—Miss Helen Kelleher gave her charmingly illustrated lecture on "Sem-Tropic California" at the Baptist church Monday evening under the auspices of the young people's society to a good audience.

HALLOWEEN PRANKS.—The observance of Halloween has long since lost its religious significance so far as the general run of humanity goes and has come to be regarded by many as a season of license for playing jokes and pranks, many of which are positive violations of law and outside the pale of common decency.

ON A SEPARATE CIRCUIT.—The Oregon Telephone and Telegraph Company of Portland, is engaged in making some extensive and permanent improvements to their lines in Oregon and have put in a new metallic circuit for this city.

IN OTHER LINES.—Frank E. Donaldson, who has been cashier of the Commercial bank of this city since its organization eight years ago, has found it necessary on account of health and the close confinement of that employment, to make a change to a business that will require more outdoor exercise, and has arranged to devote his attention principally to insurance.

SUBURBAN RESIDENCE PROPERTY.—Ira Jones, one of the best known lawyers of Portland, has opened up an office in a suite of rooms in Willamette block over Geo. A. Harding's drug store.

completed a handsome residence on his property and derives his water supply from a large spring that has a capacity sufficient to furnish pure, clean water for a town of 3000 or 5000 people.

THE CITY ELECTION.—Although the city election is less than one month off the matter has provoked but little discussion. But notwithstanding the unruffled appearance of the surface a great deal of quiet still hunting is going on.

MUSIC IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—To encourage the study of music by the children attending the city schools the board has given the use of a room in both the Barclay and Eastham buildings to Mrs. J. H. Strickler, who will give instruction in vocal music, to such of the scholars as desire to take lessons.

HALL'S CATARRH CURE IS TAKEN INTERNALLY AND ACTS DIRECTLY ON THE BLOOD AND MUCOUS SURFACES OF THE SYSTEM. Send for testimonials, free.

AT THE THRESHOLD.—Charles Albright, sr., an old and highly respected pioneer resident of Oregon City is lying very low at his residence at Clackamas Heights, where he is receiving every attention that his family can suggest or medical skill devise.

AND TURNIPS TOO.—When it comes to raising turnips, or anything else in the vegetable or grain line, or to rolling up a good republican majority on election day, commend us to Eagle Creek predict. In verification of this J. P. Woodie brought to this office the other day from his farm in that vicinity a turnip of the "Strap Leaf" variety that weighed 10 3/4 pounds and measured two feet and four inches in circumference.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.—Last Monday evening a delightful Halloween party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pillsbury, in honor of Miss Hazel Pillsbury, to a number of Oregon City's charming young misses under the patronage of Mrs. C. G. Huntley and Miss Vera Pillsbury.

ROAD WORK.—Contractors Smyth & Howard began work on the Willamette Falls road with a force of 20 men Monday morning cleaning, blasting and grading preparatory to putting on crushed rock.

CLASS PARTY.—George T. Howard entertained the members of his Sunday school class to the number of 20 this Gladstone home Wednesday evening.
