Eight Inches of Snow in the Mountains - Millovia Settlers Building New Houses.

MILLOVIA, Nov. 6.—We have been having fine weather for this time of year, but look out after while we will not brag of fine weather. It will be the reverse.

Miss Jessie Carrin, of Currinsville, was visiting at Millovia, last week. Mr. Hawkins has returned from Independence where he has been at work during the summer. We are pleased to have him with us again.

Mr. Bedford has his new house nearly completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones from Garfield were visiting at Mr. Hunt's, last Friday.

Mr. Will Miller, of Portland, was visiting his brother C. C. Miller, recently.

Quite a number of prospectors and hunters are going to the mountains nowadays.

Snow was reported eight inches deep at Roaring river last week.

Mr. Coop has his new house nearly completed.

Mr. Hunt has his new house nearly finished. He also has had a great deal of clearing done on his place this summer.

The settlers at Millovia have most of all their new houses recently, Henry Palmateer doing the carpentering. Those who have not built are intending to in the near future.

Mr. Mitchell is again on his claim but his family live near Lents.

Mr. J. Pinkley is still at his old trade, making shingles.

Redland Notes.

REDLAND, Nov. 8.—Our first flakes of snow fell on Saturday. It looked as if winter was near at hand, but it soon turned out warm and the gentle rain resumed its patter.

Our postmistress is preparing for a trip to Illinois, to visit her parents.

Wm. Stone and A. Kamuscher have each purchased a new broad cast seeder to do their fall seeding with. They say that they do excellent work.

B. F. Linn has been logging for several weeks. He will continue the work the rest of the month. Mr. Linn is preparing to do a good business in the lumber trade next year.

P. Linn has just returned from Pomeroy, Wash., where he has been working the past few months. He states that things are on the move in that section.

L. Mosher, who has been in Grande Ronde Valley the past season aiding in the harvesting of the wheat crop. He says the yield was good.

Next Saturday evening our literary society will resume its work. Come one and all and let us have a first-class literary society this season.

Mrs. S. S. Mosher spent several days in Oregon City last week, visiting friends.

C. Walestine was visiting R. Bacon, of Logan, Sunday. Clarence will soon leave for Portland where he will spend the winter with his mother and attend school.

C. Stone, who is attending the Portland University, spent Saturday and Sunday at home.

Miss Kittie Behymer is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Behymer.

Miss Milda Linn spent several days visiting relatives at Currinsville.

Quite a number of the young folks attended the wedding ball at Priester's of Febierville. They all enjoyed the dance and especially the excellent supper. At two o'clock they took their departure wishing the happy couple a long, happy and prosperous life.

Miss Alice Williams, who is teaching school at the Stricklin school house has changed her boarding place from Mrs. J. Hatton's to Mr. B. E. Court-right's of this place.

H. Smathers and I. Shank got into a scrap one day last week. Mr. Shank carries a very bad eye. It looks as if Mr. Smathers would feel rather small to be brought up so much for assailing a poor old man like Mr. Shank.

F. Wilcox caught a large wildcat last week. He was trapping for coyotes that have been making feasts off of his chickens for some time.

There will be a mask ball at B. F. Linn's hall on Thanksgiving eve. B. F. always has good dances.

E. Lundigen of Lower Beaver Creek, makes frequent trips to this burg.

C. A. Sprague and W. Howell are still hunting a girl, with very poor success.

E. Evensen left last Tuesday evening for California. His wife will spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Carr, of Stone.

Logan Locals.

LOGAN, Nov. 9.—The rain so long looked for is with us in full force. No complaints now of the ground being too dry to plow.

Mrs. Jacob Gerber is at the St. Vincent hospital at Portland, where she recently underwent a very dangerous surgical operation. Mrs. Gerber has a host of friends who are sorry to learn of her affliction.

Mrs. Meigier is still at the hospital.

Mrs. E. P. Folsom and children of Sprague, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Sprague's father, Peter Wilson.

There is to be a neekie social and dance Thanksgiving night at the Grange hall. All respectable persons are invited and a good time is anticipated.

