CIRCUIT COURT.

Continuation of Proceedings from Last Week's Report.

The jury in the case of Chas. Lescor, charged with assaulting Chas. Roadarmel of Clackamas, with a dangerous weapon, stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal and there being no prospect of an agreement after being out a day and a night, were discharged.

Bruce Minkler, the self-confessed horse thief, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or go to jail for 25 days and having no money to pay his fine will remain in jail, where he has already been for nearly three months awaiting trial.

Mrs. A. D. Crim was granted a divorce from C. H. Crim on the ground of cruelty, and Sarah J. Dickerson was separated from C. D. Dickerson because of cruelty and failure of support.

Not a true bill was reported by the grand jury in the case of Otis Shelly, Clarence Williams and Myo Brayton for indecent exposure.

An order for a writ of review was granted in the case of Christian Muralt vs Clackamas county, and the mandate was served on the county court Thursday evening. The controversy is over the amount of damages to be awarded the plaintiff by reason of a change in the location of the Lynn road, a few miles up the Abernethy creek. The viewers first appointed by the county court awarded Muralt damages to the amount of $175. The court deemed that award excessive, and rejected the report of the viewers. On the same petition the county court appointed another set of viewers, and they awarded Muralt but $15. Their report was accepted and the road was ordered opened. Muralt based his application for the writ of review on the allegation that the county court exceeded its jurisdiction when it appointed the second set of viewers on the one petition. Judge McBride ordered the county court to pay the $175 damages or abandon proceedings under that petition for a change of location.

May Borch was granted a divorce from Wm Borch, and Cora Towney, was granted a divorce from Jacob Towney, the defendant failing to appear in both instances.

E E Masten vs F M Sumner, a suit to recover damages in the sum of $1500 on account of the alleged failure of the defendant to execute a deed in accordance with a bond given June 10, 1892, for 15 acres of land at Sunnyside, in this county. By the terms of the bond, $1600 was to be paid for the land, and the plaintiff to have paid $553, and to have expended $294.50 in improvements, and also claims to have been ready to perform all the obligations of the bond, but was prevented by the sale of the land to another person in November, 1895. The defendant denies that the conditions of the bond were complied with by the plaintiff.

The rehearing of Mrs. Elizabeth Hess vs The Oregon German Baking Co and T H Liebe was begun Tuesday morning. Ex-Judge Henry E McGinn N D Simon and C D Latourette appear for the plaintiff, while Senator J H Mitchell and Geo C Brownell represent the defense. The trial is a very important one and the court room has been full of spectators. Mrs Hess is a niece of the defendant, Liebe. In 1893, her husband, Christian Hess, was in the employ of the bakery company, and was suspected of stealing money from the concern. The arrest of himself and his wife, at the instance of Liebe, followed, and Hess was so wrought up by his trial that he shot Liebe and committed suicide in November, 1893, leaving a long letter fully explaining his action. Liebe recovered and in 1895 Mrs Hess brought action for $25,000 damages for malicious prosecution. On a showing by the defendant that he could not get a fair trial in Multnomah county, because of prejudice against him there, a change of venue to Clackamas county was granted, and the case was heard here three years ago, the jury awarding the plaintiff $9500, which was cut down to $9250 by the court. The matter was taken to the supreme court which remanded the cause for a new trial, on the ground that the trial judge, in his charge to the jury erred in his definition of probable cause, as applied to the motive of Liebe when he caused the arrest of the Hesses. The plaintiff went over the story of getting money in Germany and bringing it to this country to show that she had money of her own and that the fact of her having money in the bank in 1893 was no indication that she came by it dishonestly.

Theodore H Leibe was on the stand for five hours Wednesday, and went at length into the details of his relations with Christine Hess, and swore that in instituting criminal proceedings against the Hesses he was governed by the advice of the district attorney. He claimed to have made a full statement of all the circumstances to the district attorney, though, on cross-examination, he admitted he had not told that official that the Hesses had means of their own that could be honestly accounted for. The witness was so eager to tell of an interview he had with Mr. McGinn, on this subject before the beginning of this action, that the repeated admonition of his own counsel and the court failed to repress him. Mr McGinn announced that he would go on the stand and explain the matter, so that it would appear in its proper light. The trial will probably be concluded Friday.

E E Martin pleaded not guilty to the three indictments reported against him, two for forgery of county warrants, and one for uttering the forged paper at the January sitting of the court. He asked the court to fix his bond, and it was placed at $1000, for which sureties were provided.

