C. A. MILLER, SUPT.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1897.

STILL IN THE RING.—Some of the leading gold democrats of Oregon City regard Col. R. A. Miller's statements in last week's Enterprise as entirely too sweeping and say there were enough gold democrats to bury Mr. Bryan last November and there are still enough gold standard men in the party to do up the free silverites again. But notwithstanding this showing these patriots admit the lines of the gold standard men of the party have fallen in hard places, when it comes to the alternative of choosing between Bryan, anarchy, repudiation and ruin on the one hand and going over into the republican camp on the other with his robber tariff. They say there must necessarily be two great political parties in this country and that the populists party has absolutely been swallowed up by Bryan and his followers and they will have to petition in order to get on the ticket at all in nearly all of the states where they formerly had a party organization, at the next election.
That the principles of the grand old party of Jefferson and Jackson are as enduring as the everlasting hills, while the representatives of that party have stood the government in good stead during many trying ordeals in the past. Still these democrats, who have been voting the ticket since the days of Andrew Jackson, have come to the conclusion, after surveying the condition of their party calmly and dispassionately, that the words of Solomon when he said: "Though thou shouldst bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pebble, yet will not his foolishness depart from him," are especially applicable to the members of their party.

MAGONE GETS A NEW TRIAL.—The supreme court has ordered a new trial in the case of Dan Magone, sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for grave robbery. It was shown in the bill of exceptions that Detectives Welsh and Simmons, of Portland, and Stenographer Nolton, employed in the chief of police's office in Portland, were permitted, despite defendant's objections, to detail statements made them by Montgomery, Rector and Long, in Magone's absence, to the effect that, at the latter's solicitation, others agreed to engage in the commission of the crime charged in the indictment. The supreme court holds that the evidence shows that the crime charged had been fully consummated before the conspirators made the declarations to the witnesses, and hence the evidence thereof at Magone's trial was incompetent for any purpose. The evidence objected to being inadmissible for any purpose, the statement that it was incompetent is sufficient to present to this court the identical question considered in the court below. This is held to be sufficient error for reversal of the lower court. The supreme court also held that while Montgomery's testimony was not incompetent his interest in the result of the trial might affect its credibility, and that he was induced to testify against Magone by promises held out to him by the detectives. District Attorney Lord represented the state and Judge Moreland the defense.

PATENT FLOUR.—The Portland Flouring mills company of this city has recently been sending out samples of their new brand of Patent flour, manufactured especially for the local trade. This flour is guaranteed to absorb more water and make more loaves of bread to the sack than any other brand on the market.
The tests to which the good housewives of our city have subjected this new flour have been entirely satisfactory and the company's sales have greatly increased during the week. It serves to show what a little judicious advertising will do when you have a really good article to advertise. Besides buying one of the very best brands of flour on the market when you get Patent, you are patronizing a home industry and assisting in the material advancement of our city.

IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE.—Arrangements have been made by the Southern Pacific company to run the McMinnville passenger train, on the West Side, through to Independence commencing Tuesday, Nov. 16. This does not change the arriving and leaving time of this train at stations between Portland and McMinnville, inclusive, being simply an extension of the run. This change is something in the nature of an experiment. If the train is liberally patronized, or even to an extent which will compensate this company for the increased expense, it will be continued indefinitely. This change will be a great convenience to the people on the West Side.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Little Martina Parker, the daughter of Mrs. Charles Parker of this city, was five years old on Tuesday and celebrated the event by giving a party to a number of her young friends.
The little hostess received many nice presents and entertained her guests with games and an elegant luncheon. Little Martina has been suffering for a long time from the effects of a dislocated ankle and will be taken to the hospital today to have an operation performed in the hopes of restoring her to health.

LADIES ENTERTAIN.—The ladies of Falls Grove Circle, No. 32, Woodmen of the World, will give one of their pleasing entertainments at Willamette hall next Monday evening, Nov. 22. A good musical and literary entertainment will be rendered and the gramophone, Edison's latest and most wonderful invention, will be used for the first time at a public entertainment. Admission only 10 cents. Everybody invited.

