THE CITY COUNCIL.

Lively Session Wednesday Night—Judges and Clerks of Election Named.

The city council met in regular monthly session Wednesday evening, Mayor Caulfield presiding, Recorder Ryan in charge of the records and Charles E. Burns representing the police department. Councilman Bittner, Koerner, Busch, Wilson and Harris were present, and Councilmen Caples, Gault and Roake absent.

The minutes of the last regular meeting and also of the two special meetings were read and approved.

E. Matthies and Griessen & Hallwyler were granted a renewal of their saloon licenses.

Recorder Ryan's report showed that one case of violation of city ordinances had come before him during the month, that of Robert Gardner, for being drunk and disorderly, who received a sentence of five days imprisonment with work on the city streets. Licenses were issued as follows:

E. A. Brady, saloon	$200 00
J. N. Miller	200 00
I. G. Rambo	200 00
A. Knapp	200 00
Willamette Falls Bowling Alley	5 00
Weinhard Billiard Parlors	32 50
Total	$837 50

Warrants were drawn on general fund to the amount of $1071.29.

The following claims against the city were read and warrants ordered drawn for the several amounts:

T. F. Ryan, salary	$25 00
Chas. E. Burns, salary	60 00
E. L. Shaw	60 00
Chas. Babcock, street work	63 00
L. Dickleman, cleaning Main street	31 00
Paul Hemmelgarn, meals at jail	5 20
Geo. Bronchton, lumber	17 76
P. G. E. Co., light, 6'10" x 4 1/2" x 4 1/2"	171 45
G. W. Church, hauling dirt	2 00
J. W. Hoffman, sharpening picks	1 45
Press, publishing ordinances	81 40
J. W. Brown, wood	2 50
E. W. Scott	6 25

Messrs. Bittner and Harris, the special committee appointed to look after the improvement of Main street, between Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, reported that it would require 200 yards of crushed rock and $30 worth of labor to put the street in proper condition, 30 yards of the rock and $10 of the labor account being the amount belonging to the East Side Railway Company and which they had agreed to pay. An ordinance authorizing the improvement suggested, provided the rock could be purchased at a cost not exceeding $1.25 per yard, was ordered published.

George C. Brownell appeared before the council to protest against the passage of subdivisions 4 and 5 of section 5, of an ordinance imposing a license of $50 a year on drug stores, grocery stores and restaurants that sell liquors, claiming the council was exceeding the authority conferred upon it by the charter, which made the license $400 per year for these privileges. The saloon men were also present and made a strong protest against the licensing of these places. The Mayor stated that a delegation of ministers had waited upon him and objected to licensing grocery stores and after considerable spirited discussion in which all hands took part, the offending subdivisions were stricken from the ordinance.

The mayor called attention to the fact that the road running on the North side of Abernethy creek, connecting north Main street with the Parkplace county road had been closed up and recommended that the city open the road to the public and make whatever repairs were necessary. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and public property with power to act.

Judges and clerks for the city election to be held the first Monday in December were appointed as follows: First ward—M. E. Willoughby, J. W. Cole, C. W. Fredricks, judges; J. A. Stuart, J. S. Jennings, clerks. Second ward—G. H. Wishart, C. C. Babcock, J. G. Porter, judges; J. M. Lawrence, G. H. Bestow, clerks.

How to Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen, it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent by mail. PERSONAL NOTES.

J. G. Callison, the student printer of Salem, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. G. B. Dimick is visiting her mother, Mrs. Samuel Wolfer, of Needy, this week.

Mrs. J. H. Barrett left on Thursday for a visit of several weeks with friends at Heppner.

Bert and Harry Austin and John Howland left Wednesday for an outing at the upper hatchery.

C. O. T. Williams returned Tuesday afternoon from a couple of days tour of the southern portion of the county.

Rev. M. L. Rugg went to Portland Wednesday, where he delivered an address on "Beneficence" at the Third Baptist church in the evening.

Mrs. W. C. Johnson returned Monday from Tacoma and Long Beach, where she spent three months for the benefit of her son Ronald's health.

Miss Lillian Bunting, who has been a resident of Oregon City for the past year, went to Portland Monday, where she will make her home in the future.

Pat Keller, of Elliott prairie, the fat, jolly road boss of that part of the county, was in Oregon City Thursday, having business before the county court.

Charles Solomon, a prominent merchant of Prineville, Crook county, was a guest of his old time friend, A. C. Walls, a few days the first of the week.

Rev. Gilman Parker went up to Brownsville Thursday to preside at the ordination council to enable W. P. Elmore to don the sacerdotal robes of the ministry.

Mrs. E. S. Crowley, of Carus, was in Oregon City Thursday, arranging to rent her farm, preparatory to going to the East for the winter. In the spring she expects to make a visit to Oklahoma.

Col. Robert A. Miller, has opened up a law office in the Charman block in the rooms formerly occupied by J. W. Draper, where he will be pleased to meet his friends, come they on business or pleasure bent.

N. F. Zimmerman, who recently closed out his saloon and cigar and notion store in this city, has moved to Portland and will go into partnership with D. W. Reidle in the manufacture of hydraulic lime and cement.

John F. Clark, the attorney and abstractor, returned Monday from a few days hunt in Polk county. He brought back quite a string of birds to attest his skill, or luck, or faculty for thrifty buying, or whatever it was produced the string.

Senator E. B. Dufur, of The Dalles, came down to Portland on law business last week and having a little time to spare made a run up to Oregon City to enjoy our scenery for a short time Monday. He was the guest of Hon. George C. Brownell while in the city.

