New veillings at Miss Goldsmith's.

PATENT flour is made in Oregon City.

Graphophone at Willamette Falls next Monday evening.

Knitting yarn, two skeins for 5 cents at the Racket Store.

Special bargains in remnants of ribbons and velvets at Mrs. Sladen's.

The largest, best and nicest selections of ribbons ever in the city just arrived at the Racket Store.

You can get stamped pillow shams for 20 cents per pair at The Racket store, opposite Charman's drug store.

At Mrs. Sladen's millinery parlors a fine assortment of trimmed hats from $1 to $1.50 and a speciality in velvets.

Misses Maud Salisbury and Lulu Hankins, of this city, and S. C. Hoffman, of Garfield, are engaged in writing up the 1897 tax roll.

For a quiet place to hitch your horses away from the motor line and a place to get a first class job of repairing or horse shoeing call on S. F. Scripture's shop on Fifth street.

Look at the prices on the Holiday Line of dolls in the window at Huntley's Book Store. Better buy one now and have plenty of time to get its dresses made for Christmas.

Catarrh Cured. A clear head and sweet breath secured with Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy; sold on a guarantee. Nasal injector free. Sold by Charman & Co., druggists, Oregon City.

There is no need of little children being tortured by scald head, eczema and skin eruptions. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve gives instant relief and cures permanently. Geo. A. Harding.

Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no home should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot. Sold by Charman & Co., druggists, Oregon City.

If the first rain days caught you without sufficient protection from the rain and left you with a cold—cure it promptly. It is easily and pleasantly done with Red Seal Cough Cure. 25 cent bottles and every one guaranteed at Huntley's drug store.

"My landlord will pay for that paper," said a business man to Holman, the wall paper dealer. Holman said it was $— for the room. "Is that all? Well, I will pay it myself," replied the business man. You will be surprised when you find how little it costs to paper your room when you see Holman and see his up-to-date styles and prices.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so called cures; but De Witt's was the one that did the work and he will verify this statement if any one wishes to write him. Geo. A. Harding.

Memory is a little treacherous now and then, and causes one to forget some things worth remembering, unless one has an experience like that which came to Mr. D. E. East, Moffat's Creek, Va., who says "I had been suffering for years with a torpid liver and found no relief until I took Simmons Liver Regulator when I was entirely relieved of my troubles. I never intend being without Simmons Liver Regulator."

The three-year old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill, is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

All pain banished by Dr. Miles' Pain Pills.

Died.

SCOTT—At her home in Highland, Nov. 3, 1897, Mrs. Dianah Scott, wife of John L. Scott, aged 71 years, 1 month and 21 days.

Deceased was born in Saline county, Missouri, and was married to J. L. Scott in Pettis county of that state in 1847, moving back to Saline county in 1853. They came across the plains with the Samuel Hughes party in 1853 and settled in Highland precinct, of this county, locating on their donation claim March 14, 1854, where Mrs. Scott lived up to the time of her death, and where her husband who survives, still lives. She was the mother of eight children, six of whom are living. Mrs. C. J. Barkley, of Oakesdale, Washington; Mrs. M. M. Wilcox, Garfield, Oregon; Mrs. M. E. Kandle and John A. Scott, Highland; Mrs. F. T. Shute, Falls City, Oregon; and Joseph R. Scott, Roseland, B. C.; also an adopted daughter, Eva Billings.

Mrs. Scott made a profession of religion in early life, but was not a member of any church until 1862, when she united with the Southern Methodist church. She lived a consistent Christian life, was a true friend, a faithful companion and a loving mother, and has entered upon the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

The funeral services were conducted on the 5th inst. by Rev. Mr. Crane and the remains laid to rest in the cemetery at Springfield.

PHILLIPS—In North Yakima, Washington, Monday, Nov. 15, 1897, of pneumonia, Fern May, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Phillips, aged 7 months and 19 days.

The funeral was conducted at the family residence after which the little form was brought to Oregon City and buried from the residence of the little one's grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Bacon on Tenth street near Main, the interment being in Mountain View cemetery, a short service being conducted at the grave by Rev. H. Oberg, of the Methodist church. The remains were accompanied to this city by the father only, the grief-stricken mother being detained at home by the serious illness of another child. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are well known former residents of Oregon City and have the sincere sympathy of many friends in their sore affliction.

WALKER—At his home in this city, Wednesday, November 17, 1897, of erysipelas, Franklin L. Walker, aged 53 years and 6 months.