Store Burglarized.
Sometime during Friday night burglars forced an entrance into Ely Brothers grocery store in the Shively block on Seventh street, by drawing the staples that fastened the front door. One of the burglars evidently hurt his hand in prying the lock off, as blood was spattered over the door and lock. Once inside they proceeded to blow up the safe by drilling two holes into the door, near the combination, into which a charge of powder sufficient to shatter the entire front of the safe was placed. From the safe the burglars obtained about $40 in silver and $20 in gold, together with a note for $55.75 but overlooked a purse containing $100 placed among the books. The bill under the counter was rifled of some $5 in small change. On Saturday a man named Thos. Richardson, alias Ryan, was arrested in Portland on suspicion and will have on examination in Justice Schuebel's court Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Richardson has already served a term in the penitentiary for burglary and has been identified by Duane Ely as the person seen about the store Friday before the burglary occurred in the evening. There is also a fresh wound on his left hand. It is said also that one of Richardson's shoes exactly fit the track left in the rear of Story's blacksmith's shop where the chisel was stolen with which the door was pried open.

Success of a Former Citizen.
It is always a pleasure to chronicle the success of a former resident of our progressive and prosperous city, and more especially when that success is along lines that are elevating and ennobling. The following from the Broadhead, Wisconsin, Register, relative to Prof. R. W. Pringle, a former principal of the Oregon City public schools, will be good news to the professor's many warm friends here. It was thought by some that Mr. Pringle was hardly good enough for our public schools and his appreciation came after he was gone. He has recently been called to the superintendency of one of the largest schools in the state of Wisconsin at a salary of $2,400 per year. The extract is as follows: "R. W. Pringle has sent in his resignation to the board as principal of the Broadhead high school, and has accepted the superintendency of the Appleton school. This came not only as a surprise to everyone in Broadhead, but is universally regretted. Mr. Pringle has the distinction of being the very best principal ever holding a position here. What more can be said. His success has been well earned and he who may follow in his footsteps will find the path no easy one. While his departure is looked upon with regret by teachers, scholars and citizens, still all wish him and his the best of success in the new field of labor. We heartily recommend him to the citizens of Appleton."

Household Gods.
The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods in every home. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of Throat, Chest and Lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure, or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at Charman & Co's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

For Young Men and Young Women
There is nothing that will arouse the re of a young man or woman so quick as to have inferior laundry work put off on them. They may dress ever so well, but if their shirt front or shirt waist is mussy their neat appearance is spoiled. The Troy laundry makes a specialty of ladies' and gentlemen's fine work. There can be no better work than is done at the Troy. Leave your orders at Farnsworth's barber shop.

A Needed Journal.
The Oregon Teacher's Monthly is a 40-page journal devoted to the educational interests of the Northwest, and published under the able, editorial management of Prof. C. W. Durette, of Portland, and Supt. G. W. Jones, of Marion county. It contains a complete resume of Oregon school news, together with some timely articles on live educational topics by some of the leading educators of the land, and will certainly be a necessity to any teacher who desires to keep not only in touch with the educators of the state but who wants to keep thoroughly posted on educational matters as well, or as the Monthly puts it: "We do not not like to drink from a stagnant pool; no more do children. Prepare for your work that you may be a sparkling fountain."

Not Always Understood.
A fact often overlooked, or not always understood, is that women suffer as much from distressing kidney and bladder troubles as the men. The womb is situated back of and very close to the bladder, and for that reason any distress, disease, or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided by setting urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need doctoring. If you have pain or dull aching in the back, pass water too frequently, or scanty supply, with smarting or burning there are also convincing proofs of kidney trouble. If you have doctored without benefit, try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. The mild and the extraordinary effect will surprise you. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures. If you take a medicine you should take the best. At druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent free by mail. Mention the Oregon City Enterprise and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

Ship Canal from the Lakes to the Ocean.
A ship-way to the sea should be built under strict governmental supervision and control, but it can be built successfully only by the same type of genius which has created on this continent a railroad system that is without an equal in the world. The large-brained engineers who have made possible what but yesterday was impossible stand ready to undertake this work. They ask not a dollar of subsidy, but simply charter rights, to go forward with an enterprise fraught with vaster consequences and of more intimate concern to the larger portion of this nation than any other commercial enterprise projected since the beginning of railway construction in America. "From the Lakes to the Sea," by Carl Snyder, in American Monthly Review of Reviews for November.