Rev. C. A. Woody has sold his place to T. M. Gault and moved to Portland, where he will be more convenient to his work as editor of the Pacific Baptist. Mr. Gault is the accommodating conductor of the Gladstone car and moved into his new residence Tuesday.

Rev. John M. Boal and his daughter, Mrs. Frances Bradbeer, of Los Angeles, California, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smyth, on Sixth street. The reverend gentleman and his daughter are en route home from Ashland, Kentucky, where they have been sojourning for the past year. They will remain in the city for a month or more. Mrs. Bradbeer and Mrs. Smyth were school girls together and later classmates in college.

H. H. Gilfrey the genial reading clerk of the United States senate, was in Oregon City Friday visiting old-time friends and acquaintances. An evidence of Mr. Gilfrey's efficiency is the fact that he has held his present position for the past 20 years through all the various changes of administration. In company with Hon. C. B. Moores, Mr. Gilfrey made a tour of the electric station and paper mills and was greatly pleased with what he saw. He says our electric station is exceeded in size only by the great electric station of Niagara Falls, and that while our paper mills are not as large as some of the eastern plants, the machinery is all the latest and most approved patterns and their product not excelled anywhere in the world. Mr. Gilfrey had not visited our city for a number of years past and was agreeably surprised at the material advancement and substantial growth manifested on every hand.

The Ins and Outs of It.

If you get best wear out of a coat, best work must have gone into it. You can't get good bread out of poor flour.

Moral: You can't get the best out of anything, unless the best is in it; and the best has to be put in before it can be taken out. Now, we have a rule to test those sarsaparillas with a big "best" on the bottle. "Tell us what's put in you and we'll decide for ourselves about the best." That's fair. But these modest sarsaparillas say: "Oh! we can't tell. It's a secret. Have faith in the label." . . . Stop! There's one exception; one sarsaparilla that has no secret to hide. It's Ayer's. If you want to know what goes into Ayer's Sarsaparilla, ask your doctor to write for the formula. Then you can satisfy yourself that you get the best of the sarsaparilla argument when you get Ayer's.

VIEW OF REVIEWS
Monthly Illustrated
AN INSPIRATION
Edited by ALBERT SHAW

"If only one magazine can be taken, we would suggest the REVIEW OF REVIEWS, as covering more ground than any other magazine."—Board of Library Commissioners of New Hampshire, 1896.

THIS magazine is, in its contributed and departmental features, what its readers, who include the most noted names of the English-speaking world, are pleased to call "absolutely up to date," "thoroughly abreast of the times," "invaluable," and "indispensable." It is profusely illustrated with timely portraits, views, and cartoons. Its original articles are of immediate interest, by the best authorities on their respective subjects. The Editor's "Progress of the World" gives a clear, rightly proportioned view of the history of the human race during the current month. The "Leading Articles of the Month" present the important parts of the best magazine articles that have been written in every part of the world. The newest and most important books are carefully reviewed. Indexes, chronological records, and other departments complete the certainty that the reader of the Review or Reviews will miss nothing of great significance that is said or written or done throughout the world.

McClure's Magazine

For 1897
SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.)

Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begins in November.)

Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished. (Begins in May.)

Chas. A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studies under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Picture of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction.

Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaboriau.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS

Ian Maclaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McClure's MAGAZINE.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories.

Rudyard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McClure's all of the short stories he will write during the coming year.

Octave Thanet is preparing for the MAGAZINE a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself.

Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weyman Clark Russe will all have stories in McClure's for the coming year.

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McClure's MAGAZINE for 1897, the subscription price of which is only

The regular quarterly meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held next Sunday morning, at which time the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be observed.

In the Baptist church the pastor will speak Sunday evening on "The Labor Problem" of Sunday Work and the number of hours that should constitute a day's work.

There is no need of little children being tortured by scald head, eczema and skin eruptions. De Witt's Witch Hazel. Salve gives instant relief and cures permanently. Geo. A. Harding.

For Constipation take Karl's Clover Root Tea, the great Blood Purifier. Cures Headache, Nervousness, Eruptions on the face, and makes the head clear as a bell. Sold by Charman & Co., druggists, Oregon City.

If the first rain days caught you without sufficient protection from the rain and left you with a cold—cure it promptly. It is easily and pleasantly done with Red Seal Cough Cure. 25 cent bottles and every one guaranteed at Huntley's drug store.

Daniel Williams, at the northeast corner of Center and Seventh streets, has a choice and well selected stock of family groceries which he is selling at very reasonable rates. His motto is "live and let live, with honest weights and measures". Goods delivered to any part of the city.

"My landlord will pay for that paper," said a business man to Holman, the wall paper dealer. Holman said it was for the room. "Is that all? Well, I will pay it myself," replied the business man. You will be surprised when you find how little it costs to paper your room when you see Holman and see his up-to-date styles and prices.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so called cures; but De Witt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him. Geo. A. Harding.

There are a great many of the unfortunate ones in this world, greater in number than those who are blessed with good digestion. To some people the greatest misfortune is not to be able to eat everything set before them.

"I suffered for years with dyspepsia, and everything I ate disagreed with me. I was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator and was cured. I now eat everything."—M. Bright, Madison Parish, La.

There was a large audience present at the Congregational church last Sabbath evening to listen to Rev. Butler's second talk to young people. Next Sabbath evening the subject will be on "The Choice of an Occupation; or your calling in Life." At the morning service, the holy communion will be observed. Young peoples meeting at 6:30 p. m. Midweek service every Wednesday evening. The public is cordially invited to all services.

The three-year old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill. is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.