HOUSE TO RENT.—A brand new seven room cottage, hard finished and located in the healthiest part of Oregon City.
Rate of rent no object, right kind of family wanted to care for house. Apply at this office.

DONE WITH A KNIFE.—Those fine, juicy steaks and prime roasts to be obtained at Albright's meat market are all done with a knife in the hand of an expert cutter.

THE BEET SUGAR INDUSTRY.

Its Rapid Growth in the West—Capital Invested.

Since 1890 the beet sugar industry of the western states has grown from an invested capital of $350,000 to over $5,500,000. In the same time the area of land planted to sugar beets has increased from 2,100 acres to 36,000 acres. Today there are over 3,000 families in the west that get their living by growing beets, by working in sugar factories, by quarrying lime rock for the manufacture of beet sugar and by making machinery and supplies for the running of the sugar factories. This year the industry is going forward in leaps.
Thousands of acres of land that has heretofore been virgin soil and has never been used for anything but grazing for sheep or cattle is being converted into great fields of sugar beets, and some $5,000,000 will be invested in beet sugar factories in the southwest alone in the next 12 months. In presenting the foregoing statistics the New York Tribune also calls attention to the new western plants as follows:

Two new sugar factories are approaching completion in California, one at Alamitos, in the vicinity of Los Angeles, and the other at Salinas, in central California. The people of Phenix, A.
T., and the settlers in the Gila valley are discussing the feasibility of bonding that region for a $700,000 sugar factory and refinery that will utilize the product of beets from 8,000 acres of land in central Arizona. The foundation for a sugar factory, to have a capacity of 800 tons of beets a day, is laid at Roswell, N. M. The Mormons have had such success with their factory at Lehi, Utah, that they have contracted for the machinery for a new beet sugar factory of 1,000 tons capacity, to be built in the neighborhood of Provo.

A company of Frenchmen, of whom Lazard Freres, the Parisian bankers, are members, has decided to invest some $1,000,000 in four beet sugar factories in California, New Mexico and Texas in the next two years. They have representatives now spying out eligible localities for growing sugar beets. The final decision as to the exact location of the factories will probably be announced from Paris some time this summer.
Then a syndicate of San Francisco, St.
Louis and Chicago capitalists has decided to build three of the largest beet sugar factories in the world, each having a daily capacity of 4,000 tons of beets, in the Arkansas valley, in Colorado. The building of these immense works is to begin before August. The factories, all complete and equipped, will cost $5,000,000, and tracts have been devoted to growing sugar beets.

While there has been a woeful depreciation in all farm lands throughout Kansas and Nebraska, the value of the acres planted to sugar beets in those states has risen from 400 to 800 per cent. This year the area of sugar beet land there is again extended.

Aid for the Hospital.

The Rectory, St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Oregon City, Nov. 17.

To the Public: By the kindness of the publisher of this paper I am permitted to appeal to the generously inclined in behalf of the Good Samaritan hospital, Portland. It is a Protestant institution whose doors are open to all, regardless of sex, creed, or place of nativity. People of many nationalities and of various phases of belief yearly avail themselves of its benefits. The hospital is almost wholly supported by charity, and gifts of every description are gratefully received. We, therefore, in this way solicit fruits, vegetables, potatoes and produce of any kind.
Also old linen for bandages, and anything which the exigencies of a hospital would suggest.

Your gifts may be brought to the church on Thanksgiving day, or on any day before; or they be left at any one of the following places: Messrs. Grace & Co., Ely; Mr. Harris, Oregon City; or Mr. Stokes, Canemah. The transportation lines deliver them at the hospital free of charge.

We have had a bountiful harvest. Let not fullness lead to forgetfulness. We shall please God by transforming the praise we feel into kindness and benefactions which others shall enjoy. "I was sick and ye visited me," and "When saw we Thee sick?" But "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."