Prof. Austin is conducting a night school which meets once a week. He has several professional pedagogues enrolled.

George and Madison Reed have taken a contract of grubbing for Frank Wilson for $7.25 an acre.

Nelson Humiston and family have moved in the Galliger house.

Mary Shuttle is working for Mrs. R. Kirchem.

Garus Notes.

CARUS, Nov. 8.—The beautiful Indian summer weather of this fall has afforded farmers a fine chance to carry on all sorts of farm work. Seeding, potato digging, etc., has been about completed. Many have hauled their hay, grain and other products to town while the roads were yet in their present excellent condition.

It is without doubt annoying to go about one's premises on the morning after a low E'en night and find buggy wheels missing or farming tools in a neighbor's field, and matters and things in general turned inside out or upside down; but only they who have outgrown sympathy with the mischievous propensities of youth will take serious offense.

The protracted meeting in Linn church, held for two weeks, closed last Wednesday evening of last week. Last Sabbath afternoon presiding Elder Shupp preached an excellent sermon on "Give to the Lord His Portion," after which the sacrament was administered.

We are informed that the young man, who was arrested on the charge of disturbing religious services was released from trial by paying a fine of $12.

W. R. Miller is moving his family and goods to what is known as the Kidd place, which he has rented for the ensuing year. Will Miller is home from Portland with quinsy sore throat.

Knox Cooper went down to Portland last Thursday on matters of business.

Mr. Boen and family, who have occupied the Beattie place have gone to Eastern Oregon, and Mr. Stevens has rented the farm.

CALLA.

Sunnyside News.

SUNNYSIDE, Nov. 8.—Weather beautiful, and the farmers are getting their work all done nicely.

Rev. J. F. Liese and family have gone to Seattle to spend the winter, but will be back to attend the Free Methodist conference in the spring.

Miss Katie Christian is at home to spend a few days. She will go to Eugene in a few days to live with her aunt this winter.

A series of meetings have commenced at church here. Rev. Mrs. M. D. Wheeler occupies the pulpit each night and dispenses the truth with great power, which ought to arouse those living in rebellion against God. They expect to continue the services an unlimited length of time. Hoping many may see the error of their sinful ways and be led to take a better way. All are invited to come and hear and obey.

Clinton Barrett went out to spend the Sabbath. He is now keeping batch in the Kaddery building with a Mr. Wells.

Mr. Otto Nelson has his new house plastered and will soon be ready to move into it.

Mr. Griffith has been under the weather with a lame back, but is able to be out to church again.

Miss Pearl Lovelace, of Damascus, was visiting Miss Nora Barrett over the Sabbath and attending the service at the church.

Rev. Wm. Barrett was called to preach the funeral sermon of Mr. Beebe formerly of Clackamas, who was living with his son, Mr. Guy Beebe, of Happy Hollow. The deceased was 88 years of age. He was buried at Clackamas beside his wife, who died two years ago at the age of 84 years.

Hazelia News.

HAZELIA, Nov. 6.—A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. D. Oldenstadt, the evening of the 28th. A large crowd was present and the evening was spent in dancing. Everybody present had a good time, even if it was not safe to hop while tripping the light fantastic as the hall is not considered very safe.

Mr. J. Hampton and family of Pendleton, have been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity the past week.

Shipley brothers have hauled their hops to town.

John Dennis of Portland, is rusticating for a few days at the home of Geo. Locey. He was with the Johnson surveying party in Idaho the past summer. There seems to be some attraction for him in this vicinity as he goes hunting almost every day, but he never returns with any birds, so we naturally suppose he goes "deer" hunting.

The Hayes brothers have returned from the coast, and report having a fine time.

James Hayes, who was with the Whitten hunting party, killed a panther while out in the mountains, besides several deer and a number of birds.

Mr. George Shipley and wife have been visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood the past week.

Little Jennie Day has been quite sick with sore throat being unable to attend school, but is better now.

Mr. L. Locey is talking of working in the Oregon City paper mills soon. POLLY.

Needy News.