Deceased had been a resident of Oregon City for about five years and had been acting as butcher for Charles Albright. He was a bachelor and had no relatives in this country so far as known. He was a member of Meade Post, No. 2, G. A. R., under whose auspices the funeral was conducted at Willamette hall Thursday afternoon. Dr. T. W. Butler of the Congregational church preached the sermon, after which the simple and beautiful ritualistic service of the Grand Army was given by the members of that organization and the remains taken to Mountain View cemetery and laid to their final rest.

The little two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins died of diphtheria Tuesday and was buried Wednesday afternoon, a private funeral being held, conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery. The little fellow was sick for several days before medical aid was summoned and it was then too late. Another child is sick with the same disease but is getting better and as the family is in quarantine there is no danger of the disease spreading.

The Outlook.

The December Magazine Number of The Outlook will be its annual Book Number. The Outlook was, it is believed, the first of the weekly papers to form the custom of printing each year a special number fully illustrated and containing not only descriptions and reviews of the important holiday books, but also literary articles of special interest at this season. This year a group of articles on Artistic Book-Making will form a prominent feature of the number. Mr. Theodore DeVinne, the head of the famous firm of artistic printers, Mr. George Warton Edwards, the artist, and Mr. E. D. North, the well-known bibliophile and expert in books, will contribute to this series, and the illustrations will be of a high order. Other features will make this number, it is believed, more attractive than any of its many predecessors put forth by The Outlook Company. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, 13 Astor Place, New York.)

Matters in Probate.

Semi-annual account of Edna Taylor, administrator of the estate of Peter Taylor, deceased, approved. The report shows that the receipts were $335.20 and disbursements $184.01, leaving a balance of $151.19. Final report of Thomas Charman, administrator of the estate of Alex McGawey, deceased, approved and administrator commanded to pay into the court within 15 days the sum of $218, which was inadvertently omitted at the making up of the final report. A further sum of $18 was allowed on the claim of D. Richardson, and the further sum of $24 in excess of commission on $1200 and no attorney fees were allowed from the estate for conducting the defense of the trial.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back and weak kidneys, malaria, nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to the liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at Charman & Co. Drug Store.

Money to Loan.

Plenty of money to loan on good real estate at 8 and 10 per cent. Seven per cent on good business property.

Scoff and Cough.

The man who scoffs at friendly advice to "take something for that cough," will keep on coughing, until he changes his mind or changes his earthly residence. Singular, isn't it, how many stubborn people persist in gambling, with health as the stake, when they might be effectually cured of cough, cold, or lung trouble, by a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

McClure's Magazine

For 1897

SEVEN GREAT SERIALS

A New Life of Grant by Hamlin Garland. The first authoritative and adequate Life of Grant ever published. Lavishly illustrated. (Begins in December.)

Rudyard Kipling's first American serial, "Captains Courageous." (Begins in November.)

Robert Louis Stevenson's "St. Ives." The only novel of Stevenson's still unpublished. (Begins in May.)

Chas. A. Dana. "Recollections of Wartime." Mr. Dana was for three of the most critical years of the Civil War practically a member of Lincoln's Cabinet, and is probably better fitted than any other man living to give an authoritative history of this period from his recollections and correspondence.

Portraits of Great Americans. Many of them unpublished. In connection with this series of portraits it is intended to publish special biographical studies under the general title of MAKERS OF THE UNION from Washington to Lincoln.

Picture of Palestine. Specially taken under the editor's direction.

Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaboriau.

TEN FAMOUS WRITERS

Ian Maclaren. All the fiction that he will write during the coming year, with the exception of two contributions to another publication which were engaged from him long ago, will appear in McClure's MAGAZINE.

Joel Chandler Harris. A series of new animal stories in the same field as the "Brer Rabbit" and the "Little Mr. Thimblefinger" stories.

Rudyard Kipling. Besides "Captains Courageous," Kipling will contribute to McClure's all of the short stories he will write during the coming year.

Octave Thanet is preparing for the MAGAZINE a series of short stories in which the same characters will appear, although each will be complete in itself.

Anthony Hope Bret Harte Robert Barr Frank R. Stockton Stanley Weyman Clark Russe will all have stories in McClure's for the coming year.

These are only a small fraction of the great and important features of McClure's MAGAZINE for 1897, the subscription price of which is only

One Dollar a Year

The new volume begins with November. Subscriptions should start with this number.