NEEDY, Nov. 8.—We are having a very fine rain at present.

Frank Mitts is attending school at Needy this winter.

Lloyd Marquam and sister went home Friday and will return Sunday.

Mr. Marquam is teaching the Dryland school this winter.

J. E. Mitts is able to be up again after a short illness.

The people in this vicinity are about through digging potatoes.

Leon Cochran of this place is working on Molalla prairie.

Mr. J. B. Mitts and Wesley Riggs have gone for a hunting tour in the mountains. They expect to be gone about one week. We hope the winter has not yet set in.

The school of this place is progressing very nicely under the care of Asa Thompson and his sister Miss Katie Thompson.

Gilbert Noe is teaching the school at No. 91 school house.

George Ackerson was in our town a few days ago.

Our store-keeper, Mr. Cook, is doing a flourishing business.

Mrs. William Thompson is home again. She has been visiting with her parents at Edla, Polk county.

Miss Lizzie Oswald of Molalla was visiting with J. B. Mitts last week.

Some people in this vicinity are still drying apples.

Maple Lane News.

MAPLE LANE, Nov. 9.—A Mr. Batty from Colorado has rented the Hess farm and has moved into the house and began work upon the place. He traveled all over the Willamette valley but found no place that suited him so well as Maple Lane. He has eight children in his family to add to our school.

J. H. Hess has rented his farm and moved to Elly.

Miss Kate Mautz is visiting her cousin in Portland this week.

John Dolan, of Portland is visiting friends here.

Myo Brayton, who has been working on the steamer Ruth for the past two months is home for a week's vacation.

An Achievement of the Century.

Our attention has lately been called to the merits of the great Warner Library now passing through the press. The Review of Reviews very appropriately speaks of it as "Distilling the World's Wisdom." From the maze of writings of all times and ages, the able writers employed upon this great work have condensed in thirty volumes the cream of the world's thoughts. By a happy combination of writer and subject, poetry and art, philosophy and history, science and religion, fact and fiction, biography and romance have each been given a prominence commensurate with their importance in a compendium of literature.

Of this library, Public Opinion in an extended editorial notice well says: "Conceived upon such broad lines, prepared and written by the most competent of living hands, and embracing as it does the literatures of all climes and times, it is not difficult to understand that such a library must represent an enormous investment. We are told and can readily believe that the entire cost of this colossal work will be above a quarter of a million dollars. That such a work should ever be undertaken, and should now be placed upon the market at a price which easily brings it within the reach of the general book-loving public, must we believe, make Mr. Warner's library rank as one of the triumphs of American enterprise."

All classes of students will find in this a treasure from the world's best minds. It is destined to have an immense sale.

If you wish to know more about this work and the special terms of distribution to club members address, The Agency, Harper's Weekly Club, 209 Seventh street, Portland, Or.

A Bright College Journal.

The University of Oregon Monthly, a neat 20-page magazine under the editorial management of Clyde N. Fogle and the business management of Charles V. Galloway, is filled with choice matter pertaining to education in general and the State university in particular. The handsome outside cover is delicately wrought in Oregon grape, the university flower and especially designed for it by Miss Alice E. Barber. A great deal of the current memorial services and addresses in honor of Prof. McClure, showing the very high esteem in which he was held among those who knew him best. A subscription to this sprightly journal will keep you posted on all matters pertaining to educational interests in the State and it will be of especial value to the university, keeping them in constant touch with their alma mater.

Money for Farmers. When it comes to buying harness, saddles, whips or robes the prices and work to be had at Willey's harness shop cannot be duplicated in Portland. Repairing done in good shape and promptly. Full line of shoes carried and sold at bed rock prices. Shoe repairing attended to. Willey's loggers and farmers hand made shoes have no superior. Call at his shop on Seventh street near the depot and see how big a dollars worth you can get.

How to Cure Bilious Colic. I suffered for weeks with colic, and pains in my stomach caused by biliousness and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people. Mrs. F. Butler, Fairhaven, Conn. Persons who are subject to bilious colic can ward off the attack by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.
